GENERAL

- * The third lecture in the 1972-73 ANNUAL LECTURE SERIES will be held Thursday, February 15 at 5:00 p.m. in the Moot Court Room of the Osgoode Hall Law School. Osgoode Professor William H. Angus will give a speech entitled "Judicial Review: Do We Need It?". Interested persons are invited to attend.
- * Vanier College's Encounter Program will present the final lecture in a series on 'Canadian Perspectives' on February 15 at 8:30 p.m. in the Junior Common Room of Vanier College. Mordecai Richler, Canadian author, will speak on "The Canadian Novel, a Consideration of Complexes, Inferior and Otherwise". All interested persons are welcome.
- * Faculty of Arts Minor Research Grants: The fund at the disposal of the Faculty of Arts and administered by the Committee on Minor Research Grants is designed primarily to help cover some of the out-of-pocket expenses connected with research projects. The fund does not carry stipends and hence is not a research fund in that sense. The committee sits three times a year and will next consider applications submitted by February 26. For further information on the guidelines as well as application forms please contact either Departmental/Divisional Chairmen, the Minor Research Grants Committee Chairman (J.A. Ernst, Room 230, Vanier College - local 2578) or Secretary (Bev. Morrissey, Room S932, the Ross Building - local 3180).
- * The fourth Ontario Universities Computing Conference will be held February 22 and 23. The theme of the conference is "Computing Tomorrow: The Influence of the Computer on the University Environment", and its objective is to explore the question of what can reasonably be accomplished in the next five to ten years in the application of computer technology within the University. For further information, interested persons are asked to call Mr. D.S. Macey, Council of Ontario Universities, at 920-6865.
- * Stong College has established a search committee to find a replacement for its Academic Advisor, Michael Herren, who is retiring after a term of four years to go on sabbatical leave. The work of the committee may be of special interest to the York community, since Mr. Herren's successor would be in charge of the new Stong College Program, if it is passed by Senate. The committee invites recommendations and suggestions from members of the York community; those should be addressed to Mrs. Tillie Dale, secretary of the committee, Room 315, Stong College.

GENERAL

- * The Federal Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce is providing seed money to help establish broadly based Industrial Research Institutes in Canadian universities. Five such institutes have already been started in Ontario with others in Quebec and the Maritimes. Their purpose is to undertake contract research for industry (and government) through utilizing university strengths and skills. The next Interface Seminar, sponsored by the Faculty of Science, will take place on Tuesday, February 27 at 4:00 p.m. in Room E, Curtis Lecture Halls, and it will describe the flexible way this important trend is developing, discuss the progress to date, and illustrate future opportunities.
Guest Panel: "Review of Concept and Progress Across Canada" with Ed. S. Sanderson, Ph.D., Director of Science Advisors, Office of Science and Technology, Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce, Ottawa
"Objectives and Operation at One University" by James W. Tomecko, Ph.D., Director, Waterloo Research Institute, University of Waterloo
"An Industry View Through Experience" by Donald G. McLeod, M.B.A., President, Savage Shoes (1970) Limited and INTERCO Savage Limited, Cambridge, Preston
All interested members of the York community are invited to attend.
- * The Data Bank has received the Short Form (100% sample) data from the 1971 Census aggregated by Enumeration Area (each EA contains about 500 persons). Data is available on housing, households, families and individuals. The data on individuals includes sex, age, marital status and mother tongue, but the education, income and occupation data is not yet available. A complete listing of the variables which are now available can be obtained from the Institute for Behavioural Research, Administrative Studies Building.
- * The Social Science Information System has recently been updated through the addition of approximately 3000 more abstracts mostly from Canadian social science journals. The system now contains over 14,000 references in the areas of psychology, sociology, political science and general social sciences. This file of information can be automatically searched for articles relevant to specific topics provided by the user. The system can be used at no cost by students, faculty and staff at York. Request forms are available at the Institute for Behavioural Research, Room 242, Administrative Studies Building.
- * The third lecture in the 1972-73 ANNUAL LECTURE SERIES will be held Thursday, February 15 at 5:00 p.m. in the Moot Court Room of the Osgoode Hall Law School. Osgoode Professor William H. Angus will give a speech entitled "Judicial Review: Do We Need It?"; commentator is John Weir, Q.C. Interested persons are welcome to attend.
- * Vanier College's Encounter Program will present the final lecture in a series on 'Canadian Perspectives' on February 15 at 8:30 p.m. in the Vanier College Dining Hall (please note the change in location). Mordecai Richler, Canadian author, will speak on "The Canadian Novel, a Consideration of Complexes, Inferior and Otherwise". Everyone welcome.
- * "What do I do with my B.A. in Psychology?" is the theme of a discussion taking place on Thursday, February 15 at 10:00 a.m. in Room G, Curtis Lecture Halls and sponsored by the Career Counselling Centre of the Psychological Services Department. Speakers will include: Ray Berry, Ministry of Health; Dave Randall, Ministry of Health, Mental Health Division, Children's Services Branch; Harry Hutchinson, Ministry of Correctional Services; K. Henderson, O.I.S.E., Department of Applied Psychology; and Hy Day, Graduate School Programs. Although this discussion is geared primarily to third and fourth year students, all interested persons are welcome.
- * The satellite branch of the Toronto-Dominion Bank, located in Founders College, will be closed during Reading Week (Feb. 16-23) - the Central Square branch will remain open.

Miss Doyle will be performing selections from a number of prominent Irish writers including a segment from Bryan Merriman's "The Midnight Court". One of Ireland's most popular performers, Miss Doyle is seen regularly on the stage in Dublin and in the provinces. She has appeared in the movie "Ulysses" and has just completed filming the James Joyce short story Clay for the BBC-TV. 'An Evening of Irish Theatre' will take place at 8:30 p.m. in the Stong College Senior Common Room - there will be no admission charge.
- * Members of the York community are asked to note that the men's basketball team will be playing against the University of Toronto at 8:15 p.m. on Friday, February 16, in the Tait McKenzie Building. (originally reported as a hockey game in error)
- * Faculty of Arts Minor Research Grants (dates revised January 1973): The fund at the disposal of the Faculty of Arts and administered by the Committee on Minor Research Grants is designed to help cover some of the out-of-pocket expenses connected with research projects. The fund does not carry stipends and hence is not a research fund in that sense. The committee sits three times a year and will next consider applications submitted by February 26, 1973. For further information on the guidelines as well as application forms, please contact either Departmental/Divisional Chairmen, the Minor Research Grants Committee Chairman (J.A. Ernst, Room 230, Vanier College - local 2578) or the Secretary (Bev Morrissey, Room S932B, the Ross Building - local 3180).

- * The fourth Ontario Universities Computing Conference will be held February 22 and 23. The theme of the conference is "Computing Tomorrow: The Influence of the Computer on the University Environment", and its objective is to explore the question of what can reasonably be accomplished in the next five to ten years in the application of computer technology within the university. For further information contact Mr. D.S. Macey, Council of Ontario Universities, at 920-6865.

- * The Association of Commonwealth Universities invited applications for a number of Administrative Travelling Fellowships to be awarded in 1973 to members of the administrative staff of universities. The purpose of this award is to assist a Fellow to visit university centres in the Commonwealth outside his own country to study matters of professional interest to himself, and of importance to his own university. Applicants must have at least five years' continuous experience in full-time university administration, and hold at the time of application a post equal or superior to that of a university lecturer. Applications should be addressed to the Secretary-General, A.C.U., 36 Gordon Square, London WC1H - OPF, England, and must be made through the Vice-Chancellor (President) of the candidate's university. They should include a curriculum vitae, an account of present or prospective duties, and of the candidate's interest or involvement in the subject of this study for which he seeks a Fellowship. An outline should also be sent stating which Commonwealth country or university in which the applicant wishes to spend the Fellowship, the reasons for such a visit, the likely cost of travel and living expenses involved. Applications should reach the Secretary-General no later than February 22, 1973.

ART GALLERIES, DISPLAYS

* The Art Gallery of York University (N145, Ross) is featuring a travelling exhibition of works by Jean-Marie Delavalle and Yvon Cozic, organized by the National Gallery of Canada (Ottawa). Cozic's contribution to the exhibition is a series of sculptures made in 1971, in which the structures are minimal and the emphasis is on varying materials: their expressiveness and tactile function. Delavalle's works consist of a series of slides, entitled "The Quebec Filter", begun in 1970, in which focus, infra-red film, and colour lenses are used as structural devices. To this is added a time structure ("The night falls three times") and a physical structure (the grid of the screen). The exhibition will continue to March 16. Gallery hours are 10:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 2:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. Sunday.

GENERAL

- * "Within the revolution - everything! Outside the revolution - nothing!" This statement by Fidel Castro seems to apply to every Cuban institution, the Fine Arts inclusive. The Spanish Section of the Division of Language Studies will be showing the film "Cuba: Art and Revolution" at 12:00 noon on Thursday, March 1 in Room N203 of the Ross Building. The film is a documentary - in English - and it deals with the emphasis that Fidel Castro's government has placed on the development of the Fine Arts in Cuba and its relationship to the Cuban revolution. Intellectuals, actors, painters, Afro-Cubans, ballet dancers, etc., are either interviewed or perform in the film.
- * Dr. R.G. Cassidy, Senior Research Officer at the Ministry of State for Urban Affairs (Ottawa) and a Visiting Associate Professor of Operations Research at Queen's University, will lecture at a Faculty Research Symposium on Friday, March 2 at 2:00 p.m. in Room 038, Administrative Studies Building. Dr. Cassidy's speech will be on "Systems Analysis and the Criminal Justice System". All interested persons are welcome to attend.
