Thursday July 3 - Sunday July 6, 1975

EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE -3333

NOTE: There are no events scheduled as yet for Thursday through Sunday

GENERAL

- * Effective immediately, until the end of August, there will be no attendant on duty in the gatehouse on St. Lawrence Boulevard from 4:00 p.m. to 12:00 midnight. This measure is taken in the interest of economy while staff are on vacation. Members of the community, needing information or advice at this location, can obtain the assistance of a member of the Department of Safety and Security Services, through the Emergency Services Centre (local -3333) by using the external telephone provided.
- * Free Cholesterol Test Clinic: for any male age 35 to 59; taking place on Monday, July 7th in Room 201 of the Vanier College Residence (Health Services Offices) from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- * Any persons who have Opportunities for Youth (O.F.Y.) grants for any projects that involve York University or its physical resources are asked to advise the Information York Booth personnel concerning the nature and location of their program in order that inquiries may be properly answered.
- * Effective July 3, 1975, the Glendon office of the Office of Research Administration will be located in Room C231, York Hall; telephone: 487-6178. The office is open on Thursday afternoons only.
- * The National Institute on Mental Retardation is presenting three intensive training courses:

Precision Teaching Workshop (August 18-20)	Course fee - $45.00
Portage Guide to Early Education Workshop (August 21-23)	Course fee - $60.00
Current Trends in Mental Retardation (August 25-29)	Course fee - $95.00

These courses would be of interest to educators, residential and vocational personnel, administrators, parents, personnel from volunteer organizations and other human service personnel. Registration forms are available from Mrs. Beryl Bonner, Kinsmen NIMR Building (located on the York campus) - telephone 661-9611. Completed forms must be received by August 1st.
- * Summer Interchange: As a community service for the summer only, while Excalibur does not publish, the Daily Bulletin is offering to students, faculty and staff the opportunity to advertise, without charge, items for sale, barter or exchange. No outside agencies or commercial agencies will be permitted to use this space. Advertisers are asked to observe the following rules:
  - 1) all items must be submitted in typed or printed form, with name and telephone number and/or address of the advertiser and delivered to the Information York Booth (located in Post Office Square);
  - 2) it will be understood that - no telephoned items will be accepted
    - the Bulletin has the right to edit all material submitted
    - items will be published once only and on a first come, first served basis
    - due to space limitations, the Bulletin cannot guarantee publication of all items.
- * Please note that the preview of the Women's Centre on Friday, June 27 has been postponed until the Fall when there will be an official opening. The Women's Centre will be staffed by volunteers every Tuesday and Wednesday from 1:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m., beginning July 2. The Women's Centre is located in Room 257, Atkinson College and will be a reference area for information about women's activities, both social and academic at York.
- * Cheques Requisitioned from the Accounting Office: The Office of the Chief Accountant requests the cooperation of the community in adhering to the practice of allowing 5 days for the preparation of cheques, including travel advances, petty cash reimbursements, etc. Please do not request to arrange special pickup unless absolutely necessary. While one of the prime functions of the Accounting Department is to serve the needs of the University community, and we are prepared to accommodate urgent requests on an exception basis, this can only be achieved at the cost of a loss in productive time and additional workload for our staff.

GENERAL

- * NEW WORLD'S RECORD: The first complaint regarding the new Central Plaza food services was received on July 7th...a full week before the facility opened. The neatly typed (by secretary yet) letter charged that the Daily Bulletin was guilty of false advertising because it said the cafeteria was going to serve "Home-Made European-Style Soups" and since the soups are made on campus "they cannot be home-made". The Food Services people are considering (but not very seriously) testing the case in the Supreme Court.
- * A second series of children's learn to swim classes are being offered by the Physical Education Department commencing July 28. The three-week courses are designed for all swimming skill levels from the non-swimmer to senior red cross level (eight levels in total). Courses are open to the general public as well as the York community as a cost of $10.00 per course. Registration forms and further information can be obtained in Room 302 of the Tait McKenzie Building (telephone local -2351).
- * Two biology students are wanted as research assistants to study the manatee. The research will take place in Manaus, Brazil and will be for a minimum period of six months. For further information regarding enquiries and applications, please contact the York International Student Centre, Room 214, Bethune College, local -6262.
- * Free Copies of mimeographing are available in the Department of Philosophy. There are small quantities of several articles, and larger numbers, as shown, of others.

	Copies
Essays I, II, and III of Facts and Values by Charles L. Stevenson	130
Essay V, "Relativism and Nonrelativism in the Theory of Value", of the same book	175
"Brief Survey of the Ancient Greek Philosophers and their Contributions to the Modern World" by Giorgio de Santillana	140
"The Historical Explanation of Actions Reconsidered" by William Dray	23
"The Function of General Laws in History" by Carl G. Hempel	13
"Conflict and Values", Chapter 19 of The Nature of Values by Ethel M. Albert	27
"Fact and Change in American Values: a Culture-Historical Approach" by Ethel M. Albert	50
"Inner and Outer Space: Reflections on Womanhood" by Erik H. Erikson	80

Persons interested in obtaining either single copies or whole lots should come to either Room S663 or Room S660 of the Ross Building.

- * A meeting of the Council of Ontario University Staff Associations (OCUSA) will take place at the University of Toronto on Saturday, July 19 and Sunday, July 20. Any Y.U.S.A. members interested in attending should contact Dan Marz at local -2269.
- * Effective immediately, until the end of August, there will be no attendant on duty in the gatehouse on St. Lawrence Boulevard from 4:00 p.m. to midnight. This measure is taken in the interest of economy while staff are on vacation. Members of the community, needing information or advice at this location, can obtain the assistance of a member of the Department of Safety and Security Services through the Emergency Services Centre (local -3333) by using the external telephone provided.
