GENERAL

- * Construction of the Centre for Fine Arts Phase II, a three storey structure with a single storey link to Burton Auditorium, will begin during October in the area south-west of the Auditorium. The building will provide research and studio space for painting, sculpture, printing, dance and photography. The facility will also include an exhibiting area, various faculty offices, seminar rooms and classrooms, including a 120-seat tiered classroom. The Centre is designed by Raymond Moriyama Architects and Planners. Construction Management will be carried out by the Jackson-Lewis Company Limited under the direction of the Department of Physical Plant. Completion date for the project is January, 1973.
- * The Division of Social Science is presenting the first in an Inter-disciplinary Faculty Seminar series, Friday, October 1 at 2:00 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge (S872), the Ross Building. Guest speaker will be Professor Cyril E. Black, and his topic will be "The Comparative Modernization of Japan and Russia: An Example of the Multi-disciplinary Approach". Professor Black is the Director of the Centre of International Studies at Princeton University. All interested persons are welcome.
- * Nomination forms are now available for the 22 student positions on the Council of the Faculty of Arts. The Council of the Faculty is a committee of Senate, and includes all full-time teaching staff in the Faculty, plus 22 students. Any student in the Faculty (in any year of study) is eligible for nomination. Nomination forms may be obtained from the C.Y.S.F. Office, Room N108, the Ross Building, and will be accepted until 5:00 p.m., Tuesday, October 5. For further information contact Michael Mouritsen, secretary to the 1970-71 student caucus of the Council, 636-6818.
