GENERAL

- * The Department of Mathematics is sponsoring the visit of Dr. David Dodds, Chief, Census & Institutional Educational & Agricultural Survey Methods Divisions, Statistical Services, Statistics Canada, to the York campus on Thursday, December 6. Dr. Dodds will give a talk on three projects undertaken by some of the staff in Statistics Canada at 4:00 p.m. in Room S130 of the Ross Building. The projects deal with: (a) response variance, non-sampling errors, models, built-in field procedures, components of variance; (b) editing and imputation; and (c) an agricultural sample survey design. All interested persons are invited to attend.
- * The Department of Physical Plant is committed to the task of realizing all operating economies possible while at the same time providing a satisfactory environment for all scheduled events taking place on campus during the holiday period. To assist the Department in achieving these important goals, members of the York community are asked to advise Physical Plant of the planned use of facilities over and above that set out in the recent announcement from the Office of the Vice-President (Administration) concerning closing dates for libraries, physical education, computer centre and banking facilities. Please telephone local 2296 concerning requirements.
- * In a continuing program to develop and enhance community relations for the University, the Department of Information and Publications plans to introduce a new "Speakers' Bureau". A brochure is being prepared listing voluntary speakers from within the York community who would be willing to speak to professional associations, schools, service clubs, etc. Fact Sheets and Questionnaires have been sent to each department, division and faculty and completed copies should be sent to Room N817, the Ross Building no later than December 15. Further information may be obtained by calling Dawn Cotton at local 3441.

- * Dr. Jack Birnbaum, author of the successful book, Cry Anger, will conduct a one-day workshop designed to explore the total spectrum of hostility on Wednesday, December 12 at York. For further information, interested persons are asked to call the Centre for Continuing Education at local 3276.
- * The fifth and final lecture in the 1973 President's Fortnightly Forum will take place on Thursday, December 13 from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge (8th floor) of the Ross Building. Professor Jay Leyda of the Department of Film (Faculty of Fine Arts) will give a talk entitled "The Isolation of Film". All interested persons are welcome.
- * York Professor Eli Mandel will be featured at a Benefit Concert taking place on Saturday, December 15 at 8:30 p.m. in Convocation Hall, University of Toronto. The York Jewish Student Federation in conjunction with Hillel is sponsoring this concert - proceeds will go to the Israel Emergency Fund. Tickets ($3.00, $4.00 and $4.50) are available from all Eaton's ticket outlets and Sam the Record Man stores.
- * Members of the York community may call for assistance when cars will not start (due to a run-down battery) to the Department of Physical Plant - local 3333. This service will be provided for a nominal charge of $2.00 (c.o.d.) between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 11:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Under normal circumstances, a fifteen-minute waiting period may be expected.
- * The Council of the York Student Federation invites applications for the position of student senator. Applications should include a mailing address and telephone number, year of study and program, and a statement of relevant experience. Applications should be received by the C.Y.S.F. office (Room N111, the Ross Building) no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, December 7. For further information call Michael Mouritsen at 667-3627.
- * The Purchasing Department wishes to remind all Departments and Grantees to sign-off and forward blue receiving copies of Purchase Orders to Purchasing, Room 65, Temporary Office Building, immediately upon receipt of goods or completion of services rendered. A photostat copy of the blue should be submitted in the case of part shipments, indicating which of the items has been received. Adherence to this necessary procedure will ensure continuity of supply and eliminate possible C.O.D. charges resulting from late payments of accounts.
- * The York Students for a Democratic Society are sponsoring a "Petition Campaign" each day from 11:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. until December 14 in the Central Square of the Ross Building. The purpose of this petition is to eliminate the use of textbooks by Mr. E. Banfield from use at York. For further information, the S.D.S. is holding a general meeting on Thursday, December 6 at 3:00 p.m. in Room S103 of the Ross Building.
- * The Winters College Art Gallery is displaying movies and posters from 1940 to the present as part of the Cosmic Convention taking place in the new year. Focusing on horror and science fiction, the display has been arranged by Ken Ketter, a Winters College student. The exhibition will be on view until Friday, December 7 and is open from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. each day.

- * A special photographic exhibition will be presented by the Department of Visual Arts in the Instructional Display Area of the Fine Arts Building from Friday, December 7 to Thursday, December 20. "Birth, Death and Other Realities" by John Phillips, lecturer in photography with York's Faculty of Fine Arts, and "Erosion" by Kan Azuma, photographic technician, are the featured exhibits. Founder of Canada's first privately-operated gallery for photography - The Baldwin Street Gallery in Toronto - John Phillips has been with the Visual Arts Department for two years. He is the recipient of three Canada Council grants to further his work in photography, and he has done cinematography for several short films including "Paperboy", a National Film Board production. Tokyo-born Kan Azuma has worked in commercial photography in Japan and in Canada. He has been with the Faculty of Fine Arts at York since 1971. The exhibit is free and will be open to the public weekdays from December 7 to December 20 between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.
- * Government Documents - Microtexts is moving from Rooms 105 and 106, Scott Library to Rooms 113 and 040, Administrative Studies building. The department will be closed for the move from Monday, December 17 to Wednesday, January 2, 1974. Any faculty member who plans to assign a take-home examination using government publications, is asked to contact Anne Cannon or Vivienne Monty at local 2545. The titles will then be made available from December 17 at the Reserve Reading Room, Scott Library.
- * The Seer is the student newspaper of Winters College, now in its seventh year of publication. This year the Seer will be published in two forms: the first, a weekly news bulletin of events of interest to the members of the College; and, the other, a monthly tabloid newspaper providing news and features about Winters, York and the entertainment scene in Toronto. Members of the University community who have material for publication should send submissions to the Seer, Room 029A, Winters College. Both the Seer and the weekly bulletin will be published on Wednesdays, hence material should be received by Monday evening.
- * The Purchasing Department wishes to remind all Departments and Grantees to sign-off and forward blue receiving copies of Purchase Orders, to Purchasing, Room 65, Temporary Office Building, immediately upon receipt of goods or completion of services rendered. A photostat copy of the blue should be submitted in the case of part shipments, indicating which of the items has been received. Adherence to this necessary procedure will ensure continuity of supply and eliminate possible C.O.D. charges resulting from late payments of accounts.
- * Ontario Graduate Scholarship 1974/75: The Ministry of Colleges & Universities advises that after further consultation with the Committee on University Affairs, it has been decided that the published income and other awards limits for the Program should be raised. An Ontario Graduate Scholar may hold another award up to $500 and/or may accept a research assistantship or a part-time teaching or demonstrating appointment that does not interfere with his/her status as a full-time graduate student, provided that the total amount paid to any Scholar within the period of the award shall not exceed, including the Ontario Graduate Scholarship, $5,300 plus allowable fees for a three-term award and $4,000 plus allowable fees for a two-term award.
- * The International Students are sponsoring a Bus Trip to Mactier, Ontario, on Sunday, December 16. For those who enjoy cross-country skiing or skating, the facilities are excellent. Tickets for the trip are $5.00 (includes bus trip, lunch and supper) and must be obtained from Room N904, the Ross Building before December 14. The bus will leave #4 Assiniboine Road at 9:00 a.m. on the 16th.
- * International students and advisors are sponsoring an International Christmas - an informal program of activities, outings, contacts with a Canadian community for five days of the holiday period - from December 23 - 28 at Guelph, Ontario. Overseas and Canadian students (up to a maximum of 50) are invited to participate. Brochures, application forms and further information may be obtained from Room N904, the Ross Building. The registration deadline is December 7, 1973.

GENERAL

- * Dr. Yolton will be away from the University from December 8 to December 23, 1973. During that time, Mr. W.W. Small will be Acting President.
- * The Faculty of Fine Arts presents a special program of Medieval and Renaissance Christmas music on Wednesday, December 12 at noon and again at 1:00 p.m. in Room F, Curtis Lecture Hall, featuring the Toronto Consort. The Toronto Consort has achieved remarkable success in presenting concerts of vocal and instrumental music using such Renaissance instruments as the viola da gamba, the lute, the harpsichord, the recorder and the cornetto. In exploring music from the 14th to the 17th centuries, the members of Toronto Consort include in their repertoire everything from the bawdiest of street songs to the most sacred of the liturgical mass, relating the literature and the history of the Middle Ages with their music, in informal discussions between pieces. Admission to the concert is free.
- * The University of Toronto-York University Joint Program in Transportation has begun a Student Small Grants Program to assist students in paying costs related to transportation research projects or course work in which they are involved. An application form for this program is enclosed. Costs which the Joint Program would consider paying include: computer time and materials; travel and accommodation (e.g., to interview relevant officials of governmental agencies or to visit a specialized library); survey distribution; secretarial assistance; etc. The Joint Program would expect to receive a copy of the report or paper resulting from the research work which it had supported. Applications should be sent to: John W. Langford - Education Coordinator, Joint Program in Transportation, Transport Centre, Osgoode Hall Law School.
- * York University Staff Association wishes to remind the membership that nominations for 1974 Committees will close December 31st, 1973. Nominations are being accepted for all committees. Call Jean Drake at local 2420, Rita Thirkettle or Molly Klein at local 3821, for further information.

- * Information York is looking for Handouts: If any group or department has published a handbook lately and has not sent a copy to Information York would they do so. Also any other information that is of interest or importance to students, the community as a whole, or any part of the community, should be sent along to:
Denys Brown
c/o Information York
N. 101 Ross Building (Post Office Square)
- * Members of the York community are asked to note the following important change in the recently announced Ontario Graduate Scholarship Program: It has been decided that the published income and other awards limits for the Program should be raised. An Ontario Graduate Scholar may hold another award up to $500 and/or may accept a research assistantship or a part-time teaching or demonstrating appointment that does not interfere with his/her status as a full-time graduate student, provided that the total amount paid to any Scholar within the period of the award shall not exceed, including the Ontario Graduate Scholarship, $5,300 plus allowable fees for a three-term award and $4,000 plus allowable fees for a two-term award.
- * The Stong Fellows Series is presenting "The Fall of '53", a multi-media interpretation through the use of film, newspapers, photos, magazines, music and film excerpts from "Rebel Without a Cause" (James Dean) and "The Wild One" (Marlon Brando) on Monday, December 10 at 8:00 p.m. in the Stong College Theatre (Room 112). York Professor Robert White organized this presentation for the Series; there will be no admission charged. The above-mentioned films will be shown in entirety on Tuesday, December 11 at 8:00 p.m. in the Junior Common Room of Stong College - all interested persons are welcome.
- * The Department of Physical Plant is committed to the task of realizing all operating economies possible while at the same time providing a satisfactory environment for all scheduled events taking place on campus during the holiday period. To assist the Department in achieving these important goals, members of the York community are asked to advise Physical Plant of the planned use of facilities over and above that set out in the recent announcement from the office of the Vice-President (Administration) concerning closing dates for libraries, physical education facilities, computer centre and banking facilities. Please telephone local 2296 concerning requirements.
- * Government Documents - Microtexts is moving from Rooms 105 and 106, Scott Library to Rooms 113 and 040, Administrative Studies building. The department will be closed for the move from Monday, December 17 to Wednesday January 2, 1974. Any faculty member who plans to assign a take-home examination using government publications, is asked to contact Anne Cannon or Vivienne Monty at local 2545. The titles will then be made available from December 17 at the Reserve Reading Room, Scott Library.
- * In a continuing program to develop and enhance community relations for the University, the Department of Information and Publications plans to introduce a new "Speakers' Bureau". A brochure is being prepared listing voluntary speakers from within the York community who would be willing to speak to professional associations, schools, service clubs, etc. Fact sheets and questionnaires have been sent to each department, division and faculty and completed copies should be sent to Room N817, the Ross Building no later than December 15. Further information may be obtained by calling Dawn Cotton at local 3441.

- * Information York is looking for Handouts: If any group or department has published a handbook lately and has not sent a copy to Information York would they do so. Also any other information that is of interest or importance to students, the community as a whole, or any part of the community, should be sent along to:
N. 101 Ross Building (Post Office Square)
- * The Automotive Transport Association of Ontario has contributed $250.00 to the Transport Centre to establish a student essay prize. The prize will be awarded to the student submitting the best essay related to the general area of truck transportation. Essays will be accepted on all aspects of this subject including: the structure of the truck transport industry; management and planning for the truck transport industry; the application of new technologies to the industry; the governmental regulation and control of motor carriers; the relationship between motor carriers, freight forwarders, and other modes of transportation involved in urban and intercity goods movements; and the future of the industry in the face of contemporary concerns such as environmental quality and energy conservation. The deadline for submissions is March 1, 1974. The length and format of the essays is left to the discretion of the individual student. It is anticipated that many of the submissions will already have been used to fulfill course work requirements and this is perfectly acceptable to the Transport Centre. All essays submitted will be examined by a panel of judges appointed by the Transport Centre. The winning paper (and others of high quality) will also be considered for publication. Further information on this competition can be obtained from the Transport Centre. Entries should be directed to: J. W. Langford, Director, Transport Centre 430 Osgoode Hall Law School.
- * During the period December 21 to January 2, 1974, Physical Plant will be super-chlorinating the swimming pool to burn off residual combined elements and to bleach the water. During this period it would be very dangerous for any bather to enter the pool - All entrance doors bear this notice as a warning to all concerned.
- * The Purchasing Department wishes to remind all Departments and Grantees to sign-off and forward blue receiving copies of Purchase Orders, to Purchasing, Room 65, Temporary Office Building, immediately upon receipt of goods or completion of services rendered. A photostat copy of the blue should be submitted in the case of part shipments, indicating which of the items has been received. Adherence to this necessary procedure will ensure continuity of supply and eliminate possible C.O.D. charges resulting from late payments of accounts.
- * York University Staff Association wishes to remind the memberships that nominations for 1974 Committees will close December 31st, 1973. Nominations are being accepted for all committees. Call Jean Drake at local 2420, Rita Thirkettle or Molly Klein at local 3821 for further information. - * Members of the York community are asked to note that the George Coffee Shop (N108, the Ross Building) will be closed from Monday, December 17 until Friday, January 4 and will re-open on Monday, January 7.
- * Members of the York community are asked to note that the application for a licence to operate dining lounges and liquor lounges made under the recently amended Liquor Licence Act has been heard by the LLBO. The next step in the process will be an in-depth study of York's facilities by the officials of the Licencing Board, which will likely take place during January. It is anticipated that the earliest a general licence can be expected is February 15. In the meantime, the use of Special Occasion Permits should be continued in the usual manner.
- * The Department of Physical Plant will shutdown cooling to the Ross Building, Steacie Science Library (Computer Centre area) and the Petrie Science Building at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 20 in order to permit connection of new piping in the Central Utilities Building. Cooling will be restored at 8:00 a.m. Wednesday, January 2, 1974.
In deference to the Provincial Government's energy crisis slogan -- "If we each save a little we will all save a lot" -- The Department of Physical Plant wishes to remind members of the York community to turn off their office lights when preparing to leave for the Christmas break.
- * The Department of Physical Plant is committed to the task of realizing all operating economies possible while at the same time providing a satisfactory environment for all scheduled events taking place on campus during the holiday period. To assist the Department in achieving these important goals, members of the York community are asked to advise Physical Plant of the planned use of facilities over and above that set out in the recent announcement from the office of the Vice-President (Administration) concerning closing dates for libraries, physical education facilities, computer centre and banking facilities. Please telephone local 2296 concerning requirements.
- * York Bus Service - Due to the Christmas Vacation the York Bus Service will be discontinued from December 22, to January 6 inclusive, re-commencing Monday, January 7.
- * During the period of December 21 to January 2, Physical Plant will be super-chlorinating the swimming pool to burn of residual combined elements and to bleach the water. At this time it would be very dangerous for any bather to enter the pool - all entrance doors to the pool will bear this notice as a warning to all concerned.

- * During the Christmas-New Year Holiday, mail will not be delivered at York University. The Postmaster, Mrs. R. Gilks, will be in the Central Mailroom on December 27th and 28th to check out Special Delivery items, Registered and Certified Mail. Postage stamps will be available from the Vendor located near the door to the Central Mailroom. Anyone wishing to mail letters during the holiday, is asked to drop them in the Red, White and Blue Canada Post Boxes outside the Buildings. Any mail deposited in the University mailboxes inside the Buildings, will not leave the Campus until January 2, 1974.
- * York University's Performing Arts Series will present Les Ptits Enfants Laliberté in an original Quebecois play, "L'Affront Commun, Une Fable" on Wednesday, January 9, at 8:30 p.m. in the Burton Auditorium. Under the direction of Canadian writer-director, Jean Claude Germain, Les Ptits Enfants Laliberté is a leader among the Montreal-based Underground Theatre. The troupe was enthusiastically received by Toronto audiences when they appeared in the Festival of Underground Theatre at the St. Lawrence Centre for the Arts in 1970.
This event is the second in the Theatre Series being presented by the Faculty of Fine Arts. "The Victorians" with Eric Donkin and Alan Laing will perform on Wednesday, March 6. Tickets for these events may be purchased at the Burton Box Office (local 2370) weekdays from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
- * Members of the York community are asked to note that the calculator room, S310, the Ross Building, will be closed from Saturday, December 22 until Tuesday, January 1, inclusive. Anyone wishing to use a calculator during that time should see Dr. G.E. Denzel in Room N610, the Ross Building.

* The Students and Faculty of the Department of Dance will present their final performance of their Dance Concert tonight at 8:00 p.m. in the Burton Auditorium (no admission charge). The five works to be presented will include: "El Retablo de Maese Pedro" (Master Peter's Puppet Show - based on an episode in "Don Quixote de la Mancha"); "Ricerca" (a ballet set to Bach's "Musical Offering"); "Images" (a ballet to the music of George Crumb); a dream quartet to "Serenata" (by Bruno Maderna); and "Fragment Suite" (a modern work). There will be an opportunity for audience members to meet the performers and choreographers at a reception following the performance - all interested persons are invited to attend.

* The National Institute on Mental Retardation (located on the York campus) is presenting a one-day symposium on "Early Childhood Education - Implications for the Future" on Friday, January 11. The program includes presentations on the Portage Project (a model for early childhood education) and the Milwaukee Education Project (a unique infant education program for the handicapped child). A national Canadian forum will take place with leading Canadian workers in Early Childhood Services, responding to the issues presented. Registration forms are available from the N.I.M.R. by calling Mrs. B. Bonner at 661-9611. Completed forms must be received by the Institute no later than January 4, 1974.
