EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE -3333

GENERAL

- * Choreographer and dancer, Terrill Maguire, presents a selection of her dances from the past three years at the York University Fine Arts on Markham centre (596 Markham Street) on Saturday, January 27 at 8:00 p.m. and on Sunday, January 28 at 2:00 p.m. A faculty member at York, Ms. Maguire has spent the last five years teaching choreography and dance technique for the Dance Department while performing across the country from Halifax to Vancouver, including the 1976 Cultural Olympics in Montreal and a tour of Ontario in 1977. Admission to the concert is free.
- * "Encounter Canada: Northern Images" is the theme of a Vanier College two-day conference which will be held January 23 and 24. During the conference, the general public will be invited to attend a direct encounter with Native People (particularly those who inhabit the land North of 50) who will discuss their different lifestyles and the cultural and social issues which concern them. Throughout the week of January 22-26, a display of photographs and Native Art on loan from the McMichael Collection, York University and several private collectors will be on display in the Vanier Junior Common Room, as well as the Galleries in Founders and Winters (the latter open from 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, and 10:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m. on Thursday). Brochures and further information may be obtained from the Master's Office, Room 254, Vanier College.
- * York University and Centennial College are jointly sponsoring "A Day for Mature Women Students" which will be held on Saturday, February 10 from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. on the Glendon College campus. The conference and workshops are designed to provide mature women students with the opportunity to meet their peers. The three key themes will be: legal issues particularly pertinent to women; careers for mature women graduates; and, the psychological difficulties associated with the mature student role. Doris Anderson, former editor of Chatelaine and novelist, will give a talk on "A Survival Kit for Women, 1979". Resource people in the workshops include: Elaine Cooper, adult education specialist and career development consultant; Renate Krakauer, Senior Program Consultant, Humber College (former Atkinson student); and, Frances Smookler, lawyer with own law firm (also former Atkinson student). Child care will be available; for further information and to register, interested persons can call either 487-6180 or 487-6154.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that the McLaughlin Chamber Series originally scheduled for Wednesday, January 24, has been postponed to Wednesday, February 14 at 8:00 p.m. in the McLaughlin Music Room (016). The Series will feature Alexander Tumanov (baritone) performing the music of Moussorgsky, Shostakovich, Prokofiev and Stravinsky, as well as James MacDonald (horn) performing the music of Saint-Saëns and Beethoven.
- * Winters College is presenting John McGahern on Monday, January 22 in the College's Senior Common Room. Mr. McGahern will read from his works at 8:00 p.m.; all interested persons welcome.
- * The Program in Creative Writing, in cooperation with Calumet College and the Canada Council, is presenting a series of three appearances by Canadian playwrights. Each will take place at 1:00 p.m. in the Calumet College Common Room (located in Atkinson College) as follows:

| | |
|------------|----------------|
| January 22 | George Walker |
| January 23 | Erica Ritter |
| January 25 | Sharon Pollock |

 Each playwright will be available for discussion during and after the reading; all members of the community are welcome to attend.
- * The Department of National Defence is offering a fellowship and scholarship program which is available to Canadian citizens. Candidates must, before the closing date of the competition, hold a Ph.D. degree or equivalent level of knowledge or experience in a field considered adequate by the Selection Committee for a fellowship; scholarship candidates must hold an Honours Bachelor's degree or its equivalent. Further information and submission of application forms: Awards Officer, Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada, 151 Slater Street, Ottawa K1P 5N1. Closing date for completed applications is February 1, 1979.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that spaces are still available for the second term of the York Children's Dance Classes. Classes are offered in Creative Modern Dance (ages 5 and up), Classical Ballet (ages 8 and up), Jazz (ages 11 and up), and Creative Dance for Parents and Tots (for ages 2 1/2 to 4). Classes began January 9; for further information call locals -6423, -3243.
- * Scott Library, Room 102 (located behind Reserves) has been made available to all physically and visually handicapped students as a study area. The room is equipped with tape recorders as well as an electric typewriter and several work tables. For security reasons, the room is locked and the key is made available to students in the Reserve Library.
- * The two campus branches to the Toronto-Dominion Bank are offering a new service - Direct Fees Payment. Students can bring their University billing letter to either branch and pay the bill directly, thus eliminating the necessity of lining up twice: at the bank and at the Student Accounts Office.
- * P&M volunteers are required for Executive; nominations are to be called in to Michele Young at local -2286 no later than 5:00 p.m., Monday, January 22, 1979.

GENERAL

- * The Faculty of Administrative Studies will be presenting its second lecture in the Dean's Colloquium Series on Tuesday, January 30 at 12:10 p.m. in the Senate Chamber (Room S915) of the Ross Building. Gordon Osbaldeston, Secretary of the Board of Economic Development Ministers, will give a talk entitled "Economic Development Policies". This second session of the series will discuss such important topics as: the role of the Board of Economic Development; and, towards a better fit between government policies and productivity in the private sector. All interested members of the community are invited to attend and bring lunches; coffee will be served.
- * The fifth anniversary issue of the Canadian Theatre Review contains an article by Ken Gass, founder and former artistic director of Toronto's Factory Theatre Lab. In addition, this issue of CTR includes a look at three Saskatchewan theatre companies; a tribute by playwright Rex Deverell to Globe founder Sue Kramer; and a financial and philosophical look at three new theatre buildings in Toronto and how they were managed in times of financial restraint. Since its first issue in January 1974, CTR has published thousands of pages of documentation, argument and analysis of theatre in Canada and theatre world-wide from a Canadian perspective. It was founded and is still edited by Don Rubin and published under the aegis of York University. CTR is available at bookstores across Canada and abroad.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that Pleasure Skating will be cancelled from 9:00 p.m. - 11:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 27 due to a Varsity Hockey Game.

GENERAL

- * The second annual 'Or 'Emet Lecture, sponsored by the Osgoode Hall Law School, will be held on Friday, February 2 at 4:00 p.m. in the Law School's Moot Court Room. Thomas L. Shaffer, former Dean of Law at Notre Dame University, has been invited to give a talk entitled "Moral Discourse in the Practice of Law". The 'Or 'Emet Fund was established to promote, through public discussion, research and scholarly writing, public and professional appreciation of the significance of religion, ethics, culture and history in the development of the legal system. Professor Shaffer is the author of Lawyers, Law Students, and People and On Making Lawyers More Human. Interested members of the community are invited to attend.
- * An Art Tour to New York, February 2-4, is available to members of the York community. The weekend tour will view the collections at the Cloisters, MOMA, Guggenheim and Whitney Museums. For further details, contact Helen Brown at local -2301.
- * The Centre for Continuing Education will present "The Abused Child" on February 9, as the next topic in a series of one-day Family Life Workshops. The sessions will be held from 9:15 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. Robert P. Bates, M.D., F.R.C.P.(C), Assistant Professor of Paediatrics, Paediatrician and Director, Child Abuse Programme at the Hospital for Sick Children, will discuss "The Violent Cycle". Mrs. Patricia Carson, Vice-Principal, Board of Education for the City of Toronto, will discuss an educator's approach to living with child abuse. For further information and to register for "The Abused Child", contact the Centre for Continuing Education at 667-2502.
- * The Counselling and Development Centre offers a wide variety of interpersonal growth and special interest groups including: assertiveness training; couples relationships; building and maintaining relationships; self development; growth through movement; relaxation/yoga/meditation; mature women; coping with academic stresses; and Gurdjieff-Ouspensky consciousness expansion. These groups are open to faculty, staff and students. For further information contact Charlene Denzel at local -2304 or Chris Holmes at local -2305.
- * Students wishing to learn more about the Bachelor of Education programme at York University are invited to attend special information meetings to be held on Tuesday, February 6 and Thursday, February 8 at 5:00 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge (Room S869, Ross Building); and Wednesday, February 7 at 5:00 p.m. in the Fireside Room, 3rd Floor, York Hall, Glendon College. Applications and further information are available from the Office of Student Programmes, Faculty of Education, Room N802, Ross Building or the Education Office, Room 228, York Hall, Glendon College
- * Pianist, Mark Yolleck will play the first of three Sunday concerts in the Friends of Music 1979 Recital Series on February 4 at 3:00 p.m. at York University Fine Arts on Markham (596 Markham Street in Mirvish Village). A musician of wide interests, Mark Yolleck holds a degree in musicology and teaches courses on opera. His program includes the Two Rhapsodies of Brahms, Op. 79, the F-major Sonata of Mozart, Kv. 332, and Chopin's F-minor Ballade, Andante Spianato and Grand Polonaise. A donation of $2.50 at the door for the scholarship fund for York music students will be appreciated. Mark Yolleck will return to this series on March 18 to accompany Thomas Schwartz in Schubert's Schöne Müllerin. The next Friends of Music recital is on Friday, February 23 at 8:15 p.m. and features pianist Kuei Pin Yeo. For further information on the Friends of Music Recital Series, interested persons should call local -3246.
- * Interested members of the York community should note that a limited number of spaces in 100 and 200-level courses will be available to continuing students through the Faculty of Arts Winter/Summer Session. Classes for the Winter/Summer session begin February 5, 1979. Students interested in these courses should drop into the Student Programs Office, Faculty of Arts no later than February 1, 1979.
- * The York University Choir is making beautiful music again this term after a very rewarding fall program highlighted by a Christmas Concert. Choir Director Nick Kaethler has put together a challenging repertoire for this term. Preparations for a spring concert are now under way. Membership in the York University Choir is open to any interested member of the York community, including those with limited musical experience. Rehearsals are held each Thursday from 5:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m. in Room 112, Stong College.
- * Stong and Bethune Colleges will present another of their joint Multicultural Arts Series on Tuesday, February 13 from 7:30-9:30 p.m. in the Stong College Junior Common Room. There will be a slide show of ancient churches, monuments, scenery and miniatures with a discussion of the show; a display of early Armenian embroidery and photography; Armenian Queens pageant in colourful costumes with running commentary; folk dancing and a musical ensemble. For further information please contact Marina Dorna, Glendon College (487-6181); Steve Otto, Music Department (667-3654); or Olga Cirak (667-3061). There is no admission charge and interested members of the community are invited to attend.
- * Interested members of the York community are asked to note that there will be a physical fitness testing on Monday, February 5 at 4:00 p.m. in the Fitness Lab (basement) of the Tait McKenzie Building. For further information call local -2351.
- * The Theatre Department will perform Soviet satirist Nikolai Erdman's "The Mandate", February 5 through 9 at 8:00 p.m. with matinees on February 6 and 8 at 2:00 p.m. in the Atkinson College Studio. The production will also run February 15 through 17 at 8:00 p.m. at York University Fine Arts on Markham (596 Markham Street). Director Alan Richardson, visiting assistant professor in the Theatre Department, became involved in the new movement in Canadian theatre as dramaturge for the Factory Theatre Lab in 1974. He was one of the founders of Theatre Compact. Featured in this production of "The Mandate" are York's third year acting students. Admission is free to all performances and tickets may be reserved by calling 667-2370.
