GENERAL

- * Distribution of the York Handbook - The York Handbook consists of four sections: The Telephone Directory (which was distributed in November), the Services and Practices sections, and the Policies section. The first issue of materials for the Services and Policies sections has been printed and is being distributed through the campus mail on the basis of one complete set of inserts for each of the York Handbook binders issued with the Telephone Directory.
While these materials are being issued, campus mail will take precedence, and distribution may take a few days to complete. When it is complete, heads of departments are asked to inform the Supervisor of Publications, Department of Information and Publications, Room S833E, the Ross Building, in writing, of any shortages so that discrepancies between the distribution list and the number of copies delivered can be investigated.
- * The new A.U.C. (Association of Commonwealth Universities) Handbook, 1972-74, is now available. The Handbook contains information on fellowships, visiting professorships, grants, etc., which are open to university staff in a Commonwealth country. The Department of Information and Publications has a limited number of order forms which may be obtained by calling local 3441.
- * The Wright Commission has requested responses to its recently published draft report on Post-Secondary Education in Ontario. York University's response will be co-ordinated by Dr. James Gillies, Dean of the Faculty of Administrative Studies. Persons wishing to make submissions (or requiring further information) should inform Mrs. Meredith, Room S907, the Ross Building (telephone local 2328) before Friday, February 18.
- * The North York O.S.S.T.F. Professional Development Days will again be held by York University during Reading Week, February 15-16. Over 2,000 North York Secondary School Teachers will attend the two one-day sessions and many York faculty will lead more than 70 workshops on a variety of topics. This Seminar is co-ordinated by the Centre for Continuing Education.
- * Members of the Food Service Committee are asked to note that the Committee Meeting, originally scheduled for February 16, has been postponed until 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, February 23 and will take place in McLaughlin Master's Dining Room.
- * The eighth seminar in the series presented by the Division of Executive Development will be held this month at the York Campus. "Managing the Computer" - Tuesday, February 29 and Wednesday, March 1 - will provide an opportunity for executives to obtain a better knowledge of the computer and its uses in various types of organizations. Speakers include: Mr. Donald MacLeod, Savage Shoes Limited; Mr. Alexander J. Adams, Urwick Currie Limited; Dr. F. Ronald Denham, Stevenson & Kellogg Limited; and Dr. Russell Blackmore, York University. For further information call the Division of Executive Development at 635-2432 or 635-2386.

GENERAL

- * The Committee on University Affairs and the Council of Ontario Universities have jointly proposed the establishment of an Ontario Centre for Instructional Development, and the universities have been invited to make submissions concerning the aims, location and purpose of the Centre. A study group, chaired by Dean Harry S. Crowe, has been struck to prepare York's reply and to report through the Academic Policy and Planning Committee in time for the regular March meeting of the Senate. Those interested in making a submission to the study group should contact Mrs. Meredith in Room S907, the Ross Building (local 2328) for a copy of the aims, purpose and functions of the proposed centre and to indicate when the study group might receive their views.

- * A conference on the politics of the Peoples' Republic of China will be held at Glendon College, in Room 204, York Hall, on Friday, February 25, commencing at 9:30 a.m. and ending at 5:30 p.m. The conference, which is being organized by the Glendon Department of Political Science, will be addressed by five Professors of Political Science from the Universities of Quebec, Laval, Montreal and McGill. Discussions will be conducted in both French and English. Specialists in Chinese government and politics, teaching in other Universities in Ontario, have been invited to the Conference as discussants. Topics in the morning session (9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.) will focus on the system capabilities, the problems and prospects of the Peoples' Republic. The afternoon session (2:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.) will deal with China's external relations and its roll in world affairs.
- * The Ontario Universities Computing Conference is being held in Toronto this year at the Inn on the Park, Thursday and Friday, February 24-25. The theme of the conference is "The Contribution of the Computer to the Educational Process". There is an excellent selection of papers on the use of the computer in the classroom and laboratory. Registrations have been received from across Canada. York University faculty members are encouraged to take advantage of the proximity of this meeting; it is advisable to pre-register. Information and registration forms may be obtained by contacting the Computer Services Department at local 2317 or 2318.
- * The Parking and Traffic Co-ordinator advises that as a result of the Go-Cart Grand Prix being held on Saturday, February 26 as part of the York Winter Carnival 1972, it will be necessary to exclude vehicular traffic from the roads adjacent to McLaughlin and Founders College, and the Temporary Office Building, also Fraser Drive between Thomson Boulevard and Ottawa Boulevard. These roads will be closed from 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., and the co-operation of members of the York community is sought to ensure that all vehicles parked in this area are removed by 12:00 noon, otherwise it will be necessary to remove them to a safe location. It is suggested that persons having occasion to go to the Farquharson Building during the times mentioned above, park in AA lot, and those wishing to go to the Steacie Science Library or the Petrie Science Building, park in DD lot.
- * The Distinguished Science Speakers Series, sponsored by the Faculty of Science, will have Dr. B. Chance of the Johnson Research Foundation (Philadelphia) as guest speaker Thursday, February 24, at 8:00 p.m. in the Senate Chamber (S915), the Ross Building. Dr. Chance's topic will be "Reaction of Cytochrome Oxidase with Oxygen".

GENERAL

- * The Data Bank of the Institute for Behavioural Research will be acquiring the data from the 1971 Canadian Census. This data is probably the single most useful set of information available on Canadian society. It will be available for use in teaching and research by both faculty and students of the university. The first series of summary tapes containing data on Enumeration Areas (a geographic area containing an average of 600 people) will arrive in June and be available to the York community by August. The Data Bank will make up special data sets on request for use as teaching and research tools. A complete description of the data to be received is available in S436, the Ross Building. All faculty and students interested in making use of this data should have informed the Data Bank of their interest no later than April 1st. Contact Ann Montgomery, Room S436, the Ross Building, or telephone 635-3026.
- * The Osgoode Hall Law School Annual "Mock Trial" - a satirical look at the law, lawyers and the Law School - will be held Friday and Saturday, February 25 and 26 at 8:30 p.m. in the Moot Court Room of the Osgoode Hall Law School. Admission is $1.25; tickets will be on sale at the Osgoode Information Office -- there will be a cash bar in the Student Lounge.
- * A private showing of D.W. Griffith's 1916 classic film, "Intolerance", will be held this Friday. For further information contact Jack Edwards at 630-0727 in the evening.
- * The Centre for Research in Environmental Quality (CREQ) is sponsoring a seminar, to be held Friday, March 3 at 2:30 p.m. in Room G, Curtis Lecture Halls. Mr. Paul Shepard, visiting professor of Environmental Perception at Dartmouth College, will give a lecture entitled, "The Ecology of Human Maturity".

GENERAL

- * The Humanities Division along with the English Department and Atkinson College are sponsoring a concert of sound poetry. This concert will be given by a group known as the "Four Horsemen"; the group consists of Rafael Barreto-Rivera, Steve McCaffery, Paul Dutton and B.P. Nichol (who was the winner of the Governor-General's award for poetry in 1971). The concert will take place in Burton Auditorium on Thursday, March 2nd at 8:30 p.m. Although the "Four Horsemen" have already given public concerts on several university campuses, this will be the first time they will be presenting their readings in collective sound poetry in the Toronto area. Interested persons are invited to attend - there will be no admission charge.
- * Stong College is presenting, from Wednesday, March 1 to Sunday, March 12, an exhibition of art entitled "Works from 1950-1971" by Lillian Sarafinchan. The Art Gallery hours are 12:00 noon to 6:00 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday. On March 1, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., the artist will be present.
- * The Department of Physical Education is presenting a Health Symposium entitled "The Facts and Fads on Health Foods and Herbs", Wednesday, March 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the Senate Chamber (S915), the Ross Building. Interested persons welcome to attend.
- * The Caucus of the Student Senators is interested in finding students to sit on the Special Senate Task Force on Experimental Education in Stong College. Interested students are asked to attend the meeting Friday, March 3 at 4:00 p.m. in the 2nd floor lounge, Phase II, Atkinson College. For further information contact Carter Hoppe at 630-5778.
- * The annual C.Y.S.F. elections will be held next Wednesday and Thursday, March 8 and 9, for College, Graduate and M.B.A. representatives as well as for the position of President. Atkinson College elections for C.Y.S.F. will be on March 6, 7, 8, and 9. Nomination forms will be available from the C.Y.S.F. Office in Room N111, the Ross Building. Voting will be allowed in any polling station on campus upon presentation of a Sessional Validation card.

- * Stong College is sponsoring the visit of David Halberstam of the Adlai Steveson Institute, and Joseph Y. Smith of the Washington Post, to the Glendon Campus (1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.) Thursday, March 2 and to the York Campus (2:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.) Friday, March 3.
Mr. Halberstam has been a reporter for newspapers in Mississippi and Nashville, and an international correspondent for the New York Times in the Congo, Viet Nam, and Warsaw. From 1967-71, he was on the staff of Harpers. In 1964, Mr. Halberstam received the Pulitzer Prize for an article on Diem. In addition to two novels, he has published books entitled, The Unfinished Odyssey of Robert Kennedy (1969) and Ho (1971).
Joseph Y. Smith is a feature writer for the Washington Post, formerly an international correspondent for the U.P.I. in Moscow, London, and Warsaw and correspondent to the U.N. for the Hearst Syndicate. Mr. Smith has covered stories concerned with the Indian-Pakistan War, the Sino-Soviet Dispute and the invasion of Czechoslovakia.
Both Mr. Halberstam and Mr. Smith will discuss the topic "The Making of Policy and the Media on the Viet Nam War and the Pentagon Papers" (March 2nd) in Room 204, York Hall. Mr. Smith will speak on "Becoming a Journalist" (March 3rd) in the Senior Common Room, Stong College.
- * The Data Bank of the Institute for Behavioural Research will be acquiring the data from the 1971 Canadian Census. This data is probably the single most useful set of information available on Canadian society. It will be available for use in teaching and research by both faculty and students of the University. The first series of summary tapes containing data on Enumeration Areas (a geographic area containing an average of 600 people) will arrive in June and be available to the York community by August. The Data Bank will make up special data sets on request for use as teaching and research tools. A complete description of the data to be received is available in S436 of the Ross Building. All faculty and students interested in making use of this data should have informed the Data Bank of their interest no later than April 1st. Please contact Ann Montgomery, Room S436, the Ross Building - telephone 635-3026.
- * Summer jobs are available anywhere in the world if two economics courses are completed - part of the A.I.S.E.C. Exchange Program - a limited number of applicants will be accepted. Interested persons are asked to call 635-2226 and leave their name, address and telephone number.
- * Winters College is holding a "Cosmic Convention" Friday to Sunday, March 3, 4 and 5. Cosmic Convention is a gathering of fans and professionals involved in comic books, art, fantasy, science fiction and films. The weekend's events will include: slide shows, viewings of 25 feature films, art displays, panel discussions and a rock band, "Ted Nugent and the Amboy Dukes", from Detroit. Alain Resnais (film director), Stan Lee (editor of Marvel Comics), Jim Steranko (comic artist), James Warren (editor of 'Eerie' and 'Creapy' - horror magazines), Gray Morrow (comic artist), and Mike Hinge (science fiction artist) are some of the personalities that will be present at the Convention. Admission to the Cosmic Convention will be $3.00 in advance (tickets may be obtained from Ken Ketter, Room 206, Winters College Residence); all interested persons are welcome to attend. For further information call Ken Ketter at 635-9398.
- * The Centre for Research in Experimental Space Science is sponsoring a visit to the York Campus by Dr. Robert J. Uffen on Thursday, March 2 at 4:00 p.m. in Room 317, Petrie Science Building. Dr. Uffen, Dean of Applied Science at Queen's University, Kingston, will speak on "Science Policy, Fact and Fiction". Dean Uffen has had a very distinguished career in Universities, Government and Exploration Geophysics. During the past ten years he has been Professor and Head of the Geophysics Department, Principal of University College, and First Dean of Science, University of Western Ontario; Vice Chairman and Chairman, Defence Research Board of Canada; Chief Science Advisor to Canadian Cabinet; and Head of the Science Secretariat. All interested persons are welcome to attend.
- * There will be a special meeting of the Senate on Thursday, March 2 at 2:00 p.m. in the Senate Chamber (S915), the Ross Building. The purpose of this meeting is to complete the unfinished agenda of the regular monthly meeting held February 24. Due to space limitations, tickets must be obtained from Room S945, the Ross Building.
