EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE -3333

GENERAL

Yesterday marked the official opening of the United Way Campaign at York University. Department Canvassers will be contacting members of the community within the next few days - generous donations will be appreciated.

United Way of Metropolitan Toronto

- * Ambassador Michael Comay will be visiting the York campus Thursday, October 7, where he will be participating in two lectures. At 10:00 a.m., Mr. Comay will give a talk to the Political Science 320 course (War and Peace in the Nuclear Age) entitled "International Terrorism" in Room M of the Curtis Lecture Halls. In a seminar sponsored by the Law and Society Program and the Division of Social Science, Mr. Comay will talk about "Peacekeeping in the Middle East" at 2:30 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge (Room S872) of the Ross Building. Currently a Research Fellow of the Leonard Davis Institute for International Relations, Jerusalem, he has held the posts of Ambassador to Canada, 1953-57, and Ambassador to the Court of St. James in London. All interested members of the community are invited to attend the two above lectures.
- * The York Progressive Conservative Association is sponsoring a raffle. Tickets, 50¢ each or 3/$1.00, will be on sale in Central Square. First prize is a Texas Instrument Calculator and consolation prizes are a free visit to the Men's Grooming Centre or a gift certificate from Margles.
- * Vanier Vegas will happen on Friday, October 22 from 8:00 p.m.-midnight in the Vanier College Dining Hall. Members of the community are invited to try their luck at Crown and Anchor, Roulette, Over and Under, Race Horse Wheels or Blackjack. The Junior Common Room will be licenced.
- * The International Student Centre has organized a weekend trip to Ottawa, October 15 to 17. The bus will leave York on October 15 at 3:30 p.m. Tickets, available from Room 214 of Bethune College, are $37.00 per person and include transportation, accommodation, two breakfasts and a tour of the city.
- * C.Y.S.F. is selling tickets and arranging transportation to the 7th Annual Oktoberfest being held on Friday, October 8 from 6:00 p.m.-1:00 a.m. at the International Centre (Airport and Derry Roads). Buses will leave from the Fine Arts Phase II Building at 5:30 p.m. that day (call C.Y.S.F. after 4:00 p.m. to confirm bus departure times). Student rate for advance tickets, available from the C.Y.S.F. Office in Central Square, are $2.75; bus tickets are $3.00 (refundable if there is little demand for buses).
- * Faculty, staff and students are reminded that the York University Libraries, through the science library, has access to over 60 data files in the sciences and social sciences that are available for on-line searching at a cost to the user for computer connect time, citations printed, and telephone transmission time. Some of the files represented are the complete "Eric" tapes, all the "Predicasts" files, "Sociological Abstracts", and "Psychological Abstracts". For further information regarding the size and type of file available, contact Brian Wilks, Science Librarian, at local -3927.
- * "Maximizing Learning in Small Groups" is the topic for a three-hour workshop being presented by the Development of Teaching Skills Program on Tuesday, October 19 from 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. in Room 148 of the Behavioural Science Building. To enrol, call Dr. Igor Kusyszyn at local -3297, enrollment is limited to 15 persons.
- * On behalf of the Development of Teaching Skills Program, Jack Canfield, founder of the New England Centre for Humanistic and Transpersonal Education, will lead a one-day workshop on "Effective Teaching in Small Groups Through Confluent Education" on Tuesday, November 2. Enrollment is limited to 25 persons; interested members of the community should call Dr. Igor Kusyszyn at local -3297.
- * The York Rugby Club is sponsoring an Oktoberfest bus trip to the Karlsburghaus in Kitchener on Wednesday, October 13. Buses will depart from the York campus at approximately 6:30-7:00 p.m. and will return the same evening. Tickets are $5.00 per person and include the bus trip and admission; they are available from Room 342, Bethune College and will be sold October 6-8 in Central Square from 10:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. (NOTE: Friday, October 8, last day to buy tickets). For further information call Doug at 661-0043.
- * A Religious Studies Colloquium will be held on Tuesday, October 12 at 4:00 p.m. in the Senior Common Room of Vanier College. Guest speaker is Professor Avihai of the Hebrew University who will give a talk entitled "The Earthly Jerusalem and the Heavenly Jerusalem in Rabbinic Thought". All interested members of the community are invited to attend.
- * Bookstore Hours - October 4 through December 17:
Monday to Thursday 9:30 a.m. - 7:30 p.m.
Friday 9:30 a.m. - 4:45 p.m.
Saturday Closed
- * Commencing the week of September 26th, the notice boards on the first floor of the Ross Building in the Central Square and in the east corridor of Curtis Lecture Hall, will be cleaned once a week on a rotating basis. Notices on the various Boards will indicate the day of the week that the Board will be cleaned. Advertisers are asked to not place notices on the walls throughout the buildings and are reminded that events which require more than one week's advertising will require multiple trips to these Notice Boards.
This change in routine is part of a general program to improve information flow to the student population and to improve the appearance of the University buildings. Policies jointly agreed to by the University and the C.Y.S.F. will also be displayed on Notice Boards. [J. Becker, Office of the Assistant Vice-President]

- * Glendon College has formed a Badminton Club which will play every Wednesday from 7:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m. in the Glendon Athletic Department gymnasium. Interested persons, with athletic memberships, are welcome; there will be an instructor on hand each evening. For further information call 487-6150.
- * The Vice-President (Administration) reports the following: The 1976/77 Series of Canada Savings Bonds will shortly go on sale for cash and instalment purchases at chartered banks and trust companies, and for cash through investment dealers. York University endorses acquisition of these bonds as a means of effecting systematic and profitable savings. In the past the University has made available the means to purchase CSB's on the instalment plan by payroll deductions. It has become increasingly expensive to provide this facility for the relatively few such purchases. As banks and trust companies offer an identical deduction service, it has been decided to discontinue it through the University's payroll and thereby effect a significant saving.
- * Writing and Research: A Workshop Series will be given by students and Fellows of Stong College and the faculty of various departments throughout the University. There will be eight sessions which will take place on Tuesdays (commencing October 5) from 4:00 p.m.-5:30 p.m. in Room 112, Stong College. Sessions will concentrate on experiences, problems, and the evaluation of varieties of writing in brief presentations, panel discussions and question/answer periods. A more intense discussion of particular matters of writing will be possible in small group workshops split up on occasion from larger sessions. All interested members of the community are welcome to attend.
- * N.A.R.C. (Nutrition, Activity, Relaxation and Counselling) is a weight reduction program for females for those who wish to lose 25 pounds or more. The program will be held on a weekly basis and application forms are now available from Room 302 of the Tait McKenzie Building or Room 255 in Winters College.

GENERAL

- * Cheques Requisitioned from the Accounting Office: The Office of the Chief Accountant requests the cooperation of the community in adhering to the practice of allowing 5 days for the preparation of cheques, including travel advances, petty cash reimbursements, etc. Requests to arrange special pickup should not be made unless absolutely necessary. While one of the prime functions of the Accounting Department is to serve the needs of the community, the accommodation of urgent requests on an exception basis results in the loss of productive time and additional workload for the staff.
- * The York Squash Club will hold a general meeting to discuss details of club activities and league teams on Monday, October 18 at 7:15 p.m. in the Fellows' Common Room of Vanier College. Two films will be shown and refreshments are provided.
- * Winters College is presenting a symposium on "The Press in Canada", supported by a grant from Canada Council, which will consider the general questions of press responsibility and accountability in its treatment, both by factual report and editorial comment, of matters of public concern, domestic and global. The conference will be held from the evening of Friday, October 15 through to the morning of Sunday, October 17. The format will range through panel discussion and individual talks, during which guest speakers can address questions from their audience. Among the contributors will be: Dan Cappon, David Crowley, Keith Davey, Ioan Davies, Marq de Villiers, Kildare Dobbs, John O'Neill, Sheena Patterson, Claude Ryan, John Saywell, Dorothy Smith, Denis Smith, H. Ian Macdonald, Brian McKenna, Garry Haslam, Garth Jowett, Bordon Spears, Walter Stewart, Anthony Westell and Barrie Zwicker. For further information, interested persons should contact D.E.S. Maxwell, Master, Winters College; telephone local -2202.
- * Faculty of Arts Minor Research Grants: The fund at the disposal of the Faculty of Arts Committee on Research, Grants and Scholarships is designed primarily to help faculty members to cover some of the out-of-pocket expenses connected with research projects. The Committee sits three times a year and will consider completed applications submitted by November 1, February 1 and April 1. For further information on the guidelines as well as application forms, contact Marla Chodak, Faculty of Arts, Room S935 of the Ross Building (telephone local -3189).
- * Women interested in improving their tutorial participation may join the Women's Workshop noon-hour group which focuses on more effective participation and the leadership of small group situations. For further information, interested persons should call Faye Wiesenberg at local -2519 or -2304.
- * The International Student Centre has organized a weekend trip to Ottawa, October 15 to 17. The bus will leave York on October 15 at 3:30 p.m. Tickets, available from Room 214 of Bethune College, are $37.00 per person and include transportation, accommodation, two breakfasts and a tour of the city.
- * Stong College is sponsoring a trip to Stratford on Saturday, October 16. The trip is $7.00 per person and includes the matinee performance of "Hamlet" (starring Richard Monnett and Pat Bentley Fisher), return bus fare and a buffet supper at Stong College. Tickets are available from Room 317, Stong College, between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.
- * A colour tour of the Blue Mountain and a hike through the scenic caves and the northern part of the Bruce Trail is taking place on Saturday, October 16. A bus will leave from #4 Assiniboine Road that day at 9:00 a.m. Tickets are $5.00 (available from Room N917, Ross Building until October 14) and include the trip and supper; participants should bring their own lunch.

ARCHIVES

GENERAL

- * A Memorial Service will be held on Wednesday, October 27, at 1:00 p.m. for Mr. Aubrey Barker, who passed away on the weekend. Mr. Barker, an employee of York for the past ten years, was a Coordinator for Building Services in the Department of Physical Plant. In lieu of flowers, friends and acquaintances are requested to donate to the Heart Fund (donations may be sent to either Fred Ash, Room C30, T.O.B., or Heather McKindless, Room C28, T.O.B.).
- * The Theatre Department is presenting "Theatre Costumes and Props" in the IDA Gallery of the Fine Arts Phase II Building from October 25 to 29. The exhibition will include original period costumes and some costumes designed by members of the Theatre Department.
- * Robert Stanfield, former leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, will give his reflections on Canada's present and future, next Thursday, October 28 at Glendon College. The meeting, to which all interested members of the community are invited, is the first in this year's series of public forums organized by Glendon's Canadian Studies Section. It will take place in Room 204 of York Hall at 2:00 p.m.
- * York University's Commission on Goals and Objectives, chaired by President Macdonald, has recently established a Task Force on the Physical and Cultural Ambiance of the York campus. The Task Force, Chaired by Dean Joseph Green (and including the following members: Professors Elio Costa, David Morley, Virginia Rock, Thelma McCormack, Henry Best, Ms. Jennifer Keene-Moore, Mr. Drew Dowling and Mrs. Yvonne Aziz as Secretary), has been charged with the responsibility to examine and to make recommendations to the Commission on: improvement of the main campus and its physical and social amenities (including access to the campus, mobility within the campus, landscaping improvements); the support and improvement of cultural facilities and activities used by both the University and surrounding community; and initiatives that the University could take in cooperation with local authorities in the planning and development of the surrounding area. The Task Force has begun to contact campus student, staff and faculty groups requesting responses in written or oral form at two days of meetings to take place in early November. All interested groups and individuals who will not be making specific presentations at the November meeting are invited to participate in a discussion scheduled for Tuesday, October 26 from 12:00 noon-2:00 p.m. in the Bear Pit, Central Square.
- * The I.O.D.E., provincial chapter of Ontario, is offering First and Second War Memorial Scholarships for Postgraduate Study tenable in the academic year of 1977-78 at any university within Canada, Great Britain or the Commonwealth. Under the First War Memorial, 3 scholarships are offered to enable students to carry on studies in History, Economics, Constitutional Government, or any subject vital to the interests of the Commonwealth. Under the Second War Memorial, 7 scholarships are offered for studies in the Humanities, or any subject vital to the interests of the Commonwealth. The deadline date for applications is November 15, 1976. Forms may be obtained from the Provincial Office, I.O.D.E., 168 Jackson Street West, Hamilton, Ontario L8P 1L9.
- * The Canada Council Small Research Grant application deadline has been changed to November 5, 1976.
- * People and Organizations in North America (POINT) in a United Way Agency which provides the means for individuals and groups to exchange information, share concerns, seek ways to meet community needs and establish programs as required, with emphasis on community development. The United Way works for all of us.
- * The York Gymnastics Club announces that there are still places available for boys - ages 6-13 - in the various programs. The recreational program meets once a week on Saturdays from 12:30 p.m.-2:00 p.m. and there are more advanced programs which meet two and three times per week. Sessions take place in the Upper Gym of the Tait McKenzie Building. For further information call Ross Hunt at local -2347 or Gene Denzel at local -3494.
- * "Creeps", the now famous Canadian play by David Freeman about cerebral palsy victims, will be presented from November 1-7 by the Dramatic Arts Program at Glendon College. It will be the first showing of the play in Toronto since the original Tarragon production of 1971, the year the play received the Chalmers Award for Best Canadian Play. Directing the Glendon College Production is Charles Northcote, a member of the original Tarragon cast. The play will be performed at 8:30 p.m. each evening in the New Dining Hall at Glendon with admission $3.00 per person (no reserved seats). For further information call 487-6137.
- * DROP-IN-DAYS will be taking place during the week of November 8-12, 1976. Members of the public will be invited to sit in on course lectures, attend special events which Faculties and Departments have organized, and generally participate in York University activities during the day and evening on those five days.
- * Members of the York University Staff Association are asked to note that for the October 25 pay date the retroactive increase will be consolidated together with the regular October 1976 new monthly salary rate. The increase was based on the projected retroactive amount of $950 or 10% of the annual salary, whichever was greater. Every effort has been made to implement this increase for the October pay date; inquiries should be directed, in writing, to the Payroll Department or to Personnel Services and they will be investigated accordingly.
- * Canada-Poland Exchange Scholarships 1977-78 are available for postgraduate Studies and research in all fields for 10-12 months of study to Canadian citizens who have obtained, or will obtain by the time the award is taken, at least the equivalent of a first Canadian university degree.
