Phone 3256 from 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
- * There have been several complaints made recently by Express and Cartage Agents that they are experiencing difficulties in completing certain deliveries on Campus through improper or insufficient shipping address information, resulting, on occasion, in second and third attempts, before a shipment reaches its final destination. Most of these problem deliveries appear to be occurring in connection with verbal instructions given to suppliers and with personal deliveries. While it is acknowledged that some of the blame rests with Shippers, the co-operation of all members of the community is requested in ensuring that when verbal arrangements are being made with suppliers, and others, for the shipment of goods to any Department or person on campus, the shipping documents and parcels be clearly marked with the Department, Room Number, Building plus any individual's name to whose attention the shipment is consigned.

The Camp begins on July 10 and runs five days a week for six weeks. If you can help in any part of this assignment, it would be most appreciated. Gasoline mileage will be paid. Please contact Mrs. Pat Howes, Volunteer Supervisor, Children's Aid, at 221-1161.

GENERAL

- * The I.G.U. Commission on the Geography of Transport (part of the 22nd International Geographical Congress) will be held at the York campus Thursday, July 27 to Saturday, July 29. Interested persons are welcome to attend the lectures -- for further information please write to Dr. R.I. Wolfe, Room N411, the Ross Building.
- * The first few months of the Paper Recycling Program indicates that the excellent public response has not only shown that members of the York community are concerned, but also that the operation is economical. The project, developed last year by York's Pollution Probe, was sparked again this year by students Mark Plewman and Bob Vorpes who requested that the program be undertaken as university routine carried out by the Department of Physical Plant in collaboration with Pollution Probe. Initially, only three buildings participated in this pilot project. The program is now being expanded to include the whole York campus and the Glendon campus as well. Reductions in waste disposal expenses together with revenue from the sale of waste paper indicate that the capital outlay will be covered early this fall.
- * The Department of Physical Education requires a coach for the York University Women's Inter-university Ice Hockey Team. The season will be from October 2, 1972 - February 18, 1973. Interested persons are asked to contact Miss Mary Lyons, Coordinator of Women's Athletics, Room 307, Tait McKenzie Building -- telephone 2289.
- * The Parking Office advises that road construction work will be carried out on Niagara Boulevard, commencing Tuesday, July 18, weather permitting, and during the work traffic will be reduced to one lane of traffic. Members of the University community who normally use this entrance to campus are requested to use an alternative route while this work is in progress. The work is expected to be completed by Tuesday, July 25.
- * Waves, a magazine published by members of the University community, is available from the campus bookstores for $1.00. One of the objectives of this magazine is to provide a forum for writers of all persuasions, styles and disciplines. Although in the first edition, York authors predominate, the editors hope that this magazine will become broadly-based, reflecting and contributing to the Canadian scene by publishing committed opinion and commentary. Submissions of essays, articles, commentaries, artwork, short stories, drama, poetry, etc., for future issues should be sent to Room 141, Petrie Science Building. For further information call Bernice Lever at 889-6703 or Randall Longcore at 667-3271.
