- * Members of the Glendon community are asked to note that the swimming pool will be closed for cleaning from Monday, September 5 to Sunday, September 11, inclusive.
- * Parking: The meters have been removed from Ottawa Road, adjacent to the Temporary Office Building. This area will be used as a reserved lot for visitors and those persons requiring short-term parking. A ticket dispensing machine has been installed with an automatic gate, opposite the tennis courts. Effective September 6, drivers wishing to park in this area will be required to pay on an hourly basis with a fee of 50¢ for the first hour and 25¢ for each additional hour, to a maximum of $1.50 per day. Parking fees will be collected by an attendant located at the west end of the lot.
- * YORK TELEPHONE DIRECTORY: The 1977-78 York Telephone Directory will be issued by November 1, 1977. The cut-off date for any additions, deletions and/or changes will be September 9, 1977. This year's book will be a revision of the 1976-77 directory. Additions, deletions and/or changes must be submitted on a "Change of Listing" form to the Telecommunications Office, Room C5, Temporary Office Building; these forms can be obtained by calling local -2337 (please note that one form is required per listing). Special care should be taken when submitting listings for faculty who are cross-appointed; in these cases it may be advisable to liaise with the other department or college concerned. If changes have occurred in the Departmental Listing, the department is required to submit, on a separately typed sheet, the complete Departmental Listing as it is to appear in the new directory. If there are no changes, simply send a memo to that effect before the cut-off date. When submitting the new Departmental Listing (or no-change memo) departments are asked to advise Telecommunications of the number of York Directory inserts required. After September 9, 1977, any deletions, additions and/or changes should continue to be submitted on the "Change of Listing" form in order that the Switchboard files can be updated accordingly.
- * The York University Bus System will commence the Fall/Spring 1977/78 Operating Schedule on Tuesday, September 6, 1977. After September 9, 1977, any deletions, additions and/or changes should continue to be submitted on the "Change of Listing" form in order that the Switchboard files can be updated accordingly.
- * The York Catholic Community invites all interested persons to an open house at Father Gerry Tannam's apartment (#104, 8 Assiniboine Road) on Thursday, September 8 beginning at 7:00 p.m. For more information call Father Tannam at 661-5668 or 667-3673, or Jim Hathaway (Community Chairman) at 661-3812.
- * History/AS389, an Introduction to the Modern History of the Middle East, is a new and previously unannounced course being offered this Fall by the Faculty of Arts. The modern history as defined in the context of this course will cover the period between Napoleon's conquest of Egypt in 1798 and the emergence of the independent nation-states after World War II. There are no prerequisites for this course which is held on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays at 2:00 p.m. For further information and registration, please call the History Department, Faculty of Arts, at local -2238.
- * Information and application forms on the following programmes are now available from the Office of Research Administration, Room 237A, Administrative Studies Building (local -3777): Canada Council - Aid to the Humanities and Social Sciences; Canada Council - Leave Fellowships; Canada Council - Grants to Canadian Cultural Organizations for Visiting Foreign Artists, 1978-79; Canada Council - International Academic Exchanges Programmes, 1978-79; and National Research Council - Awards to University Staff 1978.
- * Children between the ages of 5 and 12 are invited to enroll in Creative Modern Dance classes, designed to encourage children to explore their movement potential in dance form. Classes in Classical Ballet will be offered to children above the age of 8; these students may choose to apply to prepare for Cecchetti Children's Examinations, Grade 1-4. In addition, the Dance Department is also offering classes in Folk Dance for children 10 and above on Wednesdays, and a second class of Creative Dance for Parents and Tots (ages 2-4) on Saturday mornings. Registration for any of the above classes will take place on September 17 between 10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon in the Lobby of the Fine Arts Phase II Building. For further information on class schedules and fees, interested persons should contact the Dance Department.
- * The York University Gymnastics Club is one of many sports clubs affiliated with York for the purpose of benefitting from the access to university facilities and obtaining the expertise of York staff members and coaches who run the Club. The Club offers training in gymnastics, either for recreation or leading to competition within the Ontario Gymnastics Federation, for youngsters from 6-16 years of age. For those over 16 years, there are special recreational programs. Commencing this September, the Club will conduct a variety of recreational, pre-competitive and competitive programs on an evening and Saturday basis at the Tait McKenzie Centre. Further information on the programs, dates, fees, and registration procedures may be obtained by calling Mrs. Alice Reppert, Environmental Studies, at local -3252.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that a University department has, surplus to its requirements, a model 47101-R2-2315, Sperry Rand ChekVeyer. Originally purchased in 1971, this equipment has been used in an automated slide storage capacity, but could be adapted for paper filing. Further information can be obtained from the Purchasing Department, local -2538, quoting file reference P/SD/45.

Eleven Scholarships are open for Canadian students and will be awarded late in November; applications must be in by October 25, 1977. These Scholarships are tenable at the University of Oxford, England, and the value is L3600 per year; they are granted for two years with the possibility of a third year. Two scholarships will be awarded to Ontario and selection is made on the basis of school and college records, literary and scholastic attainment. Candidates must be unmarried Canadian citizens or British subjects who have ordinarily been residents in Canada for at least five years by October 1977 (a scholarship is forfeited by marriage after election, or during the scholar's first year of residence); be at least 19 but under 25 years of age on October 1st, 1978; have achieved academic training sufficiently advanced to assure completion of a Bachelor's degree by October 1st, 1978. Further information and application forms may be obtained from the office of the General Secretary for the Rhodes Scholarships in Canada. P.O. Box 48, Toronto-Dominion Centre, Toronto M5K 1E6.
- * The Department of Safety & Security Services reports that smoking is prohibited in certain areas of the University's buildings to reduce the danger of fire, prevent damage to floors and furnishings, and in recognition of the rights of non-smokers. These areas include: classrooms, lecture rooms, teaching laboratories, theatres or areas used as theatres, storage areas, library reading and stack rooms, gymnasiums, shop and service areas where woodworking and painting are carried out, elevators, and any other areas where "No Smoking" signs are displayed. The Safety Officer, Room A6, Temporary Office Building (local -3351), will provide assistance in the interpretation or enforcement of these regulations, and will also advise on the fire and safety regulations governing potentially hazardous areas.
- * The Jewish Student Federation is sponsoring the following High Holiday Services:

EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE -3333

GENERAL

- * The appointment of the Honourable John P. Robarts, Q.C. as Chancellor of York University has been announced by Bertrand Gerstein, Chairman of the Board of Governors. Mr. Robarts succeeds the Hon. Walter L. Gordon, who has served as York's Chancellor since September 1973.
- * The first issue of YORK REPORTS appears today, with a statement by President Macdonald, and information about the University's financial position, the hiring suspension policy, and labour negotiations. Intended primarily for members of the central and academic administration, this new publication has been established to communicate information about new policy decisions and matters of policy currently under consideration. Copies are being mailed to all members of the university community who receive the York Gazette, and additional copies are available at Information York and at the Glendon Post Office. For further information contact the Communications Department, local -3441.
- * Members of the York community are asked to note that the SUMMER INTERCHANGE section of the York Bulletin will be discontinued as of the week of September 19, 1977.
- * 1978 Desk Calendar Supplies: Stationery Stores are now compiling the community requirements. Refer to the Stationery Stores Catalogue for the selection available, complete an individual Stationery Stores Requisition and forward same to Stores no later than October 15, 1977 for assured receipt before the new year commences. Members of the community are also asked not to include other stationery needs on calendar requisitions.
- * The Women's Workshop will be offering on-going weekly groups in Assertiveness Training, Leadership Skills, Sexuality and Health, and Consciousness-Raising for mature women, beginning the second week of October. Two marathon weekends, one in Assertiveness Training and one in Leadership Skills will also take place. Individual feminist counselling is available as well. Interested persons are asked to contact Barbara Brummitt, local -2519, Room 103, Behavioural Science Building.
- * The Department of Physical Plant wishes to advise the community that a new poster policy will go into effect in the Ross Building, Central Square and Curtis Lecture Halls on September 19, 1977. A notice to this effect has been distributed to all main users of these buildings and extra copies are available from Information York.
- * Visual Art from the Bible is a free course in painting according to the meaning of passages in the Bible, which will be held every Monday at 11:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon in Room 220, Stong College. The first meeting will be on Monday, September 19 (other hours may be arranged). Taught by Hannah Sandberg, Resident Artist of Stong College, this special course, open to all members of the York community, will involve a personal interpretation through her art of portions of the Old Testament, in particular Genesis, the Psalms, Isaiah, Ruth, and Micah. Her discussion of Biblical themes will be carried on through original paintings as well as slides. No previous experience is necessary. For further information, please call local -3062, or drop by Room 314, Stong College.
- * The Glendon College Counselling and Career Centre is beginning its Fall program by offering the following programs: Essay Writing Workshop, Effective Reading, Study Skills, Effective Listening, Notetaking in Lectures, Assertiveness Training, Values Clarification, Career Planning, Life Planning Skills, Public Speaking, Rational Emotive Thinking and Problem Solving, Bioenergetics, and a Mature Students Forum. For registration and further information, please call Mary Coakley at 487-6154/6180.
- * The Tennis Centre is now available for the use of York Athletic Membership Card holders and students. The courts can be booked through the Men's Control Room, Tait McKenzie Building (local -2243), and can be booked for one-hour periods between 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. and between 2:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. Reservation slips must be picked up from the Control Room before proceeding to the Tennis Court. Users should note that only approved tennis shoes are to be used on the courts.
- * History/AS389, an Introduction to the Modern History of the Middle East, is a new and previously unannounced course being offered this Fall by the Faculty of Arts. The modern history as defined in the context of this course will cover the period between Napoleon's conquest of Egypt in 1798 and the emergence of the independent nation-states after World War II. There are no prerequisites for this course which is held on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays at 2:00 p.m. For further information and registration, please call the History Department, Faculty of Arts, at local -2238.
- * Children between the ages of 5 and 12 are invited to enroll in Creative Modern Dance classes, designed to encourage children to explore their movement potential in dance form. Classes in Classical Ballet will be offered to children above the age of 8; these students may choose to apply to prepare for Cecchetti Children's Examinations, Grade 1-4. In addition, the Dance Department is also offering classes in Folk Dance for children 10 and above on Wednesdays, and a second class of Creative Dance for Parents and Tots (ages 2-4) on Saturday mornings. Registration for any of the above classes will take place on September 17 between 10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon in the Lobby of the Fine Arts Phase II Building. For further information on class schedules and fees, interested persons should contact the Dance Department.
- * A ride is urgently needed by a disabled individual every Tuesday and Thursday, beginning September 15, 1977 from the Royal York and Queensway area to and from York. This individual must be on the York campus by 11:00 a.m. and will provide parking permit and cost of gasoline in return for service. Car may need to be able to transport wheelchair. Interested persons are asked to call the Centre for Handicapped Students at local -3312.
- * Information and application forms on the following programmes are now available from the Office of Research Administration, Room 237A, Administrative Studies Building (local -3777): Canada Council - Aid to the Humanities and Social Sciences; Canada Council - Leave Fellowships; Canada Council - Grants to Canadian Cultural Organizations for Visiting Foreign Artists, 1978-79; Canada Council - International Academic Exchange Programmes, 1978-79; and National Research Council - Awards to University Staff 1978.

GENERAL (cont'd.)

- * Members of the community are asked to note that a University department has, surplus to its requirements, a model 47101-R2-2315, Sperry Rand ChekVeyer. Originally purchased in 1971, this equipment has been used in an automated slide storage capacity, but could be adapted for paper filing. EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE -3333

GENERAL

- * The Natural Science 165 "Human Anatomy for Artists" lecture, scheduled for Monday, September 19, will be held at the University of Toronto, Medical Sciences Building, Room 1128, instead of Room 312 of the Fine Arts Phase II Building. The lecture will commence at 7:00 p.m.
- * On Tuesday, September 20, the York Women's Centre and Marian Shepherd (who succeeds Jane B. Haynes as Adviser to the President on the Status of Women), will be holding an Open House from 4:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m. in Room 257 of Atkinson College for members of the York community interested in women's issues. Members from the Women's Centre, Women's Workshop, Harbinger, Women's Resource Centre, Osgoode Law Caucus, and Breakthrough will be available to discuss their programs as well as the activities planned for the current year. Marian Shepherd will give a talk about the work being done in her office. September 20 is also the official opening day for the Women's Centre; the Centre plans to be open Monday through Thursday from 12:00 noon-7:00 p.m. and welcomes all volunteers who can help staff the Office. Aside from informal presentations, refreshments will be served and a film screening will take place from 5:30 p.m.-7:00 p.m. in the adjacent student area.
- * The York Bookstore will close on Wednesday, September 21, at 5:00 p.m., as there are no evening classes scheduled for that day.
- * The Law and You, presented by the Centre for Continuing Education in cooperation with the Canadian Civil Liberties Association, is a course designed to help individuals and citizen groups become familiar with the Canadian legal system and the implication of the law with regard to their daily lives. This course is open to the general public and registration may be made for an entire Phase (12 sessions; $65/Phase I or II) or for single subjects (3 sessions; $18/subject). Phase I commences September 28 and will take place each Wednesday until December 14; Phase II commences January 18 and will be held each Wednesday until April 5. For further information, call the Centre at local -2525.
- * The Centre for Special Services for Handicapped Students reports that a ride is required for a disabled individual each Wednesday and Friday (commencing September 21) from the Avenue Road and Davenport Road area to and from the York campus, to attend a class that runs from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Persons interested in being of assistance should call the Centre at 667-3312.
- * York's Film Library will be presenting the twenty-six episodes from the World at War series commencing September 26. The screenings will be daily at 12:00 noon in the Film Library which is located in Room 114 of the Scott Library. All interested members of the community are invited to attend.
- * York's Music Department will present the opening concert of South Indian Music on Wednesday, September 28, from 4:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m. in Room F of the Curtis Lecture Halls. The performance, which is part of the orientation program for new students, will feature vocalist Jon Higgins, Trichy Sankaran on the mrdangam, and Gale Goldberg on the tambura. Admission to this concert is free.
- * The Film and TV Information Office has provided Stong College with a grant of $350 for a selection of film and television periodicals to be located in the Stong College Library. Rick Harris, who is heading the newly-formed office, observed that the grant will enable the college to develop a core-collection of important media-based journals for use by students and faculty. Friday September 23 - Sunday September 25, 1977

GENERAL

- * The Division of Social Science is presenting a seminar series for 1977-78 entitled "Distinguished Speakers in the Social Sciences". The first seminar will take place on Friday, September 30, at 4:00 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge (Room S872) of the Ross Building and will feature Professor Tom Bottomore. Professor Bottomore is Professor of Sociology at the University of Sussex, England. His books include Elites and Society, Classes in Modern Society, Critics of Society, Radical Thought in North America, Marxist Sociology, and Sociology as Social Criticism. All interested members of the community are invited to attend the seminar.
- * The Faculty of Environmental Studies is initiating a series of debates aimed at providing a public forum for the discussion of issues relevant to the University community and to the community at large. Additionally, the debate series is intended to involve the University community in a transdisciplinary learning experience consistent with the philosophy of the Faculty of Environmental Studies. The first debate will take place on Thursday, October 6, at 1:00 p.m. in Room 503 of the Scott Library. The Resolution: "This house resolves that the only rational course for Quebec and Canada is separation"; Speakers for the Affirmative: Michel Chevalier and Eric Trist (Faculty of Environmental Studies); Speakers for the Negative: H. Ian Macdonald (York President) and Peter Cummings (Osgoode Hall Law School); Moderator: Rodger Schwass (Dean, Faculty of Environmental Studies). Voting will be done by the audience and the debate will conclude with an open panel discussion.
- * The Department of Communications needs good cartoons, line drawings, and campus photographs for its publications. Interested persons should contact the Department in Room S802, Ross Building, or call 667-3441 for further information.
- * "Japanese Art in an International Style" a lecture by Professor Richard Perry (Associate Professor in the Visual Arts Department) will be given at the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre on Saturday, September 24 from 2:45 p.m.-4:15 p.m. The lecture is part of a three-day seminar organized in conjunction with the opening of the "Japan/Canada Exhibition of Prints" at the Centre.
- * Interested members of the community are asked to note that the York Table Tennis Club Meeting, scheduled for 6:00 p.m. this evening will take place in the Judo Room of the Tait McKenzie Building instead of the Bethune Dining Hall.
- * Faculty of Arts Minor Research Grants: The fund at the disposal of the Faculty of Arts Committee on Research, Grants and Scholarships is designed primarily to help faculty members to cover some of the out-of-pocket expenses connected with research projects. The Committee sits three times a year and will consider completed applications submitted by November 1, February 1 and April 1. For further information on the guidelines, as well as application forms, contact either Departmental/Divisional Chairmen or the Faculty of Arts (Marla Chodak, Room S935, Ross Building; telephone local -3189).
- * Tickets are now on sale for the Second Annual York Rugby Excursion to Oktoberfest in Kitchener-Waterloo. The trip will be made on Tuesday, October 11, and the cost will be $5.00 for the bus trip and admission to the Karlsberg Haus. The Excursion is open to all members of the community and tickets may be obtained by calling Doug (661-0043) or Chris (661-5250). After September 27, tickets will be on sale in Central Square, Ross Building, between 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.
