

Friday, November 20th - Sunday, December 1st.

EVENTS

- Friday, 2.30 p.m. - Dr. Vello Sermat and Dr. Igor Kusyszyn will be interviewed by Norm Perry on Channel 9, CFTO-TV. Dr. Sermat will discuss "Loneliness" and Dr. Kusyszyn will speak on "Hero Worship".
- 4.00 p.m. - Graduate Colloquium in the Philosophy of History and the Social Sciences. Guest: Professor Alan Donagan, University of Illinois, author of "The Logic of Situation" - Colloquium Room, Stedman Lecture Halls.
- 4.00 p.m. - Mathematics Seminar - Dr. E. Denzel, University of Missouri, will speak on "Coin Tossing" - Room F, Stedman Lecture Halls.
- 8.30 p.m. - Inter-University Basketball - York vs. Michigan, Main Gym, Tait McKenzie.
- 8.30 p.m. - Le Théâtre Populaire du Québec will present "L'Avare" by Molière - sponsored by Burton Auditorium, The Dept. of French Literature, and the Board of Education. Burton Auditorium, Admission - $3.00, Students - $1.50.
- Saturday, 9.30 a.m. - Student-faculty recreational soccer - soccer field.
- 8.30 p.m. - The McGill Players present "Sgt. Musgrave's Dance" - Burton Auditorium. Admission - $1.00.
- Sunday, 2.00 and 7.00 p.m. - Film Arts Series - "The Game is Over" and four films by Norman MacLaren including "The Chairy Tale".

GENERAL

- H.S. Harris, Dean of Glendon College, will be giving a paper on "The Young Hegel and the Postulates of Practical Reason", today, at the International Symposium on "Hegel and the Philosophy of Religion" being held at Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina.
- Result of the first squash game - York 4, McMaster 1.
- The Women's Athletic Association is hosting teams from Queens, Laurentian, Ryerson and the University of Toronto, who will be competing in basketball, volley ball, and badminton games, swimming and diving competitions, over the weekend.
- The Faculty of Administrative Studies Seminar with guest speaker Mr. Bruce Legge, Q.C. scheduled for this Saturday morning in Burton Auditorium, has been cancelled.
- A group from the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship will be using University facilities at Glendon this Saturday.

YORK ACTIVITIES - December 2nd - 8th.

EVENTS

ART EXHIBITS

- International Posters (courtesy Poster Palace) on view in the Vanier Residence Common Room, 9.00 a.m. - 7.00 p.m. daily, until December 13th. Sponsored by the Vanier Art Committee.

- Monday, 11.00 a.m. - Poetry Reading featuring American Poet Diane Wakoski, Lecture Hall, Atkinson College. Although an English class, others welcome.
- 3.00 p.m. - Third in a series of six two-hour lectures for persons interested in Fortran Programming. Room 105, Winters College.
- 4.00 p.m. - Psychology Colloquium - Professor Leon Festinger, Dept. of Psychology, New School for Social Sciences, New York, will speak on "Some Ideas about Colour Vision" - Colloquium Room, Stedman Lecture Halls.
- 4.00 p.m. - Film, "Henry V" - Room B, Stedman Lecture Halls. Although an English class, others welcome.
- 4.30 p.m. - Biology Seminar - Mr. P. Webber will speak on "An Evaluation of Lichenometry" - Room 320, Farquharson Bldg.
- Wednesday, 3.00 p.m. - Fourth in a series of six two-hour lectures for persons interested in Fortran Programming. Room N-102, Humanities Bldg.
- 4.30 p.m. - Chemistry Seminar Series - Professor I.W.J. Still, University of Toronto, will speak on "Some Recent Advances in Organic Photochemistry" - Room 320, Farquharson Bldg.
- 5.00 p.m. - Student - faculty squash match - Tait McKenzie Squash Courts.
- Thursday, 1.00 p.m. - Noon Hour Concert - Gary Gross and his jazz sextet, also Martin Polten, classical guitarist. McLaughlin Junior Common Room.
- 4.00 p.m. - Guest Lecturer Dr. Robert Goode will conduct a seminar on "Hypoxic Exercise", sponsored by the Physical Education Programme. - Tait McKenzie, everyone welcome.
- Friday, 12.45 p.m. - York Christmas Concert, featuring the York Strings, Choir and Band, under the direction of Dr. W.A. McCauley. Vanier Dining Room.
- 1.00 p.m. - Forum - "College System - What can we do now?" - Winters Junior Common Room. Everyone invited.

*please turn over

1.30 p.m. - Noon Hour Concert - Tommy Ambrose and his Big Band, also Martin Polten, classical guitarist. Old Dining Hall, Glendon.

2.15 p.m. - Film on "Electron Microscopy" - Room B, Stedman Lecture Halls. Although a natural science class, others welcome.

3.45 p.m. - Squash match - York vs Upper Canada College - Tait McKenzie Squash courts.

Saturday, 9.00 p.m. - Alumni Christmas Dance - Old Dining Hall, Glendon. Tickets - $2.50 per couple.

Tuesday, December 3rd.

EVENTS

- 7.00 p.m. - 8.00 p.m. - Recreational Ice Skating - Ice Rink.
7.30 p.m. - Folk Dancing - Old Dining Hall, Glendon.

GENERAL

- The Computer Centre is trying to ascertain the demand for an evening course in Fortran Programming. Persons interested in attending such a course are asked to contact the Computer Centre Secretary, Mrs. A. McCarthy, at 2318.
- "Zzardvark" - York's student-faculty telephone directory, is now on sale at York student agencies in Founders College, or at the York Student Council office, Temporary Office Building. Cost - 25¢.
- Central Square, located between the Humanities Building and the Central Library, is half finished, with a completion date scheduled for May. A coffee shop, bank, student newsroom and a large bookstore (with a main sales area on the concourse level and room for expansion in the basement), will be permanent facilities. A Drug and smoke shop, Barber shop and Beauty Salon will temporarily be housed in the Central Square.
- Runner-up in the Miss Grey Cup pageant was Miss Toronto Argonaut, Jacquie Perrin, a second year Founders student.

Wednesday, December 4th.

EVENTS

- 3.00 p.m. - Fourth in a series of six two-hour lectures for persons interested in Fortran Programming. Room N-102, Humanities Bldg.
- 4.30 p.m. - Chemistry Seminar Series - Professor I.W. J. Still, University of Toronto, will speak on "Some Recent Advances in Organic Photochemistry" - Room 320, Farquharson Building.
- 5.00 p.m. - Student-faculty squash match - Tait McKenzie Squash Courts.

GENERAL

- Today, Dr. D. Solitar, Department of Mathematics, is speaking to Grade 13 students at the Education Centre, Hamilton, on "Dice".
- A shipment of Christmas cards with the York Crest has arrived at the Bookstore and will be on sale this week. Cost - .15 ¢ each, $1.50 per dozen.
- A cheery note for harried motorists - The Department of Roads, North York, informs us that construction on Steeles Avenue between Keele and Dufferin has been completed and the road is now open to traffic.
- The Ontario University Registrar's Association will hold the first of its workshops, an "Admissions Workshop", in Winters Masters Dining Room, Monday, December 9th. Mr. M.A. Bider is President of the Association.
- On Tuesday, December 10th, York is hosting a series of competitions with the University of Toronto. Scheduled events include basketball, hockey, swimming and volleyball.

Thursday, December 5th.

EVENTS

- 1.00 p.m. - Noon Hour Concert - Gary Gross and his jazz sextet, also Martin Polten, classical guitarist. McLaughlin Junior Common Room.
- 3.00 p.m. - Chaucer Lecture Series - Professor Allen Koretsky will speak on "Rhetoric of the Narrator in Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde", Room N-102, Humanities Bldg.
- 4.00 p.m. - Guest Lecturer Dr. Robert Goode will conduct a seminar on "Hypoxic Exercise", sponsored by the Physical Education Programme. Tait McKenzie Bldg, everyone welcome.
- 7.45 p.m. - Musical Evening, Old Dining Hall, Glendon. Programme: Sonata for flute, violin and piano by Bohuslav Martinu, performed by Alain Baudot, Juliette Del Junco and Elizebeth Mittler; also Bach's "Sonata in G" and Rachmaninoff's "Serenata", performed by Don di Novo and Margaret Duesberry. No admission charge, everyone welcome.

GENERAL

- Dr. Lewis Hertzman, Associate Professor and Chairman of the History Department, will be among the academicians who will meet with External Affairs Minister Mitchell Sharp and senior officials early in 1969 to review part of the Government's foreign policy. The conference is being organized by the Canadian Institute of International Affairs.
- Feeling inspired? A contest for material to be used in York's "Revue" is now in progress. Skits, songs, blackouts and one-line gags are invited from faculty, staff and students - prizes to be awarded. Please send submissions to Nicholas Ayre, Burton Auditorium. Deadline - January 1st.
- Mr. H.S. Lee, Graduate Studies, reports that under the NATO Visiting Professorship Programme for the year 1969-70, a Canadian Professor will visit France and two professors, one from Iceland and one from Portugal, will spend a year in Canada. Canadian Universities are being asked by AUCC if they would like to suggest a professor for this exchange and if they would be able to accept a visiting professor from either one of these countries.

Friday, December 6th - Sunday, December 8th.

EVENTS

- Friday, 12.45 p.m. - York Christmas Concert featuring the York Choir with Caroling - Vanier Dining Hall.
- 11.00 a.m. - Forum, sponsored by York Student Council - "The College System - What can we do now?" - Winters Junior Common Room. Everyone welcome.
- 1.00 p.m. - Forum, sponsored by York Student Council, on Modes of Reasoning 171 course. All interested persons welcome. Burton Auditorium.
- 1.30 p.m. - Noon Hour Concert - Tommy Ambrose and his Big Band, also Martin Polten, classical guitarist. Old Dining Hall, Glendon.
- 2.15 p.m. - Film, on "Electron Microscopy" - Room B, Stedman Lecture Halls. Although a natural science class, others welcome.
- 3.45 p.m. - Squash Match - York vs Upper Canada College - Tait McKenzie Bldg.
- 7.00 p.m. - 8.00 p.m. - Recreational Skating - Ice Rink.
- 7.30 p.m. - Film, "East of Eden" - Room D, Stedman Lecture Halls. Admission - .75¢.
- 8.00 p.m. - Philosophy Club - Guest Speaker Stephen Straker, University of Indiana, will talk on "The Case for Scientific Revolutions Reconsidered: Kuhn and Feyerabend - the Comparability of Paradigms". Room 247, York Hall, Glendon.
- 8.00 p.m. - Department of Philosophy presents Professor Donald Ihde, University of Southern Illinois, who will speak on "Prelude to a Phenomenology of Language" - Colloquium Room, Stedman Lecture Halls.
- Saturday, 9.30 a.m. - Student-faculty recreational soccer - soccer field.
- 11.00 a.m. - Hockey Game - Osgoode vs Laurentian - Ice Rink.
- 9.00 p.m. - Alumni Christmas Dance - Old Dining Hall, Glendon. Admission - $2.50 per couple.
- 9.15 - 11.15 p.m. - Recreational Skating - Ice Rink.
- Sunday, 1.15 - 4.00 p.m. - Recreational Skating - Ice Rink.
- 2.00 and 7.00 p.m. - Film Arts Series - "Alfie" and "Morgan" - Burton Auditorium.

GENERAL

- Dr. R. H. Haynes, Chairman, Dept. of Biology, will give a talk on "DNA and Cell Replications" at the Science Seminar for High School Students Saturday morning, in the Stedman Lecture Halls.
- Off Campus groups using University facilities this weekend include; The Federation of Ontario Naturalists, and the Ontario Volleyball Association.

Tuesday, December 10.

EVENTS

- 4.00 p.m. - Film, "Cool Hand Luke" - Burton Auditorium. Although a Humanities class, extra seats available. No admission charge.
- 4.00 p.m. - Victorian Studies Seminar - Professor Barbara Rooke, Department of English, Trent University, will speak on "Edward Coleridge - Two Victorian Manuscripts" - Colloquium Room, Stedman Lecture Halls.
- 4.00 p.m. - 7.00 p.m. - Department of Political Science "get-together" for faculty, graduate students and political science majors. Ed Broadbent, M.P. for Oshawa-Whitby, (former member of York faculty), will give an informal talk on his impressions of the Trudeau Government.
- 6.00 p.m. - York's Competitions with University of Toronto begin with a Volleyball game - Tait McKenzie bldg.
- 7.00 p.m. - Swimming Competition - York vs University of Toronto - Tait McKenzie.
- 7.00 - 8.00 p.m. - Official Presentation of Metropolitan Toronto and Region Transportation Study, (MTARTS), will be made to the Atkinson Social Science Course on Urbanization. Room A, Stedman Lecture Halls. 50 extra seats available.
- 8.00 p.m. - Hockey game - York vs University of Toronto - Ice Rink.
- 8.30 p.m. - Basketball game - York vs University of Toronto - main gym, Tait McKenzie.

GENERAL

- Score of squash match last Friday - York 3, Upper Canada College - 2.
- The Vanier Art Committee is sponsoring an art contest, open to all students of York University, on Wednesday, January 22, 1969. Paintings, drawings, and sculpture will be accepted and entries will be limited to two per person. Final date for submission of entries is Wednesday, January 15th, 1969. The works will be exhibited before and after the judging, until January 30th, in the Vanier Residence Common Room.
- Dr. Bryce Taylor has been appointed to the Physical Education and Recreation Committee of the Canadian Association for Retarded Children. Dr. Taylor has also been appointed Chairman of a Physical Education Consultation for private, public and voluntary agencies.

Wednesday, December 11th.

EVENTS

- 3.00 p.m. - Last in a series of six two-hour lectures on Fortran Programming. Room N-102, Humanities Bldg.
- 4.30 p.m. - Professor Mordecai Roshwald, University of Minnesota, will speak on "Togetherness and Alienation: An American Paradox" - Room D, Stedman Lecture Halls. Everyone welcome.
- 5.00 p.m. - Film, "La Vie Heureuse de Léopold Z" - Room 219, Glendon. Sponsored by the French Department. Extra seats available.
- 7.00 p.m. - Film, "Russian Gymnastics" - Burton Auditorium. Admission - 75¢

GENERAL

- Professor Mordecai Roshwald who is giving a talk at York today, has written widely on class, political eschatology and patterns of organization in the United States. He taught at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem and at Brooklyn College before going to Minnesota, where he teaches in the Social Science Programme. Mr. Roshwald's novel, "Level Seven", has been published in ten languages, and a television play was made of it by J.B. Priestley for the BBC. His play, "A Small Armageddon" has also been produced on the BBC.
- A group of students from Barrie Eastview Secondary School will be touring York Campus today.
- The member societies of the Learned Societies in the Social Sciences and the Humanities, have been invited to hold their 1969 annual meetings at York University. To date some 35 societies have accepted this invitation and will be on campus for varying periods of one to four days between June 1st and 17th, 1969. Many of the delegates will be attending the meetings of several societies, and it is expected that more than 2,000 people could be on campus at any one time. Most of the York Campus facilities will be reserved for these meetings and Glendon Campus residences will be used to accommodate any overflow. A reception committee has been established under the chairmanship of Dr. R.C. Joyner, Faculty of Administrative Studies, who will make the necessary arrangements to host the visiting societies.
- The December meeting of the Senate of York University will be held at 4.30 p.m, Friday, December 13th, 1968, in the McLaughlin College Senior Common Room. The Senate meeting is open to all members of York University, however space limitations necessitate that attendance by non-Senators be limited to a maximum of 25 persons. Observers should obtain tickets from the Senate Office, Room 274, Winters College. Tickets will be allotted on a first come, first served basis, and must be presented at the Senate meeting. The agenda for the meeting may be referred to in the Senate Office after Wednesday, December 11th, 1968. A copy will be available in the office of the Secretary of each Faculty Council, and in the office of each of the student councils of the University.

Thursday, December 12th.

EVENTS

- 12.30 p.m. - Mr. G.K. Palin from the Department of Health Administration University of Toronto, will be available to discuss their course in Hospital Administration. Room 111, McLaughlin College.
- 1.00 p.m. - Noon Hour Concert featuring "The DANA" - music of today, also Jeff Gold, Oboist, and Mrs. Esther Cronenberg, pianist.
- 1.00 p.m. - Open meeting of the Glendon Faculty Council - Senate Board Room, York Hall, Glendon.
- 3.00 p.m. - Chaucer Lecture Series - Professor Beryl Rowland will speak on "Aspects of Characterization in Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde".
- 4.00 p.m. - Film, "Avignon Bastion de la Provence" will be shown in Room 102, Humanities Bldg. Although a French Language Training class, extra seats available.
- 4.30 p.m. - Council of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences will meet in Atkinson Lecture Hall.
- 7.00 p.m. - Film, "La Vie Heureuse de Léopold Z" - Room 129, Glendon. Sponsored by the French Department. Extra seats available.

GENERAL

- Results of York Student Council referendum on campus recruitment held Tuesday, December 10th:
 - Question 1. Are you in favor of any kind of officially sanctioned on-campus recruiting?

yes	1257		no	273
-----	-------	------	--	----	-------	-----
 - Question 2. Should companies supplying materials for the Viet Nam war be allowed to recruit on campus?

yes	1226		no	294.
-----	-------	------	--	----	-------	------
- The December meeting of Senate will be held tomorrow at 4.30 p.m. in McLaughlin Senior Common Room. Admission Tickets required for observers may be obtained from the Senate Office, Room 274, Winters College.
- Canada Council Leave Fellowships have been awarded to the following members of faculty: N.L. Corbett, Linguistics; F. Elkin, Sociology; C.D. MacNiven, Philosophy; J.A. McFarland, Philosophy, and J.H. Warkentin, Geography.
- Scores of games played on Tuesday.
 - Squash match - York - 3, Trent - 2.
 - Hockey - York - 3, University of Toronto - 1.
 - Basketball - University of Toronto - 57, York - 48.

Friday, December 13, - Sunday, December 15.

EVENTS

- Friday, 11.00 a.m. - Programme of Elizabethan Lute Songs with Professor Hollis Rinehart singing, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Junjek. Although a Humanities class, others welcome. Vanier Music Room.
- 4.00 p.m. - Vanier Christmas Party - Live music, refreshments. No admission charge - Vanier Junior Common Room.
- 4.30 p.m. - December meeting of the Senate - McLaughlin Senior Common Room. Observer tickets may be obtained from the Senate Office, Room 274, Winters College.
- 7.00 - 10.00 p.m. - Canadian Hall of Fame Swimming Meet, sponsored by York and the North York Aquatic Club. Competitions with swimming teams from New York, Pennsylvania, Quebec, and Ontario. Tait McKenzie Bldg.
- 7.30 p.m. - The Poculi Ludi Societas (Drama Society, Medieval Centre, University of Toronto) will perform "The Second Shepherd's Play" - a medieval mystery from the Wakefield cycle, Townley Plays. Founders Dining Hall. No admission charge, everyone welcome.
- 8.30 p.m. - Xmas Blockbuster featuring "The Central Nervous System" and the Rock Pile's "Transfusion." Backed by the Light Show "Catharsis". McLaughlin Dining Hall. Admission - $1.50 at the door.
- 9.00 p.m. - The "Nova Sounds" will be playing at Winters Coffee House.
- Saturday, 10.30 a.m. - Administrative Studies Seminar - "The Young President's Association Panel" - Moderator: Mr. D.G. Cameron, President, Cameron-McIndoo Ltd. Panel Members: Mr. Hugh Hall, Mr. Donald McAskil, Mr. Joe Wren, and Mr. Charles E. Marran. Burton Auditorium.
- 1.00 - 6.00 p.m. - Canadian Hall of Fame Swimming Meet - Tait McKenzie.
- Sunday, 10.00 - 6.30 p.m. - Canadian Hall of Fame Swimming Meet - Tait McKenzie.
- 7.00 p.m. - Performing Arts Series present "Sketches of Christmas" - a revue produced by Burton Auditorium - Burton Auditorium.

GENERAL

- Recreational Swimming for Friday night, Saturday and Sunday, is cancelled due to Canadian Hall of Fame Swimming Meet.

Planned Shut Down Of Utilities

There will be an electrical power shut down on Friday, December 13th at 6.30 a.m. Power will be restored at 7.00 a.m. December 13th. The purpose of the shut down is to isolate a section of our high voltage system to permit work to proceed on the Central Square Project. A similar shut down will be required at a later date to re-connect this section to our system. Buildings affected will be - Humanities and Social Science, Atkinson College, Burton Auditorium, Osgoode Hall Law School and Graduate Residences "A" and "B".

please turn over.

- The following presentations will be made to MBA students prior to the Administrative Studies Seminar, Saturday morning, in Burton: $300 awards from Litton Systems (Canada) will go to Archibald A. MacKinnon and Henry R. Noble, and $100 awards from Marsh and McLennar Limited will go to George C. Peek, Richard I. Winter, John A. Jennings, W.G. Harman, and Douglas A. Ley. The Systems and Procedures award has already been received by Mr. John Sproule.
- Visitors on campus, Friday and Saturday, guests of the Department of Economics: Dr. Michael Nelson, United Nations Commissioner for Latin America; Dr. Béat Jenny, Dr. Robert Roth, and Dr. Leo Elison from the United Nations Institute for Training and Research; Mr. Carl Wenaas, Economic Council of Canada and Mr. H. Edward Elmendorf, United Nations Advisory Committee on Co-ordination.
- Professor Jack Wiseman, University of York, York England, will be on campus December 16th and 17th to assess the Graduate Programme in Economics.

YORK ACTIVITIES December 9th - 15th.

EVENTS

ART EXHIBIT

- International Posters (courtesy Poster Palace) on view in the Vanier Residence Common Room, 9.00 a.m. - 7.00 p.m. daily, until December 13th.

- Monday,
- 1.15 p.m. and 4.00 p.m. - Two showings of the film "Marat Sade" - Burton Auditorium. Admission - $1.00.
 - 3.00 p.m. - Fifth in a series of 6 two-hour lectures on Fortran Programming - Room 105, Winters College.
 - 4.00 p.m. - Psychology Colloquium Series - Professor A. Amsel, University of Toronto, will speak on "Theory and Experiments on Generalized Persistence" - Colloquium Room, Stedman Lecture Halls.
 - 4.00 p.m. - Department of English presents Professor R. Foakes, University of California, Santa Barbara, who will speak on "Yeats and the Question Mark" - Room E, Stedman Lecture Halls.
 - 4.30 p.m. - Biology Seminar - Dr. R Haynes will speak on "Genetic Implications of DNA Repair" - Room 320, Farquharson Bldg.
 - 4.30 p.m. - Professor E. Geller, University of California at Berkeley, will speak on "Cause and Meaning in Social Science" - Sponsored by the Departments of Philosophy, Social Science and Sociology. Room 117, Vanier College.
- Tuesday,
- 4.00 p.m. - Victorian Studies Seminar - Professor Barbara Rooke, Department of English, Trent University, will speak on "Edward Coleridge - Two Victorian Manuscripts" - Colloquium Room, Stedman Lecture Halls.
 - 4.00 - 7.00 p.m. - Department of Political Science "get-together" for faculty, graduate students and political science majors. Ed Broadbent, M.P. for Oshawa-Whitby, (and former member of York faculty), will give an informal talk on his impressions of the Trudeau Government.
 - 6.00 p.m. - York's Competitions with University of Toronto begin. 6.00 p.m. - volleyball, 7.00 p.m. - swimming, 8.00 p.m. - hockey, and 8.30 p.m. - basketball. Everyone welcome, Tait McKenzie Bldg.
 - 6.00 p.m. - Squash Match - York vs Trent - Tait McKenzie Bldg.
 - 7.00 - 8.00 p.m. - Official Presentation of Metropolitan Toronto & Region Transportation Study (MTARTS), will be made to the Atkinson social science course on urbanization. Room A, Stedman Lecture Halls. 50 extra seats available.

*please turn over

- 8.00 p.m. - Hockey game - York vs University of Toronto - Ice Rink.
- 8.30 p.m. - Basketball game - York vs University of Toronto - main gym, Tait McKenzie.
- Wednesday, 3.00 p.m. - Last in a series of six two-hour lectures on Fortran Programming, Room N-102, Humanities Bldg.
- 4.30 p.m. - Professor Mordecai Roshwald, University of Minnesota, will speak on "Togetherness and Alienation: An American Paradox" - Room D, Stedman Lecture Halls. Everyone welcome.
- 5.00 p.m. - Film, "La Vie Heureuse de Léopold Z" - Room 219, Glendon. Sponsored by the French Department. Extra seats available.
- 7.00 p.m. - Film, "Russian Gymnastics" - Burton Auditorium. Admission - 75¢.
- Thursday, 12.30 p.m. - Mr. G.K. Palin from the Department of Health Administration, University of Toronto, will be available to discuss their course in Hospital Administration - Room 111, McLaughlin College.
- 1.00 p.m. - Noon Hour Concert featuring "The DANA" - music of today. Winters Junior Common Room.
- 1.00 p.m. - Open Meeting of the Glendon Faculty Council - Senate Board Room, York Hall, Glendon.
- 3.00 p.m. - Chaucer Lecture Series - Professor Beryl Rowland will speak on "Aspects of Characterization in Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde" - Room 102, Humanities Bldg.
- 4.00 p.m. - Film, "Avignon Bastion de la Provence" will be shown in Room 102, Humanities Bldg. Although a French Language Training class, extra seats available.
- 4.30 p.m. - Council of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences will meet in Atkinson Lecture Hall.
- 7.00 p.m. - Film, "La Vie Heureuse de Léopold Z" - Room 129, Glendon. Sponsored by the French Department. Extra seats available.
- Friday, 7.30 p.m. - The Poculi Ludi Societas (Drama Society, Medieval Centre, University of Toronto), will perform "The Second Shepherd's Play" - a medieval mystery from the Wakefield cycle, Townley Plays. Founders Dining Hall. No admission charge, everyone welcome.
- Saturday, 10.30 a.m. - Administrative Studies Seminar - "The Young President's Association Panel" - Moderator: Mr. D.G. Cameron, President, Cameron-McIndoo Ltd. Panel Members: Mr. Hugh Hall, Mr. Donald McCaskill, Mr. Joe Wren, and Mr. Charles E. Marran. - Burton Auditorium.
- Sunday, 7.00 p.m. - "Sketches of Christmas" - a revue produced by Burton Auditorium - Burton Auditorium.