ATTENTION: GRADUATING STUDENTS

The schedule of 1978 Spring Convocation ceremonies appears below. Students planning to graduate this Spring should note the following information.

1. You should consult your Faculty Calendar if you are in doubt about the academic requirements for graduation. Any enquiries about eligibility should be directed to the appropriate Faculty's Office of Student Programmes (O.S.P.), or the Graduate Records Office if you are a graduate student.
2. If you are graduating from the Faculty of Arts, Fine Arts, Glendon College, Education or Law, your name is added automatically to the graduation list and you will be sent an invitation in May. Invitations are mailed by the College Master's Office (for students in the Faculty of Arts) and by the Student Programmes Office (for all other students).
3. If you are graduating from the Faculty of Graduate Studies, Administrative Studies, Science, or Atkinson College, you must indicate your intention to graduate before an invitation is mailed. Consult your Calendar or O.S.P. for details.
4. If you are registered in an Honours (4-year) Programme but wish to graduate at the end of the third year (i.e., fifteen credits), you must apply for this transfer by a specified deadline. Consult your Calendar or O.S.P.
5. Your name will appear on both the diploma and the Convocation programme in the same form that it appears on your Study List. You should notify the Office of Student Programmes (or the Graduate Record Office) if you wish to change the recorded version of your name. Such a change should be registered as soon as possible.
6. By resolution of the University Senate, degrees shall be withheld from otherwise-eligible students who owe (a) outstanding tuition fees, (b) outstanding library fines, and/or (c) overdue library books beyond a period of sixty days.

EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE -3333

GENERAL

- * The York Yeomen Basketball team, ranked second in the nation, heads into a series of semi-final and final competition for the Ontario Universities Athletic Association titles this week. This evening, at 8:15 p.m., the Yeomen play against the University of Ottawa in the O.U.A.A. east section semi-final at the Tait McKenzie Gymnasium. Admission is $1.50 and advance tickets are available from Room 302, Tait McKenzie Building.
- * Stong College and the York Women's Centre are planning a week of special activities Monday, March 6 through Thursday, March 9 to celebrate International Women's Week. Events will include: "Voices from the Battles for Women's Rights (readings from past and present)"; Poetry Readings featuring York faculty and students from the Creative Writing Program; Films On and By Women; and a special benefit performance by W.O. Mitchell. The performance by York's Writer-in-Residence, W.O. Mitchell, will take place on Tuesday, March 7, at 8:00 p.m. in the Burton Auditorium. Since this event is to benefit Nellie's Hostel, tickets are priced at $5.00 for general admission and $2.00 for students. Tickets will be available from the York Women's Centre (Room 106, Stong; local -3484), the Creative Writing Program (Room 133, Atkinson; local -3764), and Office for the Status of Women at York (Room N917, Ross; local -3561).
- * The Faculty of Fine Arts is opening its doors to the Toronto community for a ten-day festival of music, dance, theatre, film and art - the Arts of March Festival - from March 8-18. All events are free and will be listed in forthcoming issues of the Bulletin. A reception and information booth will be manned daily from 9:00 a.m.-9:00 p.m. in the lobby of the Fine Arts Phase II Building for all visitors seeking information and directions. Schedules of open classes in dance, theatre, music, film and visual arts will be available at the booth. For advance information, or to have a complete schedule of events mailed, call the Office of the Dean, Faculty of Fine Arts, at local -3237.
- * The York Yeomen Hockey team will meet their cross-town rivals, the University of Toronto Blues, in the Ontario Universities Athletic Association (O.U.A.A.) eastern division final this evening at 8:00 p.m. in the Varsity Arena. Advance tickets may be purchased from Room 302 of the Tait McKenzie Building.
- * Urban Studies Coordinator: The Urban Studies Program, an interdisciplinary General Honours Program in the Division of Social Science, Faculty of Arts, is seeking a Coordinator from full-time faculty members presently at York. The appointment, which normally is for a term of three years, will commence July 1, 1978. The position is filled by a regular faculty appointment and carries with it an administrative stipend. The Urban Studies Program is now in its 10th year of operation. Its aim is to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of urban society and with a range of related research and problem-solving skills. It draws on the teaching and research resources of ten core faculty and about twenty other faculty who offer Departmental courses as Urban Studies options. Applications should be submitted to the Search Committee of the Urban Studies Program, Room N718 of the Ross Building. Enquiries are cordially invited and should be directed to Professor Michael Goldrick at local -6271 (located in N718, Ross).
- * As of March 1, 1978, all Athletic Memberships for use of the Tait McKenzie Facilities will be half price.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that all activities in the Ice Arena on Wednesday, March 1, will be cancelled due to the painting of lines.
- * Members of the community are asked to note the following change to the York Telephone Directory: Michael Mouritsen can no longer be reached at local -2226; extensions to dial are -2328 and -3642
