Convocation ceremonies will take place on the podium level of the Ross Building (note location change), or in case of inclement weather, the ceremonies will be held in the Tait McKenzie Building.

- 2:30 p.m. - GLENDON COLLEGE CONVOCATION - Mr. Pierre Juneau will receive the honorary Doctor of Laws degree. Mr. Juneau, Chairman of the Canadian Radio-Television Commission since 1968, has played a major role in stimulating the creative development of the Canadian radio and television system. Active in a number of educational, religious, social and cultural organizations, such as the Canadian Association for Adult Education and L'institut canadien des affaires publiques, Mr. Juneau was also a member of the Task force established by the Cabinet to recommend policy on space satellites. Mr. Juneau will deliver the convocation address. Convocation ceremonies will take place on the lawn area adjacent to the Glendon College residence, or in case of inclement weather, the ceremonies will be held in the Dining Halls, Glendon campus.

GENERAL

- * Conversational Italian courses, stressing the vocabulary and jargon peculiar to a variety of professions, will be offered by York's Centre for Continuing Education this fall. The Centre is responding to a growing need for Torontonians working with the public to speak Italian, the city's second language. Separate courses will be offered for teachers, lawyers, doctors, chartered accountants, community services personnel and people in the correctional services. Each course will run for thirteen weeks, three hours a week, September to December, on a day determined by the participants. The Centre is currently conducting a survey to determine the degree of interest in each of the proposed classes. Members of the York community, interested in learning Italian, are asked to contact Anna Cavaliere, 667-2503, no later than July 30.

- * The Centre for Research in Experimental Space Science is holding its Fourth Annual Symposium on Experimental Space Science from June 5 - 8 in Room I, Curtis Lecture Halls between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. each day. Nearly eighty scientific papers will be presented in the eleven sessions, which are as follows:
- Tuesday, June 5 - Morning: Session 1, "Astronomy and Astrophysics"
Afternoon: Session 2, "Theoretical Chemistry and Physics"
Session 3, "Plasmas and Lasers"
- Wednesday, June 6 - Morning: Session 4, "Chemical Physics"
Afternoon: Session 5, "Spectroscopy"
- Thursday, June 7 - Morning: Session 6, "Atmospheric Science"
Afternoon: Session 7, "Earth Science"
Session 8, "Remote Sensing"
- Friday, June 8 - Canadian Space Program: Annual Experimenter's Meeting
Morning: Session 9, Business Meeting
Session 10, Review papers of the Canadian Space Program
Afternoon: Session 11, contributed papers on the Canadian Space Program
- The papers presented in sessions 1-8 review much of the current research program of CRESS - they will be presented by research students, postdoctoral fellows and project scientists and faculty members. Sessions 9-11 are 'focal sessions' which involve off-campus speakers. Any members of the York community who wish to attend any of the Symposia are welcome to do so. Copies of the detailed program are available from Professor R.W. Nicholls, Director, CRESS (Room 206, Petrie Science Building; local 3833).

- * The Parking Committee, advises that a priority system is being established for the processing of applications from medically incapacitated drivers for special parking privileges on campus. Accordingly, with the assistance of the York University Health Services, the following priorities will be used:
- Priority I - Wheelchair cases, crippled persons using crutches or canes, and those having major medical problems which affect seriously their ability to walk 300 yards.
- Priority II - Those having minor medical problems of a permanent nature.
- Priority III - All other medical disabilities.
- Every consideration will continue to be given to each request and confidentiality will be maintained. This priority system will be subject to frequent review, and comments and suggestions are welcomed.

- * Y.M.C.A. Day Camp - Once again this summer, the North York Y.M.C.A. will be operating Claireville Day Camp to serve children of members of the York community. A bus will stop at the foot of the Ross Building ramp for pick-up. For brochures, call the Department of Information and Publications at local 3441. For further information, contact Tom Hurka (225-7773) of the North York Y.M.C.A.

- * SEARCH COMMITTEE FOR A NEW PRESIDENT - Is there someone you, as a member of the York community, would like to nominate for President of York? Under the procedures for the search for a new President, approved by the Senate and the Board of Governors..."the Search Committee shall solicit and receive from the University community suggestions as to candidates for the office of President." Please send suggestions to:
- Search Committee
c/o Secretary of the University

2:30 p.m. - FOUNDERS AND VANIER COLLEGES, CONVOCATION - Professor Robertson Davies will receive the honorary Doctor of Letters degree, and Dr. Gerald P. Cosgrave will receive the honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

Canadian playwright and novelist, Robertson Davies is Master of Massey College, University of Toronto. A professor of English at that University, he is also Vice-President of the Kingston Whig-Standard and a Senator of the Stratford Shakespearean Festival. Winner of a 1973 Governor-General's Award for Fiction, Professor Davies is the author of the novels, The Diary of Samuel Marchbanks, Fifth Business, and The Manticore. His plays include A Jig for the Gypsy, Eros at Breakfast and Fortune, My Foe (which was awarded the trophy for the best Canadian play in the 1949 Dominion Drama Festival). In 1972, he was named Companion of the Order of Canada. Professor Davies will give the convocation address.

Dr. Gerald P. Cosgrave has made a significant contribution to the field of vocational and professional counselling. Since 1965, as Director of the Counselling Foundation of Canada, Dr. Cosgrave has channelled funds into the area of vocational counselling. Author of more than fifty articles, reports and papers on such subjects as occupational and vocational counselling, Dr. Cosgrave, for the past ten years, has worked at York's Psychological Services Department.

The convocation ceremonies will take place on the lawn adjacent to College Complex #1, or in case of inclement weather, the ceremonies will be held in the Tait McKenzie Building.

YORK ACTIVITIES

Friday

9:30 a.m. - Fourth Annual Symposium on Experimental Space Science - continued

10:00 a.m. - WINTERS AND McLAUGHLIN COLLEGES, CONVOCATION - Mr. T.H.B. Symons will receive the honorary Doctor of Laws degree. Professor Thomas Symons, past and founding President of Trent University, is currently Chairman of the A.U.C.C. Commission on Canadian Studies. He is a founding member of the National Commission for Friendly Relations with Overseas Students (now the Canadian Bureau for International Education), the Editorial Board of the Journal of Canadian Studies, and the Canadian Society for the Abolition of the Death Penalty. Professor Symons served as Chairman of the Ministerial Commission of Enquiry into French Language Secondary Education in Ontario and as Vice-President of the Indian-Eskimo Association of Canada. He was a member of the Research Committee commissioned to undertake the preparation of a study on Native Rights in Canada (published in 1970) by the National Indian Brotherhood, the Canadian Metis Society and the Indian-Eskimo Association of Canada. Mr. Symons will give the convocation address. Convocation ceremonies will take place on the lawn adjacent to College Complex #1, or in case of inclement weather, ceremonies will be held in the Tait McKenzie Building.

12:15 p.m. & 1:15 p.m. - Film - [Film Library] "Flowers on a One-Way Street" (pt. II) - Room 114A, Scott Library

2:30 p.m. - BETHUNE, CALUMET AND STONG COLLEGES, CONVOCATION - Mr. Allan G. Burton and Mrs. Adelaide Marriott will each receive the honorary Doctor of Laws degree. Mr. Allan G. Burton is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Simpson's Limited and subsidiary companies. A member of the Board of Directors of numerous Toronto companies, Mr. Burton has also served as Chairman of the United Appeal of Metro Toronto (1961) and as President of the Metropolitan Toronto Industrial Commission (1967-70). Mr. Burton will give the convocation address. The development of artistic and creative handicrafts in Canada is largely due to the dedication and leadership of Mrs. Adelaide Marriott, founder and moving spirit behind the Canadian Guild of Crafts (Ontario). Presently, she is Honorary President of the Canadian Guild of Crafts (Ontario) and Honorary Vice-President of the National Canadian Guild of Crafts. Along with her involvement with Canadian crafts, Mrs. Marriott also worked on the executive of Canadian U.N.E.S.C.O. in the early years and for her work in the Conference of the Arts, she was awarded a Centennial Medal. Convocation ceremonies will take place on the lawn adjacent to College Complex #1, or in case of inclement weather, ceremonies will be held in the Tait McKenzie Building.

Saturday

10:00 a.m. - Recreational Soccer - field adjacent to the Tait McKenzie Building

2:30 p.m. - FACULTY OF GRADUATE STUDIES, CONVOCATION - Mr. Maurice Strong will receive the honorary Doctor of Laws degree. Mr. Strong, Under-Secretary General of the United Nations Secretariat and Secretary-General of the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment, has made a great contribution to public and business life in Canada. In 1966, Mr. Strong resigned all his business positions to accept an appointment as Director General of the Federal Government's External Aid Office, which was later named the Canadian International Development Agency (C.I.D.A.). The title of Under-Secretary General of the United Nations is the highest rank ever held by a Canadian. Mr. Strong will deliver the convocation address. Convocation ceremonies will take place at the Podium Level of the Ross Building, or in case of inclement weather, ceremonies will be held in the Tait McKenzie Building.

GENERAL

* Faculty and staff Athletic Memberships are effective from July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1974. Early in July of each year it is necessary to clear all lockers in preparation for the summer program and the influx of students, faculty and staff in September. Those holding a locker on a 1972 membership must renew for 1973 before June 30 and show their locker number on the application form in order to protect their locker. 1972 members who don't intend to renew their membership must clean out their locker before June 30 and report to the locker control room with their lock and refund of the $2.00 lock deposit will be effected. Failing either of the above, lockers will be cleared out and the Department of Physical Education and Athletics regrets that it cannot accept any responsibility for the items left in the locker beyond the expiry date of June 30.

* John Herbert, author of Fortune and Men's Eyes, and Gwen MacEven, novelist, poet and Governor-General's Award winner, are among the writers who will conduct workshop sessions at the "Writers' Workshop" to be held by the Centre for Continuing Education from July 30 to August 10. Also teaching will be Elizabeth Salter, mystery writer and biographer of Dame Edith Sitwell. Miss Salter's latest biography, Daisy Bates, is being filmed shortly and will star Katherine Hepburn. Aspiring writers will have the opportunity to study with professionals in the fields of fiction, non-fiction, poetry and drama. Workshop leaders will offer technical and creative direction, giving practical suggestions to students in workshop sessions, evening lectures and readings. In daytime sessions, leaders will discuss and criticize students' manuscripts and be available for private conferences with individuals. Novelist and creative writing teacher, Gerald Lampert, who is also Coordinating Director of the League of Canadian Poets, will be coordinator for the "Writers' Workshop". Other staff will include: poet Joe Rosenblatt; author Austin Clarke; freelance journalists David Collins and Marq de Villiers; novelist and features writer Alice Denham; playwright Harvey Markowitz; and novelist Martin Myers. For further information and brochures, interested persons can call the Centre at local 2526.

* Faculty and staff Athletic Memberships are effective from July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1974. Early in July of each year it is necessary to clear all lockers in preparation for the summer program and the influx of students, faculty and staff in September. Those holding a locker on a 1972 membership must renew for 1973 before June 30 and show their locker number on the application form in order to protect their locker. 1972 members who don't intend to renew their membership must clean out their locker before June 30 and report to the locker control room with their lock and a refund of the $2.00 lock deposit will be effected. Failing either of the above, lockers will be cleared out and the Department of Physical Education and Athletics regrets that it cannot accept any responsibility for the items left in the locker beyond the expiry date of June 30.

* Search Committee for a New President: Under the procedures for the search for a new President approved by the Senate and the Board of Governors, "the Search Committee shall solicit and receive from the University community suggestions as to candidates for the office of President". Please send suggestions to: Search Committee, c/o Secretary of the University, Room S945, the Ross Building, York Campus.
