GENERAL

- * As of June 30, 1971, Dr. Neil Agnew retired from the Directorship of the Psychological Services Department to devote more time to teaching, research and development of a service programme for Psychological Services. Under the Chairmanship of Dr. Joan Stewart, a committee has been set up to coordinate the Departments activities. Any information re the services offered by Psych. Services can be directed to the receptionist, Mrs. Sandy Barraclough, Room 135A, Behavioural Sciences Building (635-2304), or the following members of the Psychological Services Department Coordinating Committee.

Joan Stewart	- Chairman	phone - 2305
Malcolm Weinstein	- Counselling Area	2304
Graham Haley	- Skill Training Area	2305
Peter Waxer	- College Area	2374
Gary Miller	- Departmental Evaluation	2518
Cathie Neely	- Junior Staff Representative	3258
Lucie Cantrell	- Executive Assistant	2305

- * Submissions of creative work for the first issue of the York Quarterly are being solicited from faculty, staff and students. Anyone wishing to contribute, should send completed manuscripts, etc. by October 15 (deadline) c/o Professor A.B.P. Lever, Room 141, Petrie Science Bldg. For further information call Mrs. Lever at 889-6703.
- * Plastic Service Cards 1971-72 (required for Library's automated book circulation system): New or Previously Registered Students - Service and/or Sessional Validation Cards for 1971-72 may be obtained at the Steacie Science Building in Room 110, Records Office Enquiry Desk upon presentation of a receipt from the Accounting Office covering at least the 1st instalment of tuition fees.
Faculty and Staff - Application for replacement or for new cards may be obtained from Records Office Enquiry Desk, Room 110, Steacie Science Building - telephone 635-2253.

- * The Safety Officer of the Department of Safety and Security Services advises that a recent accident has indicated the need for persons wearing open type footwear to exercise special care when using the escalators in the Central Library Building. Such footwear does not provide adequate protection for the front part of the foot and serious or painful injuries could result should the toe-piece or part of the strapping become caught between the ribs and slots of the moving stair treads.

The Safety Officer also advises that the utmost care should be taken by wearers of long scarves and dresses, which tend to trail on the moving stairs representing a serious threat to the safety of the wearers.

The cooperation of all persons using the escalators is essential if further accidents are to be avoided.

- * Council of the York Student Federation has moved from N108 to N111 in the Ross Bldg. Telephone number remains 635-2515.
- * Potters old and new are invited to join the Ceramics Club, located in Room 103, Vanier Residence. New members should come any Tuesday evening between 7 and 9 p.m., or phone 635-3852 for further information.
- * All faculty members, graduate students and staff are invited to join York's Badminton Club. New members are welcome; please bring York Athletic Membership Card to the first practice (as well as your own shuttles). The Club will meet each Friday (7 p.m. - 10 p.m.) and Sunday (2 p.m. - 5 p.m.) unless otherwise notified. First meeting is Friday, October 8 - for further information contact Frank Bunn, Room 255, Petrie Science Bldg.

GENERAL

- * The exhibition of Eskimo Carvings and Prints will be extended to include Saturday, October 16, from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. in the Art Gallery of York University, Room N145, Ross Bldg.
- * Provincial Election, October 21, 1971
Section 90 of the Provincial Election Act reads in part: "Where, by reason of the hours of his employ, an employee who is a qualified voter will not have three consecutive hours to vote while the polls are open on a polling day at an election, his employer shall, at the convenience of the employer, allow the employee such time for voting as is necessary to provide the three consecutive hours."
- For the majority of support staff the working day ends at 5:00 p.m. and with the polls closing at 8:00 p.m. this provision of the Act is met. If for some reason three consecutive hours are not available to a member of the community while the polls are open (9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.) department heads must arrange for that member to be absent for three consecutive hours for voting purposes.
- * York's United Appeal Campaign Needs your support:
Again this year York is conducting its United Appeal campaign entirely by mail. Results so far have been encouraging, but we still have a long way to go to top last year's total contributions. The 78 member organizations need your support. Please help -- if you have been intending to send in your donation, please do it today. Extra payroll deduction cards are available from the York United Appeal Office, Room S839, Ross Building.
- * A special meeting of the Senate will be held at 4:00 p.m., on Tuesday, October 19, 1971, in the Senate Chamber, Ross Humanities and Social Sciences Building to consider the Report of the Senate Committee on Tenure and Promotions. Copies of the Report will be circulated to reach members of Senate by Friday, October 15th, or, at the latest, by Monday, October 18th.
- * Eugene Kash, Canadian violinist/conductor and T.V. personality, leads the Student String Orchestra every Friday, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. in Room 019, Founders College. Their numbers are small and he will welcome regular guests who are competent string players no matter where they come from.
- * Toronto Dominion Bank, York Campus Branch, Central Square, wishes to advise due to a delivery problem of the Bank of Canada Savings Bonds purchased under the Employee Savings Plan for the 1971 series will not be ready for delivery until the beginning of November 1971.
- * Olympic coach Ken Wood conducts beginners' classes in fencing every Thursday, at 8:00 p.m., in the upper gym, Tait McKenzie Building. Equipment is supplied. Team classes held at 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., Thursdays, Judo Room, Tait McKenzie Bldg. All fencers are welcome. Two fencers are urgently needed to train for the épée team. No previous experience is necessary.

GENERAL

- * "Issues in Economic Development" will be the topic of a speech to be given by Professor Andreas Papandreou (member of York's Department of Economics) Monday, October 25th, at a conference sponsored by the Economic Development Advisory Board of Manitoba. The conference will be held at the Fort Garry Hotel.
- * Provincial Election, October 21, 1971:
- Section 90 of the Provincial Election Act reads in part: "Where, by reason of the hours of his employ, an employee who is a qualified voter will not have three consecutive hours to vote while the polls are open on a polling day at an election, his employer shall, at the convenience of the employer, allow the employee such time for voting as is necessary to provide the three consecutive hours."
- For the majority of support staff the working day ends at 5:00 p.m. and with the polls closing at 8:00 p.m. this provision of the Act is met. If for some reason three consecutive hours are not available to a member of the community while the polls are open (9:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.) department heads must arrange for that member to be absent for three consecutive hours for voting purposes.
- * Dr. Robert L. Kuretsky of Video Research and Development Corporation of Boston, will speak on the hardware and software of video assisted teaching, in the Stedman Colloquium Room, Friday, October 22nd, at 10:00 a.m.
- * There will be a Faculty Wives Association Meeting, Wednesday, October 20 at 8:00 p.m. in McLaughlin College Faculty Common Room.
