GENERAL

- * Two York students were among 100 Canadian and U.S. college students selected to receive the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Foundation's newly inaugurated Independent Study Awards. Colin David Adams, a fourth year Anthropology student, and Fridtjof Nolte, a fourth year geography student, received the awards, worth $1,000 each, which will be used for approved projects of study, research or travel. The two York winners are among those students who ranked highest amongst the 1,153 Designates elected in the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Competition for 1970.
- * Canada's first James Joyce Symposium will be held at York, April 3-5. Sponsored by York 10 and College E, the Symposium will bring scholars and students from all over North America to the campus. Among the speakers will be Father Robert Boyle of Marquette University; Mrs. Janet Lewis of the English Department, York University and Fellow of College E; Professor Thomas Staley, University of Oklahoma, editor of the James Joyce Quarterly; Leslie Fiedler, State University of New York at Buffalo; Phillip Herring, University of Virginia; and Bernard Benstock, Kent State University. Harry Pollock, President of the James Joyce Society and Associate Fellow of College E has prepared a dramatization for the Symposium. "Naughtsy-Calves" is a parody with pantomime, adapted from the Gerty MacDowell Episode in Ulysses.
- * YUFA has requested faculty to make the following announcement in class: "As you know, YUFA has voted to withhold grades from the administration of the University in the event of failure of the salary and benefits negotiations. Students wishing to maximize their chances of learning their grades in a given course should include in their examination booklets a stamped self-addressed post card with the name of the course and name of the instructor on it. Other means of meeting cases of need will be worked out between YUFA and CYSF executive committees."
- * Effective Monday, April 13, 1970, the Department of Safety and Security Services will take over the responsibility for issuing all keys for buildings, the replacement of lost keys, and any changes to locks or keying systems that are required. All requests should be directed to the above department.
