

Thursday March 1 - Sunday March 4, 1979

EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE - 3333

GENERAL

- * Glendon College is opening its doors to interested members of the community, high school students, alumni and leading professionals on Saturday, March 3 for a day of information sessions on the relevance of a university education. Glendon will give present, past and future students a chance to talk to highly-placed managers, lawyers translators, civil servants and other professionals; academics at the college will also give talks on various aspects of the liberal arts to give interested persons a sense of what a university education is about. Stephen Lewis, former leader of the N.D.P. party of Ontario, will be the keynote speaker. His talk at 7:00 p.m., will address itself to the future of youth in Canadian society, especially in terms of education and employment. Among the many athletic and cultural events planned is a concert by the York Winds at 12:30 p.m. Admission to all events is free; all interested persons are invited to attend, but space is limited so advance registration is required. For further information on Glendon's Open House, call 487-6211.
- * A selection of items from the vast York University Collection of art, selected by A.G.Y.U. curator Michael Greenwood, will officially open at York University Fine Arts on Markham (596 Markham Street) on Saturday, March 10 from 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. The exhibition will include sculpture, wall-hangings, modern Canadian paintings, nineteenth century French posters, photographs, Inuit prints and Inuit sculpture. Among the artists whose work will be shown are Jack Chambers, Albert Franck, Gershon Iskowitz, Kenneth Lochhead, Rita Letendre, Jock Macdonald, John Meredith, Guido Molinari, Christopher Pratt, William Ronald, Harold Town, Joyce Wieland, Jules Cheret, Eugene Grasset, Jean Raffaelli, Tony Urquhart and Robert Downing. The exhibition will run from March 7-April 1; the Inuit artwork will be on display until March 18. Concurrent exhibitions at YUFAM include a show by York's Faculty of Environmental Studies (March 7-18; upper galleries); work by York University Design students (March 21-April 1; lower gallery). Gallery hours at YUFAM are from 12:00 noon-6:00 p.m., Wednesday through Sunday.
- * York University and the Department of Physical Education and Athletics are hosting the first annual Snolympics for the Retarded, a winter sports day which will be held on the York campus on Thursday, March 8. Approximately seventy-five children, aged 12-19, from Metro Toronto's schools for the mentally retarded will participate in snow-shoeing, outdoor soccer, cross country skiing and hockey-skating events. In addition to a competitive spirit, there will also be clinics for those children who do not feel confident in a particular activity. York President H. Ian Macdonald and Chairman and Director of the Department of Physical Education and Athletics Frank Cosentino will act as hockey coaches for this special day; more than 25 students and faculty at York will be on hand to help with the different events. Harold Minden, Professor of Psychology and Physical Education, and his students, have been responsible for the organization of Snolympics. In case of inclement weather, the events will be moved indoors.
- * The 8th Annual Urban Studies Symposium will be held on Friday, March 9 from 9:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. on the York campus. This annual interdisciplinary symposium focuses attention on the city; the program seeks to bring together people from York and from the Toronto community at large. This year's theme - "The City and The Camera" - offers papers and presentation by speakers involved with photography and film in the context of the city. Participants will deal with documentary, artistic, social and political issues. Registration will take place at 9:30 a.m. in the Senate Chamber (Room S915) of the Ross Building and the fee for the symposium will be $10.00 (payable in advance; deadline is March 5). For further information interested persons may call Professor Nelson Wiseman at local -6272.
- * Approximately 16,000 serial publications in York's Libraries' collections are now listed on six microfiche sheets. Staff or faculty members who have access to a microfiche reader and who would like a departmental copy of the serials list free of charge, can obtain one from Karen Cassell (local -2261) in the Scott Library. The list includes the journal holdings of the Scott, Steacie Science, Government Documents/Administrative Studies, Law Libraries and the Leslie Frost Library on the Glendon campus, as well as many smaller collections. It is updated and reissued quarterly in March, June, September and December.
- * Members of the community are asked to note the following cancellations:
 - Pleasure Skating - cancelled, 9:00 p.m.-11:00 p.m., Saturday, March 3
 - Pick-Up Hockey - cancelled, 1:00 p.m.- 2:00 p.m., Thursday, March 8
- * Len Peterson, Toronto playwright and presently Writer-in-Residence at Concordia University (Montreal), will give a talk entitled "The Gentle Art of Getting into Trouble: a Dramatist's Confessions" on Monday, March 12 at 4:00 p.m. in the Senior Common Room of McLaughlin College. Mr. Peterson's visit is sponsored by the Department of English, the Faculty of Arts and the Playwrights Co-op. His works include The Great Hunger and Almight Voice; he won the A.C.T.R.A. award in 1973 for The Trouble with Giants.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that the meeting of the Council of Faculty of Graduate Studies scheduled for the month of March has been cancelled due to insufficient business. The next meeting of the Council will be held on April 5, 1979.
- * The Physical Education Department is offering Skating lessons commencing March 14; for further information call local -2351.
- * Mr. George Schlubbier, fellow of Stong College and independent businessman, will lead a discussion entitled "Getting Work: The Art and Science of Successful Employment" on Wednesday, March 21 from 12:00 noon-2:00 p.m. in Sylvester's (Room 201, Stong College). From the businessman's point of view of student needs, this discussion will centre on how to obtain employment.

GENERAL

- * York Christian Fellowship is sponsoring the visit of Malcolm Muggeridge, author and journalist, to the York campus on Friday, March 16 at 12:00 noon. He will give a talk entitled "Integrity: Moral and Intellectual" in Burton Auditorium. Admission is free and all interested members of the community are welcome to attend.
- * "The Roots of Disunity", will feature a discussion by York Professor David Bell of his recently completed book on Canadian Political Environment. As part of the McLaughlin Luncheon Series, the discussion will be held on Tuesday, March 20 at 12:00 noon in the College's Senior Common Room. The book will be published this fall by McClelland and Stewart in the "Canada in Transition" series edited by Ed Dosman and David Bell, and partially supported by McLaughlin College.
- * Canada's foremost guitarist, Liona Boyd, will perform in Burton Auditorium on Thursday, March 29 at 8:30 p.m. Liona Boyd has toured in several European countries and has concertized in most of the major cities in North and South America; she is a frequent performer on radio and television; and, her records have sold with unprecedented success in both the classical and popular markets. Tickets for this concert are now on sale and are $6.50 for the general public and $4.50 for students. For information call the Burton Box Office at local -2370.
- * "The Family: A Tradition in Transition" is the theme of the 7th Annual Conference on the Family to be held at York April 26, 27 and 28. Sponsored by the Centre for Continuing Education, the conference will offer a wide selection of workshops to professionals, students and the general public. Keynote speakers will be Dr. Vivian M. Rakoff, Head of the Department of Psychiatry at Sunnybrook Medical Centre, and Professor M.S. McCarthy, of York's Faculty of Education. For further information and a brochure, contact the Centre at local -2525.
- * Income Tax Deduction -1978 T4 Slip: "The University Payroll Office is required to deduct income tax at source on taxable earnings in accordance with rates established by Revenue Canada, Taxation Guidelines. These rates are converted and implemented into computer tax deduction tables issued to employers by Revenue Canada, Taxation. Unfortunately, the rates and corresponding tables are sometimes inconsistent with final tax legislation resulting in differences between tax deducted at source and tax payable calculated on an individual's T1-Income Tax Return. The Payroll Office cannot be held accountable for such variations and should not be contacted in these matters."
(Peter Fehr, Payroll Manager)
- * Approximately 16,000 serial publications in York's Libraries' collection are now listed on six microfiche sheets. Staff or faculty members who have access to a microfiche reader and who would like a departmental copy of the serials list free of charge, can obtain one from Karen Cassell (-2261) in the Scott Library. The list includes the journal holdings of the Scott, Steacie Science, Government Documents/Administrative Studies, Law Libraries and the Leslie Frost Library on the Glendon campus, as well as many smaller collections. It is updated and reissued quarterly in March, June, September and December.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that the date for the first day of classes for the 1979/80 session for the Faculties of Arts, Science, Fine Arts, Education and Glendon College has been changed from Monday, September 17, 1979 to Monday, September 10, 1979.
- * Education Deduction Certificates (T2202A) covering the 1978 calendar year will be mailed to eligible students on Wednesday, March 21, 1979. For information concerning eligibility for such a certificate and other income tax aspects, consult Revenue Canada's brochure Income Tax and the Student which is available at Information York. The Student Programs Offices must have current addresses and postal codes. The certificates will be computer-produced and requests for certificates prior to the March 21st mailing cannot be processed; no personal pick-up is possible. Enquiries will be accepted only after March 26, and should be directed to the Registration Office, Room C017 of the Steacie Science Library.
- * The York University Choir is presenting an evening of Music and Meditation, Friday, March 16 from 8:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m. in the Scott Religious Centre. The performance will consist of songs, madrigals, poetry, scripture readings and classical guitar.

GENERAL

- * Global Food Insecurity is the theme for a one-day conference which will be held on Saturday, March 24 from 9:15 a.m.-7:30 p.m. in McLaughlin College's Dining Hall. Focussing on some aspects of the problems - future harvest failures, regional shortages, excessive population growth and disparities in production, distribution and consumption - the conference will attempt to deal with issues in a balanced and analytical way. For further information and to register for this conference, interested members of the community may contact the McLaughlin College Forum, Room 127 of the College (telephone local -3821).
- * The Office of the Master and the Atkinson College Student Association are jointly presenting a one-day conference on "Attitudes Toward Ageing, Dying and Death" on Saturday, April 7 from 10:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m. in the Moot Court Room of the Osgoode Hall Law School. Topics will include: Children and Death; Ageism in the Mass Media; Effects on Death Anxiety of Civil Disturbances in Northern Ireland; and, Life After Death. Interested members of the community are invited to attend; for further information, call either local -6434 or -6436.
- * Canada's foremost guitarist, Liona Boyd, will perform in Burton Auditorium on Thursday, March 29 at 8:30 p.m. Liona Boyd has toured in several European countries and performed concerts in most of the major cities in North and South America; she is a frequent performer on radio and television; and, her records have sold with unprecedented success in both the classical and popular markets. Tickets for this concert are now on sale and are $6.50 for the general public and $4.50 for students. For information call the Burton Box Office at local -2370.
- * Liz Lochhead, writer-in-residence at Glendon College during the first Canada Council/Scottish Arts Council Writers' Exchange, and John Oughton, York staff member, will give a poetry reading in the Senior Common Room, York Hall, on Saturday, March 31 at 8:00 p.m.; admission is $1.00. Ms. Lochhead is the author of Memo for Spring and Islands as well as many poems in anthologies and magazines; last summer she toured Scotland in a collaboratively written review titled "Sugar and Spite". John Oughton has published a first book, Taking Tree Trains, and contributed poems, articles and photographs to many periodicals; an editor at York, he has also been an editor of Waves magazine for three years.
- * Bookstore Hours:

April 16-21	Monday, Tuesday Wednesday-Friday Saturday	9:30 a.m.-7:30 p.m. closed for annual inventory closed
April 23-28	Monday-Thursday Friday Saturday	9:30 a.m.-8:30 p.m. 9:30 a.m.-4:45 p.m. closed
- * The Lucille Herbert Memorial Scholarship exists to assist any good undergraduate student in English who proposes to travel to Europe, especially in France, and who has completed at least four courses in English. Travel might be specifically for study, perhaps at a summer school, but in fact there are no restrictions on the reasons for travel. Closing date for application is April 6, 1979. For information and forms, write to Professor D.R. Ewen, Chairman, English Department.
- * In the interest of ensuring prompt arrival of required and recommended textbooks, members of the community are asked to: use only official Bookstore Request forms when submitting textbook requisitions to the Bookstore (available from local -3811); insure that all information on these forms is accurate, complete and legible (incomplete/illegible requisitions will be returned to originator for clarification); and, to forward requisitions to the Bookstore prior to the following deadlines - (1) for Summer courses, no later than March 19 (2) Fall courses, no later than April 15 [for French books and those in foreign languages] and May 15 [all other textbooks] (3) Winter courses, no later than October 25.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that the date for the first day of classes for the 1979/80 session for the Faculties of Arts, Science, Fine Arts, Education and Glendon College has been changed from Monday, September 17, 1979 to Monday, September 10, 1979.
- * Approximately 16,000 serial publications in York's Libraries' collections are now listed on six microfiche sheets. Staff or faculty members who have access to a microfiche reader and who would like a departmental copy of the serials list free of charge, can obtain one from Karen Cassell (-2261) in the Scott Library. The list includes the journal holdings of the Scott, Steacie Science, Government Documents/Administrative Studies, Law Libraries and the Leslie Frost Library on the Glendon campus, as well as many smaller collections. It is updated and reissued quarterly in March, June, September and December.
- * The Atkinson College Acropolis Dining Lounge will not be open for evening service on Wednesday, March 21, only.
- * In an attempt to return to publishers all returnable, unsold 1978-79 textbooks in time to meet publishers' deadlines, the Bookstore requests that faculty members inform the Bookstore as soon as possible (and no later than March 21) which titles are to be used for the first time in courses during March and April. Such titles will be kept in stock while other unsold textbooks will be returned to publishers for credit.

Interested members of the community are invited to attend; for further information, call either local -6434 or -6436.
- * The Lucille Herbert Memorial Scholarship exists to assist any good undergraduate student in English who proposes to travel to Europe, especially in France, and who has completed at least four courses in English. Travel might be specifically for study, perhaps at a summer school, but in fact there are no restrictions on the reasons for travel. Closing date for applications is April 6, 1979. For information and forms, write to Professor D.R. Ewen, Chairman, English Department.
- * McLaughlin College and the Association for Early Childhood Education (Ontario) are sponsoring a conference - "Children...A Public Policy Issue" - in recognition of the International Year of the Child. The conference will take place April 6 and 7 and its purpose is to provide an opportunity to exchange ideas, information, concerns and to evolve strategies for joint action on behalf of all children. The opening address will be given by John Hayes, Director of Family and Children's Services, Kirkland Lake. Dinner speaker is Dr. Marilyn Smith, Executive Director, National Association for the Education of Young Children, Philadelphia. Dr. Naomi Rae-Grant, Professor of Psychology at Western University, will also speak. The conference is open to the public and will be held from 12:00 noon, April 6 to 12:00 noon, April 7; for further information and to register, call local -3821.
- * The York Ice Arena closes for the season at 11:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 8.
