GENERAL

- * The Honourable Mr. Justice Thomas R. Berger, who was commissioner of the Mackenzie Valley Pipeline Inquiry, will deliver the Edgar McInnis Lecture on Tuesday, November 20 at 3:00 p.m. in the Moot Court Room of the Osgoode Hall Law School. A well-known jurist and public servant, Mr. Berger was appointed a judge of the Supreme Court of British Columbia in 1971. As a lawyer he has set many legal precedents acting for the province's Indians and in areas of family law and pollution control. His public lecture will be entitled "Diversity and Dissent in Canada." The Edgar McInnis Lectures, established in 1976 by York's Faculty of Arts, are named in honour of the late Edgar W. McInnis, the first academic appointment to faculty in 1960.
- * The Psychology Department, Faculty of Arts, is establishing the W.B. Templeton Honours Thesis Award to honour the memory of this devoted teacher and scholar. Members of the University community are invited to contribute to this fund. Cheques should be made out to York University (W.B. Templeton Trust Fund) and sent to Professor M.J. Steinbach, Room 278 of Atkinson College. A receipt, for tax purposes, will be issued.
- * Publishers of the World Press Digest are distributing their new monthly magazine to faculty members at Canadian universities free of charge. The second issue, dated November 1979 will arrive on campus this week. Members of York faculty who do not wish to receive complimentary copies of this publication each month are asked to call the Communications Department at local -3441.
- * Recreation York will be offering a Fitness Testing on Monday, December 3 at 4:00 p.m. Registration is in Room 302 of the Tait McKenzie Building; for further information call local -2351.
- * Stong College is sponsoring a two part conference on The State of the School to be held on February 7 (theme: Vandalism and Violence. Why?) and February 14 (theme: Community College or University? The Critical Decision). Members of the community interested in presenting a position paper dealing with either segment of the conference are asked to contact either Richard T. Linley (local -3315) or Olga Cirak (local -3061) as soon as possible in order to have the program finalized before the Christmas break.
- * The Fall issue of Waves magazine (Volume 8, Number 1) is now available at the York Bookstore. It features French poets and short-story writers as well as many new writers in English.
- * Members of the community are asked to note the following changes to the York Telephone Directory:

Miss G. Hardy, Reference, Scott Library	-3428
Miss G. Heggie, Reference, Scott Library	-3428
- * The Arboretum Committee is planting a number of different species of trees between the Steacie Science Library and the Curtis Lecture Halls. This is a heavy traffic area and the trees will provide variety and coloration.

GENERAL

- * The Department of Dance invites poster design submissions for its 1980 Spring Concert. The size of the poster is to be 18 inches wide by 24 inches long and the image will be contained in a square measuring 17 inches. The remainder of the space will contain typographic information. The image can be reproduced in two colours. Submissions (in their finished form) should be made to size and camera-ready; they will be judged by the Concert Committee. An honorarium of $25.00 will be awarded to the artist. The Concert Committee reserves the right to display any design submitted, and originals will remain the property of the artist. Entry forms are available from the Dance Department office until December 7; the deadline for completed artwork is January 11, 1980.
- * The York Chess Club invites all interested members of the community to participate in their activities. The Club meets each Friday from 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. in Room 030A of Winters College; beginners are welcome. For further information call Pat Ralston at local -2204.
- * Richard Schechner, artistic director of New York's avant garde Performance Group, will give a public lecture on "The Post-Modern Theatre" in the Burton Auditorium on Wednesday, November 28 at 8:00 p.m. Mr. Schechner will be the guest of the Theatre Department from November 26 to December 1, and will lead a series of master classes on voice and breathing using Asian techniques. Tickets for his public lecture are $3.50 for the general public, $3.00 for staff/faculty and $2.50 for students. For information call the Burton Box Office at local -2370.
- * The Faculty of Fine Arts is presenting Le Groupe de la Place Royale, a company of seven dancers trained in both modern and classical styles, on Friday, November 23 at 8:00 p.m. in Burton Auditorium. Founded in 1966 Le Groupe is under the co-direction of Peter Boneham (co-founder of the company) and Jean-Pierre Perrault (one of Canada's leading choreographers). Tickets for the ensemble's performance are $6.50 (general public), $5.50 (staff/faculty) and $4.50 (students) and reservations may be made by calling the Burton Box Office at local -2370.
- * Publishers of the World Press Digest are distributing their new monthly magazine to faculty members at Canadian universities free of charge. The second issue, dated November 1979 will arrive on campus this week. Members of York faculty who do not wish to receive complimentary copies of this publication each month are asked to call the Communications Department at local -3441.
- * As part of the celebration in this year's Children's Book Festival (November 17-24), the York Bookstore is planning the following events:
 - The film "Asterix & Cleopatra" will be shown in the Northwest Bearpit (near Toronto-Dominion Bank) at 12:00 noon November 19 through 23 inclusive.
 - Drawings, created by the children of the University's Day Care Centre, will be on display in the Bookstore's Children's Book section.
 In addition, special prices will be in effect on children's books during this week.
- * Copies of the November/December issue of the Ontario Universities Program for Instructional Development Newsletter have been sent to full-time faculty members and librarians. Part-time instructors and graduate students may obtain a copy of this newsletter from the Teaching Skills Program which is located in Room S104 of the Ross Building; telephone local -3220.
- * The Calumet College General Meeting is offering the position of Student Liaison Officer; this is an employee position and the main job responsibilities will be to coordinate student affairs. The salary is negotiable and applicants must be available commencing January 1, 1980 for a full-time sessional position. Deadline for the receipt of resumes is December 7, 1979. Resumes should be directed to Calumet College Hiring Committee, c/o Room 120, Atkinson College Phase I. For further information call local -3487.
- * A Faculty/Staff 2-mile Fun-Run will be held at the indoor track of the Track and Field Centre at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 22. A time will be taken for all competitors. Call Dave Smith (local -2379) for further information.

The United Way Campaign has officially ended on campus and the University is far behind the anticipated goal of at least reaching last year's total. Anyone still having a pledge card is asked to please fill it in and forward to the Development Office, Room 200H, Administrative Studies Building. "Give it more than a thought...the United Way works for all of us".
