SPECIAL COMMUNITY BULLETIN

DROP-IN-DAYS

Once again, York will welcome members of the Public to Drop-in-Days from Monday, February 4 to Saturday, February 9, 1980.

Drop-in-Days was a great success in November 1976 and it's coming back in an expanded form next week. For the six days and evenings, York is offering the public the opportunity to actually participate in the life of the University, to sit in on regular lectures, and to become involved with the many social and cultural activities on campus.

As Drop-in-Days students, members of the Toronto community will be able to experience first hand the vitality of the University, the excellence of teaching, and the breadth and depth of the courses offered, while obtaining a better understanding of York University and its role in today's society.

Both the York and Glendon campuses are participating in this event. Every faculty and academic department at York is involved in Drop-in-Days, and many are presenting special lectures, seminars and other events for the week, in addition to opening regular classes to accommodate visitors.

Drop-in-Days brochures have been distributed to individuals, numerous associations, community centres, schools and libraries throughout Metro, and the entire project is being publicized by the media.

To register for courses, members of the public are being asked to call 667-2200. Callers can choose from a list of available lectures and a space will be reserved for them.

Upon arrival at the York or Glendon campuses, visitors should go to the reception area where they will be able to pick up an information kit containing a detailed calendar of Drop-in-Days events and "admit-to-lecture" card(s).

RECEPTION AND REGISTRATION AREA IS LOCATED IN THE SECOND FLOOR FOYER OF THE ROSS BUILDING, NORTH TOWER, ON THE YORK CAMPUS, AND IN ROOM C105, YORK HALL, ON THE GLENDON CAMPUS.

Many Drop-in-Days guests will be wearing red and white lapel buttons that say "Student for a Day", and carrying information folders. To the unfamiliar visitor, the campus is a confusing place and it's easy to get lost. The cooperation from all staff, students and faculty next week in welcoming Drop-in-Days students and helping them to reach their destinations on campus will be appreciated.

HELP MAKE THIS A SUCCESS!
