- * The closing date for applications for Bursaries in Mental Retardation, sponsored by the National Institute on Mental Retardation (York Campus), is Monday, January 31, 1972. For further information call 630-9611.
- * The Daycare Planning Committee is interested in exploring the possibility of daycare as an academic resource. The blueprint is now being developed for the proposed Daycare Centre, which will accomodate 150 children. If children, between the ages of six weeks and five years, are important to a student's area of study, the Daycare Centre needs to know what facilities should be included in the centre to accomodate projected research; also they want to hear from any Professors who would be bringing students to use the centre. Recording equipment and a stenographer are available so that formal written briefs, while welcome, are not essential. The Daycare Centre is particularly interested in talking to faculty members, but are also concerned that graduate students' suggestions and requirements be a part of their planning. For further information contact either Elody Scholz or Maria de Wit (Daycare Planning Committee) at 3620, or drop into Room S607, the Ross Building.
- * The Curator of the Art Gallery of York University announces with regret, that owing to the sudden illness of the organizer, Mr. Colin MacAndrews, the exhibition of Tibetan Art which was to have opened at the AGYU on February 2nd, has had to be postponed to a later date. An announcement will be made as soon as it is possible to re-arrange the exhibition schedule.
- * An exhibition of books from the press of Thomas Bird Mosher is now in the display cases on the third floor of the Scott Library, outside Room 305.
- * Due to a Swim Meet between York University and McMaster University (men), recreational swimming will be cancelled this evening.
- * Miss Freda Dowie, a well known English actress, will be reading selections of classical and contemporary poetry Thursday, February 3 at 4:00 p.m. in Room S869, the Ross Building.
- * The Film Department and Winters College are presenting a 'Frank Capra Film Festival' January 28 - 30 at 7:00 p.m. each evening in Room I, Curtis Lecture Halls.
