"Coping with the New Freedom", a Social and Environmental Studies Conference, will be held May 7-9 in cooperation with the Geography Teachers' and History and Social Science Teachers' Association of the Ontario Educational Association. This conference will attempt to clarify the aims and objectives of the Social Science programme in the educational system, ranging from kindergarten to university level.

The Promised Land of the Computer - "Promises, Perils, Potentials", May 11-13 is sponsored by the Canadian Teachers' Federation and the Canadian Council for Research in Education, Project Cartier. For further information, telephone the Centre for Continuing Education, 635-3336.
- * The Big Brothers of Metropolitan Toronto will be on Campus next Thursday, February 26, for a Talk-In regarding the activities of the association. A film will be shown, followed by an informal discussion period in Room 107, Stedman Lecture Halls at 2.45 p.m. This will be open to the York community.
- * Recreational swimming has been cancelled for Saturday, February 21. This was to have taken place in the swimming pool, Tait McKenzie Building between 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.
- * Richard Wordsworth, great great-grandson of William Wordsworth, will be visiting York for two days, February 24 and 25. On Wednesday, February 25th, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., he will give a performance of his "The Bliss of Solitude" in Burton Auditorium. This lecture about the Wordsworth Circle is a bicentenary tribute based on the life and works of William Wordsworth. Part I, from 4:00 p.m. to 5:05 p.m. will be an account of Wordsworth's life from 1770 to 1800, giving some indications of the debt he owed to Dorothy, and introducing various members of the Wordsworth Circle. Part II, from 5:20 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. will be devoted to Wordsworth and his circle in the nineteenth century, his life at Dove Cottage, and later at Rydal Mount. For further information, telephone 635-3441.
- * Three films will be shown on Monday, February 23 at 2:00 p.m. and 9:15 p.m. in Burton Auditorium - "Don't Look Back" starring Bob Dylan, "Purple Haze" and "Subterranean Home-sick Blues". Open to the York community.

GENERAL

- * Many students find transportation from York a problem - both time consuming and expensive, and would very much appreciate help from those driving off-campus daily. The Council of the York Student Federation has undertaken to aid these students by placing signs along the St. Lawrence Avenue Boulevard exit showing various destinations. CYSF and the York students needing lifts would be most grateful if you would help those on your route who are waiting and hoping at the signs.
- * The Division of Executive Development of the Faculty of Administrative Studies, School of Business, today and tomorrow is sponsoring the second presentation of the seminar on "Managing the Computer"; directed to executives in business and the public service on the application of the computer in the modern business world. The seminar, "The Computer and Its Uses", is being held at the Constellation Hotel in Toronto.
- * The display in Winters Gallery is by students in the "York Experiment in Visual Arts" group under the direction of Yvonne Lammerich. It will be open until March 14.
- * An exhibition of drawings by Gerald Zeldin is on display in the Vanier Art Gallery. Hours are 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. This exhibition will close February 27.
- * In order to provide a better selection of food in the Atkinson College Coffee House, the short-order service, which was so popular formerly, has been re-instituted. The hot and cold buffet cabinets which were installed in Fall, 1969 to bolster the food service capacity, will be retained for a further trial period.
