- * The Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada (AUCC) has recently published The University and The Canadian North, an inventory of university activities related to the north. The inventory is the result of a study conducted for the AUCC by Walter O. Kupsch and Maryse Caillol, both of the University of Saskatchewan. Grants from the Department of Indian and Northern Affairs and the Ford Foundation financed the inventory. Additional funding is now being sought to enable completion of the analysis and recommendations. Impetus for the study originally came from a commission on the universities' role in the north held at the 1970 AUCC annual meeting in Winnipeg. The University and The Canadian North inventory is available from AUCC Circulation, $3. For additional information, please contact Mrs. Rosemary Cavan, AUCC Director of Information (613-237-3330, extension 335).

GENERAL

Members of the University community are invited to submit written comments on the nominees for President of York University. Letters should be addressed to the Chairman of the Search Committee, c/o Room S945, the Ross Building, York Campus.
--

- * The following members of the York community have agreed to serve as representatives of United Way, to answer or refer any questions that the University community may have about the United Way, and to accept contributions if members of the community wish to do so. They will not be soliciting contributions, and they are located as follows:

Atkinson College - Terry McGee (2469)	Founders College - Rosemary Thompson (2208)
Bethune College - Janet Waisglass (3957)	McLaughlin College - Audrey Robinson (3673)
Stong College - Ruth Allen (3062)	Winters College - Pat Ralston (2204)
Osgoode - Ann Montgomery (3981)	B.S.B. - Margery Adamson (3757)

Library - Joan Carruthers (3054)	Ross Building - Louise Ann Smithe (3820/2559)
Steacie - Hazel Low (2317)	Tait McKenzie - Helen Duffy (2346)
Temporary Office Building - R. Matthews (3649) or R. Howard (2268)

- * The Faculty of Fine Arts is presenting a Ragtime Piano Concert featuring Eubie Blake and Robert Darch on Friday, October 12 at 3:00 p.m. in Room I, Curtis Lecture Halls. Ninety-year-old Eubie Blake started his career in vaudeville with partner Noble Sissle in 1915. From this combination of talent came the pioneer of Negro shows on Broadway, "Shuffle Along". At age 66, he graduated from New York University and since has received an honorary doctorate from Brooklyn College. Still active, Mr. Blake tours college campuses and performs at festivals like the Newport Jazz Festival. Appearing with Mr. Blake will be Robert "Ragtime Bob" Darch who has entertained audiences in night clubs and at concerts across the United States, and has made several television appearances. Over the years, Mr. Darch has gathered together one of the largest collections of sheet music and memorabilia from the ragtime years, and is one of the key reasons for the recent upsurge of popularity for the music of this era. Tickets for the concert are $2.00 - for further information call 667-3246.

- * Faculty of Arts Minor Research Grants: (Revised September, 1973) The fund at the disposal of the Faculty of Arts and administered by the Committee on Grants and Scholarships is designed primarily to help cover some of the out-of-pocket expenses connected with research projects. The fund does not carry stipends and hence is not a research fund in that sense. The Committee sits three times a year and will consider applications submitted by November 1, February 1 and April 1.
For further information on the guidelines as well as application forms, please contact either Departmental/Divisional Chairmen, the Minor Research Grants Committee Chairman (J. Ridpath, Room S732, Ross - local 3298) or the Faculty of Arts (Bev Morrissey, Room S932C, Ross - local 3189).

- * The George Coffee Shop reopened today and will serve the York community from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The Coffee Shop is located in Room N108, the Ross Building and features a back (games) room.

- * The York Yeoman and Alumni Water Polo Teams are open to all members of the York community. Practices will be held Monday and Wednesday evenings from 9:00 p.m. - 11:00 p.m. and Tuesday and Thursday from 3:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. For further information, call Kevin Jones at local 3270.

- * The Purchasing Department wishes to remind all Departments and Grantees to sign-off and forward blue receiving copies of Purchase Orders, to Purchasing, Room 65, Temporary Office Building, as quickly as possible after goods are delivered or services are rendered. A photostat copy of the blue may be submitted in the case of part shipments, indicating which of the items has been received.

- * The Finance Committee of the York Student Federation has established Monday, October 22, as the final date for receiving requests for financial assistance from student clubs and associations on campus. Information on criteria and procedures should be obtained from the C.Y.S.F. Office - Room N111, the Ross Building (local 2515).

- * A lecture and seminar will be given on the European Common Market by Hubertus Prince zu Löwenstein, historian, writer and noted lecturer. The talk will be sponsored by the Departments of History and Political Science, and will take place on Thursday, October 11 at 2:00 p.m. in Room 105, Administrative Studies Building.

GENERAL

- * The Faculty of Science is presenting once more its Distinguished Science Speakers series. The first lecture will be given by Professor T.M. Sugden, F.R.S., Director, Thornton Research Centre, Shell Research Limited, Chester, England, on Wednesday, October 17 at 4:30 p.m. in Room D, Curtis Lecture Halls. Professor Sugden will speak on "Noise from Flames - a Scientific and Environmental Problem". Much of Professor Sugden's work has been concerned with the ionization processes which occur when chemical additives are introduced into the flame gas. In recognition of his many important contributions to science, he was elected Fellow of the Royal Society of London in 1963 and is a Medallist of the Combustion Institute.
- * The York University Homophile Association's office is located in Room 216, Vanier College Residence. Members of the Association will be available for information and counselling Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. (call local 3632).
- * The Senate Committee on Non-Degree Studies plans to hold a meeting on Monday, October 22 to talk with those involved in Non-Degree Studies about present programs offered by the University. Members of the York community who have not yet been contacted about this meeting, are working in the area, and would like to attend are asked to call Sherri Agnew at 667-2369.
- * Faculty of Arts Minor Research Grants (revised September 1973): The fund at the disposal of the Faculty of Arts and administered by the Committee on Grants and Scholarships is designed primarily to help cover some out-of-pocket expenses connected with research projects. The fund does not carry stipends and hence is not a research fund in that sense. The Committee sits three times a year and will consider applications submitted by November 1, February 1 and April 1. For further information on the guidelines as well as application forms, interested persons are asked to contact Departmental/Divisional Chairman, the Minor Research Grants Committee Chairman (J. Ridpath, Room S732, Ross - 3298) or Faculty of Arts (Bev Morrissey, Room S932C, Ross - 3189).
- * An International Seminar will be held in the Caribbean during the summer of 1974. Two delegates from York will be selected (from any academic area) to travel and study in the Caribbean Islands with fifty other students from universities across Canada. For further information contact Melanie Manchee at 923-6350.
- * Winter Flights - The York Student Federation (Room N111, the Ross Building) has information and application forms available for A.O.S.C. flights to Acapulco. Arrangements for Christmas flights to Vancouver and Europe are pending. For further information call local 2515.

- * In honour of the visit of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II to Ontario in July, 1959, the Government of the Province established a fund to provide annually a number of post-graduate awards to be known as the Queen Elizabeth II Ontario Scholarships. In 1974-75, five such scholarships, each of the value of $5000.00 will be available in the fields of the humanities, social sciences and mathematics. The conditions of the scholarship are as follows: they are intended for candidates nearing the completion of the Ph.D. degree; the scholarships are tenable only at Ontario universities and preference will be given to candidates who are residents of Ontario; considerable weight will be given to the candidate's expressed interest in or commitment to university teaching; no other academic award or paid employment may be accepted during the year the scholarship is held - minor awards or payment for teaching duties not exceeding a total of ten hours (three contact hours) per week may be accepted if approved by the Chairman of the Selection Committee. For further information and application forms, contact the Faculty of Graduate Studies - the deadline for submission for 1974-75 awards is December 1, 1973.
- * The Lady Davis Fellowship Trust is an award for study, research or teaching on graduate or post-doctorate levels at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and the Technion - Israel Institute of Technology, Haifa. Lady Davis Fellows will be selected on the basis of demonstrated excellence in their studies, promise of distinction in their chosen fields of specialization, etc. The Fellowships are tenable for a period of one or two academic years. In special circumstances, the award may be extended for a third year. The grant is intended to defray the cost of the Fellow's transport and tuition and to meet all his reasonable expenses. Candidates may apply during the beginning of their senior undergraduate year, or after they have undertaken study in a graduate school. Application forms may be obtained from the Faculty of Graduate Studies (Room N920, the Ross Building) and must be submitted to the Secretariat in Jerusalem no later than January 1st of each year for the ensuing academic year.
- * The Purchasing Department wishes to remind all Departments and Grantees to sign-off and forward blue receiving copies of Purchase Orders, to Purchasing, Room 65, Temporary Office Building as quickly as possible after goods are delivered or services are rendered. A photostat copy of the blue may be submitted in the case of part shipments indicating which of the items has been received.
- * The Senate Committee on Non-Degree Studies plans to hold a meeting on Monday, October 22 to talk with those involved in Non-Degree Studies about present programs offered by the University. Members of the York community who have not yet been contacted regarding this meeting, are working in this area, and would like to attend, are asked to call Sherri Agnew at local 2369.
- * Members of the Department of Philosophy plan a series of talks addressed to the University community on topics of interdisciplinary interests. The first speaker in this series is Professor P.H. Nowell-Smith, of York's Department of Philosophy, who will give a lecture entitled "Two Approaches to Social Institutions" on Monday, October 22 at 1:00 p.m. in Room 031, Administrative Studies Building. A discussion will follow Professor Nowell-Smith's talk - all interested members of the community are invited to participate.

STAFF POSITION:

CORRECTION: The Personnel Department asks members of the York community to note the following -

The grade for the position of Assistant to the Master of Bethune College advertised in the Daily Bulletin dated October 16, should be grade 6, rather than grade 7.

- * Due to the fact that sixty days are required by Canadian publishers and agents to fill fall orders and that they will not guarantee delivery within ninety days, the York University Bookstores request that requisitions for textbooks for use in January be placed no later than November 1, 1973, or earlier, if possible.

- * Fellowships valued at $10,000 are to be awarded in the Faculty of Environmental Studies in a program to encourage and stimulate research in the field of housing in Canada. The awards, donated by Cadillac Development Corporation, will cover an initial one-year study period and will be available to students enrolled in the Faculty of Environmental Studies whose main area of interest lies in improving the quality and quantity of Canadian housing.
The committee which will choose the recipients will be composed of Dean Carrothers, one faculty member appointed by the Dean, and a representative appointed by the Cadillac Development Corporation. The committee will be evaluating student proposals which focus mainly on Canadian housing problems and issues, particularly as they relate to urban-centered regions. The research may be directed to planning, design of community factors, and can deal with physical, social, economic, psychological, legal, organizational or administrative aspects of housing in Canada. For further information, contact the Dean's Office (Room 553, Scott Library) at 667-6296.

- * On Thursday, October 25, there will be an organizational meeting for all members of the York community who are interested in becoming a Big Brother or Big Sister. The meeting will be held at 1:00 p.m. in Room S128, the Ross Building - for further information call 669-1859 (after 6:00 p.m.).

GENERAL

- * The Royal Bank of Canada has established an annual award consisting of a gold medal and a cash grant of $50,000 to "honour a Canadian citizen or person domiciled in Canada, whose outstanding achievement is of such importance that it is contributing to human welfare and the common good". The range of activity is extremely broad and may include the natural and social sciences, the arts and humanities and the business and industrial world. There is no intention of limiting an award to a technical achievement. Candidates cannot make personal application for the award. To be considered, they must be proposed and recommended to the Selection Committee of the Royal Bank Award (1974) by two or more persons who will be required either to sign jointly the principal letter of recommendation or to provide and sign separate letters. Nominations should be submitted to the Secretary of the Selection Committee no later than February 28, 1974. Enquiries and nominations should be addressed to:

Secretary, Selection Committee
Royal Bank Award, P.O. Box 1102
Montreal, Quebec
H3C 2X9 (telephone - 861-6120)
- * The Purchasing Department wishes to remind all Departments and Grantees to sign-off and forward blue receiving copies of Purchase Orders, to Purchasing, Room 65, Temporary Office Building, as quickly as possible after goods are delivered or services are rendered. A photostat copy of the blue may be submitted in the case of part shipments indicating which of the items has been received.
- * Faculty of Arts, Minor Research Grants (Revised September, 1973): The fund at the disposal of the Faculty of Arts and administered by the Committee on Grants and Scholarships is designed to help cover some of the out-of-pocket expenses connected with research projects. The fund does not carry stipends and hence is not a research fund in that sense. The Committee sits three times a year and will consider applications submitted by November 1, February 1 and April 1.
For further information on the guidelines as well as application forms, please contact either Departmental/Divisional Chairmen, the Minor Research Grants Committee Chairman (J. Ridpath, Room S732, Ross - 3298) or Bev Morrissey (Room S932C, Ross - 3189).
- * Due to the fact that 60 days are required by Canadian publishers and agents to fill fall orders and that they will not guarantee delivery within ninety days, the York University Bookstores request that requisitions for textbooks to be used in January be placed no later than November 1, 1973, or earlier if possible.
