GENERAL

- * The second reader in the Faculty of Fine Arts' Canadian Playwright Series is Michael Cook, author of Colour the Flesh, the Colour of Dust, a full-length play about the early history of Newfoundland. Mr. Cook's latest play, Head, Guts and Soundbone Dance, was recently published by the Canadian Theatre Review and will be produced in Montreal this spring. A teacher at Memorial University, St. John's, Newfoundland, Mr. Cook will give his reading on Monday, February 11 at 4:00 p.m. in the Graduate Student Lounge (S783) of the Ross Building. All interested persons are invited to attend.
- * Members of the York community are asked to note that the satellite branch of the Toronto-Dominion Bank, located in Founders College, will be closed during Reading Week - February 18 through 22. The Central Square Branch will maintain normal hours.
- * The Faculty of Fine Arts will present an "Evening of Renaissance Music and Dance" on Thursday, Friday and Saturday (February 14, 15 and 16) at 8:30 p.m. in the Burton Auditorium. The performance has been coordinated in the manner of a 17th century Italian court entertainment by Julia Sutton, Chairman of Music Literature at the New England Conservatory of Music, and former dance director of New York's "Pro Musica's Entertainment for Elizabeth". Authentic costumes have been made at York from original models, under the direction of David Pequegnat. Music by Monteverdi, Gastoldi, Jannequin, DaNola and Vecchi will be performed on early instruments, and intermission melodies will be provided by consorts of viola da gamba and recorder. Dances, the Central theme of "Renaissance", have been reconstructed from originals by Negri, Caroso, Arbeau and Cavalieri. York Fine Arts students comprise the large company of dancers, singers and musicians - dance coaches are Kevin McGarrigle and Charles Garth, and vocal and instrumental direction is by R. Sterling Beckwith and James McKay. Tickets for this event are $4.00 ($3.00 for York staff and $1.50 for students) and are available from the Music and Dance Departments - call either local 3365 or 3243.
- * The Lecture/Demonstration, sponsored by the Music Department and featuring Istvan Anhalt, distinguished Canadian Composer, originally to be held on Wednesday, February 6, has been rescheduled for Wednesday, February 13 at 4:00 p.m. in Room F, Curtis Lecture Halls.
- * Any members of the York community knowing of University typewriters for sale or rent, are asked to contact the C.Y.S.F. office - Room N111, the Ross Building (local 2515) - as many student groups have need of them.
- * Eligible York staff members are asked to state their preference by voting for one of the three possible agreements available for staff representation (as described in the January 29 Y.U.S.A. Newsletter) on February 11, 12 or 13 in Central Square between the hours of 12:00 noon and 2:00 p.m. (please note the time change).
- * Complaints: Along with its information and off-campus housing services, Information York (Post Office Square) is undertaking to act as a complaint bureau for the balance of this term. All complaints pertaining to York University and its services must be hand-written or typed on forms which will be provided in the Information booth. Information York undertakes only to transmit the written complaint to the proper authority and to press for a response within ten days of the date sent. The cooperation of all who may be involved in any written complaint received from Information York is requested. Any questions may be directed to Denys Brown, Room 200G, Administrative Studies Building (local 3764) or John Becker, Assistant Vice-President, Room S907B, the Ross Building (local 2226).
- * The Department of Physical Plant advises that they are holding several contact lenses which have been retrieved from the bottom of the Tait McKenzie swimming pool. Owners may claim them by contacting the Men's Control Room attendant at local 2243. Persons using the pool are advised to remove contact lenses to avoid the risk of losing them.
- * The Graduate Student Association is interested in receiving submissions from members of the York community on the use of M.B.A. -M.P.A. students as resource personnel. Suggestions for jobs requiring about ten hours per week for which a salary is received should be sent to the G.S.A., Room N918, the Ross Building.
