GENERAL

- * York's Department of Theatre is presenting the first Toronto production of "En Pieces Detachees" by Michel Tremblay, directed by Alan Richardson. Performances will be in the Atkinson Studio on November 8 and 9 (at 8:00 p.m.) and November 10 (1:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.). The play has been translated into English by Alan Van Meer. Admission is free, but seating is limited; tickets may be picked up from the Burton Box Office on weekdays between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.
- * Members of the community are asked to note the following cancellations:
  - Ice Arena - Thursday, November 1: pick-up hockey and pleasure skating cancelled
  - Saturday, November 3: pleasure skating cancelled
  - Tait McKenzie Pool - Saturday, November 10: recreation swim cancelled
- * The Department of Personnel Services wishes to provide advance notice that University offices will be closed for the period of December 24, 1979, to January 1, 1980, inclusive. Offices will reopen for business on January 2, 1980. For dates of the commencement of classes following the Christmas Break, please consult the appropriate Faculty calendar.
- * On Tuesday, October 30 at 12:15 p.m. in the Athletic Centre, all runners and joggers (faculty, staff, students) who are interested in group running and related activities will have a meeting (bring running gear). Participants are invited to try out the new indoor track and discussing a schedule for group runs, periodic time trials, etc. For further information call Mike Goldrick (Room S656, Ross Building) at local -2409.
- * The meeting of the Council of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, scheduled for Thursday, November 1, has been cancelled. The next meeting of the Council will be held on Thursday, December 6.
- * McLaughlin College has recently opened its Information Centre which is located in Room 102 (just inside the main entrance) of the College. The office will be staffed by students from 9:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. daily and will act as a message clearing centre when necessary; it also houses the new College Library.
- * Applications for the position of Academic Advisor at Stong College are being received by Master Hédi Bouraoui. Applicants must be faculty members at York who have a knowledge of and belief in the College system; a current CV should accompany a letter of application, along with a statement of the applicant's perception of Stong, the College System and the Tutorial Program. Information on duties, remuneration, etc., are available from Olga Cirak, Room 317 of the College. The successful candidate will assume office July 1, 1980. The term of appointment is normally three years; it should be noted that mid-term sabbatical leaves may not be taken. The closing date for receipt of applications is Friday, November 30; correspondence should be directed to Hédi A. Bouraoui, Room 314A, Stong College.
- * As of October 1, 1979, Health Services' new hours for allergy injections are as follows:
  - Monday through Friday 9:30 a.m.-3:00 p.m.
- * Tjøstolv Songedal, area representative for the Association of Norwegian Students Abroad (ANSA) and a Fine Arts student at York, would like to know of any Norwegian students currently at York. He is also interested in contact with students from other Scandinavian countries; telephone 745-0690.

The Red Cross, a partner in the United Way, is internationally recognized for consistent dedication. In Metro Toronto the Red Cross operates fourteen distinct programs which bring life, hope and help to those in need. Pledge cards/donations should be returned to the Development Office, Room 200H of the Administrative Studies Building.

- * A supply of North York Yellow Pages is now available (June 1979 issue) from Physical Plant Stores; call local -3200 for delivery.

EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE -3333

GENERAL

- * The Faculty of Fine Arts will present the world premiere of Marion Andre's holocaust play "The Sand", November 12-17 in Burton Auditorium. A faculty member of York's Theatre Department, Marion Andre is artistic director of Toronto's Theatre Plus and former director of the Saidye Bronfman Centre in Montreal. Andre will direct this student production of his semi-autobiographical work. Admission is free and tickets may be reserved by calling the Burton Auditorium Box Office at local -2370 (from 11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.).
- * There are spaces still available in the Stress Reduction Through Exercise and Relaxation Program which meets each Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 12:10 p.m.-12:40 p.m. in the new Track and Field Centre. Athletic memberships are required to participate. For further information call Dr. V. Wilson at local -3217.
- * On Tuesday, October 30 at 12:15 p.m. in the Athletic Centre, all runners and joggers (faculty, staff, students) who are interested in group running and related activities will have a meeting (bring running gear). Participants are invited to try out the new indoor track and discussing a schedule for group runs, periodic time trials, etc. For further information call Mike Goldrick (Room S656, Ross Building) at local -2409.

Where a decimal fraction of a unit is used, a zero should always be placed before the decimal marker: e.g. 0.45 kg (not .45 kg). This practice draws attention to the decimal marker and helps avoid errors of scale.

- * The Faculty of Fine Arts is presenting a New York trip, December 13-17, to enable interested members of the community a chance to explore galleries, concerts, plays and more. Student rates start at $92.00 which includes hotel accommodation and return transportation by chartered bus. Full information with regard to show tickets and gallery exhibitions will be available. An information meeting will take place on Monday, October 29 at 4:00 p.m. in the Faculty Common Room (2nd floor) of the Fine Arts Phase II Building. Further information and reservations are now available from Janice Roy, Room 219 of the Fine Arts Building; local -3615.
- * Eleven Rhodes Scholarships are now open for Canadian students and will be awarded late in November. Applications must be in by October 25, 1979. These Scholarships are tenable at the University of Oxford, England, and the value is £3,600 per year; they are granted for two years with the possibility of a third year. Scholars may follow courses of study of their own choice and are required to go to Oxford in October of 1980. For further information and application forms, write to the office of the General Secretary for the Rhodes Scholarships in Canada, P.O. Box 48, Toronto-Dominion Centre, Toronto M5K 1E6.

Thousands of adults, seniors, children and teens across Metro are active participants in the myriad of rehabilitative, social, or preventive programs provided by United Way group service organizations. The Boys' and Girls' Club of Downtown Toronto, Eastview Neighbourhood Community Centre - Jewish Community Centre of Toronto, St. Christopher House, Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. are just a few examples. "Give it more than a thought - give generously."

GENERAL

- * Helen Allen, journalist and originator of the newspaper feature column "Today's Child", will receive an honorary Doctor of Laws degree and deliver the Convocation Address at the Fall Convocation Ceremony on Thursday, November 1, where more than 700 students will receive their degrees. Miss Allen's newspaper feature began in the Toronto Telegram more than fifteen years ago and has led to the adoption of more than 10,000 Ontario children, many of mixed race or with physical disabilities, or of ages that were not readily adoptable. The CFTO-TV program "The Family Finder", was launched in 1969 at Miss Allen's suggestion. She was made an Officer of the Order of Canada in 1971, and was recently cited by the Ontario legislature as "a most distinguished citizen" of the province. The Convocation Ceremony will take place in the main gymnasium of the Tait McKenzie Building at 8:00 p.m.
  - * President Macdonald invites members of the community to submit black and white line drawings, suitable for reproduction as a Christmas card, on the theme "The York Scene". Fifty dollars will be paid for the sketch chosen and offers may be made for others suitable for the University's archives. Work submitted should include the artist's name and return address and may be delivered to the Office of the President, Room S949 of the Ross Building, before November 9, 1979.
  - * The new Metropolitan Toronto Track and Field Centre located on campus between parking lots C and D commenced operations on October 15. Until October 31, only the outdoor track and field facilities will be available for use. From November 1 to April 30 each year, the indoor field house will be available. The York community is entitled to use these facilities between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Monday through Friday by showing their Athletic Membership or Student Validation Card. From 3:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. daily and from 9:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. on Saturdays, the facility is available by paying a fee of $1.00 per use or by purchasing an indoor or outdoor season's pass at a cost of $35.00 each.
  - * The meeting of the Council of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, scheduled for Thursday, November 1, has been cancelled. The next meeting of the Council will be held on Thursday, December 6.
  - * The Department of Anthropology and the East Asian Studies Program are jointly presenting Dr. Fei Ziaotong, Deputy Director of the Central Institute of Nationalities, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, who will give a public lecture on Monday, October 29 at 3:00 p.m. in Room K of the Curtis Lecture Halls. Dr. Ziaotong will give a talk entitled "National Minorities in China - Integration or Autonomy?".
  - * The York Women's Centre is offering a self defence course which will run for six weeks, commencing Monday, October 29. The classes will take place from 3:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m. and the fee is $25.00 with a $10.00 deposit required. For further information and to register, drop by the Women's Centre, Room 102 of the Behavioural Science Building.
  - * The Faculty of Arts invites full-time members to apply for the 1980-81 Faculty of Arts Fellowship Program. This program is designed to allow individuals to complete a research project by reducing their teaching responsibilities for one academic year. Applications must be submitted by October 31, 1979. For further information, guidelines and applications forms, contact Jean Levy, Room S927 of the Ross Building, at telephone local -3191.
  - * Application forms and further research for the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council Small Grants Fall Competition are now available from the Office of Research Administration (Room 237A, Administrative Studies Building; telephone local -3777). O.R.A. requires six copies of the completed form and supporting documents by October 31, 1979.
  - * The following telephone numbers are now in operation for the Seneca Program at York:
Early Childhood Education Program - 6776/7
Social Services Program - 6778/9
The secretary for the Program, Devi Tanaja, can be reached at local -6778.
  - * The Department of Computer Services extends an invitation to members of the York community to attend their annual Open House which will take place on Saturday, October 27 from 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. The tour will leave from Room T103 of the Steacie Science Library and participants will be given the opportunity to see the various aspects of the computing services available at York. Refreshments will be provided.
  - * The Counselling and Development Centre is offering a variety of groups this term which are open to staff, faculty and students. They include: Mature Women's Group; Single Parent's Group; Assertive Training Group; Therapy Group; and, SCAMP (for those wanting to gain more control over their behaviour). For further information on any of the above, call Charlene Denzel (local -2304) or Rosemary Clewes (local -3213).
- A $50.00 contribution to the United Way will provide a shut-in senior citizen with a hot meal for a month (Monday through Friday basis) delivered by a friendly volunteer.
"Give it more than a thought - give generously with a single contribution or through payroll deduction."

GENERAL

- * The Osgoode Hall Law School will mark the recent acquisition of a major collection of Canadian legal materials at an official ceremony in the School's library on Thursday, October 18 at 4:00 p.m. The collection is named in honour of the late Charles Ernest Smalley-Baker, Q.C., a noted Canadian lawyer and Osgoode's Dean of Law from 1949-1958. The Smalley-Baker Collection was made possible by private donations and grants to the Osgoode Excellence Campaign. Distinguished members of the legal fraternity, donors and special guests at the ceremony will also witness the opening of the Smalley-Baker Room, a commemorative study room in the library containing memorabilia and exhibits honouring Mr. Smalley-Baker.
- * The Association of Commonwealth Universities is compiling information for inclusion in its List of Academic Visitors to the United Kingdom for the issue covering the period November 15, 1979 to March 31, 1980. Any member of faculty or administrative staff who will be in the U.K. during this time is requested to provide the Communications Department with the following information: beginning and ending date of the visit to the U.K.; and, full postal address while there. If the address is a university address, the name of the department or college should be included. Send information to the Communications Department, Room S802, Ross Building; telephone local -3441.

Giving together the United Way is the most efficient way. A single campaign for 100 agencies insures comprehensive health and welfare services in our communities every day of the year. Each United Way dollar can do more because volunteers raise the funds and work at the agencies. "Give it more than a thought - give generously."

- * Faculty of Arts Research Grants: The fund at the disposal of the Faculty of Arts Committee on Research, Grants and Scholarships is designed primarily to help faculty members to cover some of the out-of-pocket expenses connected with research projects. The Committee sits three times a year and will consider completed applications submitted by November 1. For further information, guidelines and application forms, contact Jean Levy (Room S927, Ross Building) at local -3191.
- * Professor Bernard Fonlon, former Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Cameroons, Chairman of African Literature at the University of Yaounde, will be at Stong College on Friday, October 19. The purpose of his visit to York is to explore our facilities and offerings and to look into the possibility of creating an Exchange and Cooperation Program, between York and Yaounde. Members of the community interested in meeting Professor Fonlon are asked to contact Olga Cirak at local -3061.
- * York's second annual Science Olympics for high school students will be held on the York campus, Saturday, October 27. This year some fifty high school teams will participate in the challenge and excitement of working against the clock and each other in a variety of science-related events including "Hookes Cannon", "Electronic Turtle", "Paper Glider" and "Musical Invention". In addition to the scheduled team events, a program of science demonstrations will be presented by high school teachers at the close of the competition. Prizes will be awarded to the top three teams in each event, and there is a presentation of a trophy to the team which is the overall winner. Dr. Keith Asdrige, associate professor of Physics, is the coordinator of the Science Olympics.
- * Applications for the position of Academic Advisor at Stong College are being received by Master Hédi Bouraoui. Applicants must be faculty members at York who have a knowledge of and belief in the College system; a current CV should accompany a letter of application, along with a statement of the applicant's perception of Stong, the College System and the Tutorial Program. Information on duties, remuneration, etc., are available from Olga Cirak, Room 317 of the College. The successful candidate will assume office July 1, 1980. The term of appointment is normally three years; it should be noted that mid-term sabbatical leaves may not be taken. The closing date for receipt of applications is Friday, November 30; correspondence should be directed to Hédi A. Bouraoui, Room 314A, Stong College.

When symbols consist of letters, there is always a full space between the quantity and the symbols: e.g. 45 kg (not 45kg). However, when the first character of a symbol is not a letter, no space is left: e.g. 32°C (not 32° or 32 °C); or 42°12'45" (not 42 ° 12'45").

- * Vanier College announces auditions for this year's production, "Abelard and Heloise", by Ronald Millar. The play will take place on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 7-9 in the Vanier Dining Hall. Auditions are set for Wednesday, October 24 from 7:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m.; Thursday, October 25 from 7:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m.; Tuesday, October 30 from 1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m.; and Thursday, November 1 from 1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m. All auditions will take place in the Vanier Music Room (Room 029). Interested members of the University are asked to call to book a time (local -2339) or drop by Room 237, Vanier. Participation is not necessarily restricted to Vanier students. There is also ample opportunity for involvement in the production for those who are not interested in acting.

GENERAL

- * The Honourable Pauline M. McGibbon will officiate at the dedication of The True Davidson Reading Room in the Scott Library on Tuesday, October 23 at 4:00 p.m. This ceremony coincides with a campaign to raise funds for The True Davidson Collection of Canadian Literature. When True Davidson died last year she left her books and papers to York to be used to further Canadian Studies in English and French; the campaign was initiated to add to that collection so that it may become an important centre for Canadian Studies. The patrons of the collection include: The Honourable Pauline M. McGibbon; York University President H. Ian Macdonald; York University Chancellor, the Honourable John P. Roberts; the Honourable Flora MacDonal; Doris Anderson; Beth Appeldoorn; Isabel Bassett; Willis L. Blair; Pauline Jewett; William Kilbourn; Margaret Laurence; Mavor Moore; Edith Patterson Morrow; and, Emily Smith. The coordinators are Clara Thomas and Edith Fowke, Professors in the English Department. They hope to raise a total of $50,000 to be used to purchase books, manuscripts, journals and microfilm in the areas of literature and history; the aim is to make the collection a major resource for all scholars in the Canadian field. Contributions by individuals or community groups for the fund should be made out to: The True Davidson Collection, York University and sent to the Office of Development. For further information contact Clara Thomas at 489-5421 or 667-3217, or Edith Fowke at 757-2984 or 667-3708.
- * President Macdonald invites members of the community to submit black and white line drawings, suitable for reproduction as a Christmas card, on the theme "The York Scene". Fifty dollars will be paid for the sketch chosen and offers may be made for others suitable for the University's archives. Work submitted should include the artist's name and return address and may be delivered to the Office of the President, Room S949 of the Ross Building, before November 9, 1979.
- * The second annual meeting of the Ontario Association of Sociology and Anthropology will be held on the York campus October 19 and 20. The OASA was founded to bring Ontario Sociologists and Anthropologists from all walks of life together and thereby to facilitate intellectual interchange. The meetings will take place in Winters College (full listing of speakers and workshops will be published later this week in the Bulletin) and further information is available from C. Gilmour at local -2559.
- * The York Women's Centre will sponsor readings and discussions by novelists Margaret Laurence and Margaret Atwood, October 23 and 30 respectively. Writer June Callwood will introduce the authors who will speak in Room L of the Curtis Lecture Halls at 1:00 p.m. Both novelists are contributing their time to help expand the fund for the True Davidson Collection of Canadian Literature, which was recently established by friends of Miss Davidson. The readings and discussions are open to the public and there will be a $1.00 admission charge with proceeds going to the True Davidson Collection Fund.
- * Vanier and Winters Colleges and the Faculty of Science are presenting "The Evolution of Life", a public symposium which will take place October 25 and 26 on the York campus. Current theories of the origin and evolution of living organisms will be reviewed and Darwin's theory of evolution by natural selection will provide the framework for talks on various aspects of the evolutionary processes. Speakers will discuss the emergence of replicating molecules, cells, plants and animals and our present understanding of human evolution. The audience is encouraged to ask questions following each presentation. For further information, telephone local -2202/-2204.
- * Stong College will sponsor a "Conference on Cultural Pluralism and the Canadian Unity" which will be held in the College's Junior Common Room on October 26 and 27. The conference will be opened by President H. Ian Macdonald. Topics to be explored include: Ethnocultural Groups and the Problems of Unity; A Humane Look at the Unity Question; A Highly Successfully Cultural Pluralism: 2000 Years of Roman Christianity; On Multiculturalism as a Limit of Canadian Life; and, Canada: From a Baroque Model to the Association of Minorities. For further information contact Olga Cirak at local -3061.
- * The Faculty of Fine Arts is presenting a New York trip, December 13-17, to enable interested members of the community a change to explore galleries, concerts, plays and more. Student rates start at $92.00 which includes hotel accommodation and return transportation by chartered bus. Full information with regard to show tickets and gallery exhibitions will be available. An information meeting will take place on Monday, October 29 at 4:00 p.m. in the Faculty Common Room (2nd floor) of the Fine Arts Phase II Building. Further information and reservations are now available from Janice Roy, Room 219 of the Fine Arts Building; local -3615.
- * McLaughlin College has recently opened its Information Centre which is located in Room 102 (just inside the main entrance) of the College. The office will be staffed by students from 9:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. daily and will act as a message clearing centre when necessary; it also houses the new College Library.
- * The York Women's Centre is offering a self defence course which will run for six weeks, commencing Monday, October 29. The classes will take place from 3:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m. and the fee is $25.00 with a $10.00 deposit required. For further information and to register, drop by the Women's Centre, Room 102 of the Behavioural Science Building.

Other dates for the York Winds recitals are December 6, January 16 and April 9; these concerts will feature guest artists.
- * The Osgoode Hall Law School will mark the recent acquisition of a major collection of Canadian legal materials at an official ceremony in the School's library on Thursday, October 18 at 4:00 p.m. The collection is named in honour of the late Charles Ernest Smalley-Baker, Q.C., a noted Canadian lawyer and Osgoode's Dean of Law from 1949-1958. The Smalley-Baker Collection was made possible by private donations and grants to the Osgoode Excellence Campaign. Distinguished members of the legal fraternity, donors and special guests at the ceremony will also witness the opening of the Smalley-Baker Room, a commemorative study room in the library containing memorabilia and exhibits honouring Mr. Smalley-Baker.
- * The Faculty of Fine Arts in association with York Publications will present a Literary Evening on Thursday, October 18 at 8:00 p.m. at YUFAM (596 Markham Street). Professors Hedi Bouraoui and Miriam Waddington of the English Department will read from their new books of poetry, and popular fiction writer Clark Blaise, of the Humanities Department, will deliver selections from his current book, Lunar Attractions. "The Sand", a new play by Marion Andre, artistic director of Toronto's Theatre Plus, will have its first staged reading at this evening by students of the Theatre Department (these students will be involved in a full production of this play, under the direction of Mr. Andre, next month at the York campus). There will be no admission charge.
- * "Rhubarb! Rhubarb!", Buddies and Bad Times Theatre Company's annual workshop production of scripts by new playwrights, will feature six new Canadian plays at YUFAM (596 Markham Street) October 19-21 and October 26-28 at 8:00 p.m. Admission to "Rhubarb! Rhubarb!" is $2.00.
- * The Glendon Team Marathon will be held on October 13 at 12:30 p.m., starting at the old residence, Glendon College. The Faculty team, which has done very well in the past, is short this year of runners, and any interested persons are asked to contact Peter Jensen at 487-6150. Each runner is required to complete approximately two miles of the route.
- * The first issue of World Press Digest is now on the newsstands and the publishers are distributing it to faculty members at Canadian universities free of charge. Any members of the York faculty who do not wish to receive this magazine are asked to call the Communications Department at local -3441.

Every single day in Metro, people take time to save a life at one of the over 1000 blood donor clinics which are operated by volunteers from the Metro Toronto Region Red Cross - a partner in the United Way. "Give it more than a thought. Give generously."

Application forms and further research for the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council Small Grants Fall Competition are now available from the Office of Research Administration (Room 237A, Administrative Studies Building; telephone local -3777). O.R.A. requires six copies of the completed form and supporting documents by October 30th, 1979.

ART GALLERIES, DISPLAYS

- * An exhibition of 23 recent ceramic sculptures by David Gilhooly will be shown at the A.G.Y.U. (Room N145, Ross Building) until October 5. The exhibition will include a number of recent additions to the already celebrated "Frog World", an elaborate satirical mythology that wickedly and humourously mirrors its human counterparts. The gallery is open from 10:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m., weekdays.
- * Paintings by Peter Legris and Victoria Sharp as well as photographs by Ara Rose Parker will be on display at the IDA Gallery in the Fine Arts Phase II Building until October 10. The official opening will be October 2 at 5:30 p.m. with a video presentation by Ara Parker and Victoria Sharp. Regular hours are from 12:00 noon-5:00 p.m., Mondays, and from 8:45 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Tuesday through Friday.
- * Roma Interrotta, the internationally acclaimed architectural exhibition, is showing at YUFAM (596 Markham Street) October 3-14. This appearance will be the only Canadian showing prior to the display's departure to Zurich, Switzerland. This exhibition is presented in association with the University of Toronto School of Architecture, under the sponsorship of the Italian Cultural Institute, Toronto, in cooperation with Ballenford Architectural Books. The official opening is on Friday, October 5 from 6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m.; regular gallery hours are from 12:00 noon-6:00 p.m., Wednesday through Sunday.
- * Three Toronto artists, Jamie Lyons, Andrea Bolley and Tonie Leshyk, will exhibit multi-media works on paper at the Glendon Gallery, October 5-28. The gallery is open from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., weekdays, and from 2:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m., Sundays.
