- * York's Theatre Department presents its production of Sir John Vanbrugh's "The Confederacy", a restoration comedy of manners involving marital intrigue, lust and scandal, from March 12 through 16 in the Atkinson College Studio. Directed by faculty member Alan Richardson, the production features third and fourth year theatre students. Performances of "The Confederacy" are Wednesday, March 12 through Friday, March 14 at 8:00 p.m.; Saturday, March 15 at 2:30 p.m. and 8:00 p.m.; and Sunday, March 16 at 2:00 p.m. Tickets are free and may be reserved by calling the Box Office at local -2370.
- * A conference on Tax and Income Redistribution will be held on Friday, March 28 and Saturday, March 29 at Osgoode Hall Law School. The conference is sponsored by the Canadian Taxation, National Council of Welfare, Osgoode Hall Law School. The purpose of this conference is to explore the effect of the tax system on the redistribution of income and its usefulness as a policy instrument to achieve that objective. There is no registration fee and interested persons are asked to contact Neil Brooks, Osgoode Hall Law School, local -3010.
- * The Centre for Handicapped Students reports that a handicapped male student requires a live-in attendant and relief help as well, for a negotiable salary. If interested please call Peter at 661-4083 after 6:00 p.m. on weekdays or anytime on weekends.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that the Psychology Colloquium scheduled for Friday, March 7 in Room 291 of the Behavioural Science Building has been cancelled.
- * Faculty of Arts Minor Research Grants: The fund at the disposal of the Faculty of Arts Committee on Research, Grants and Scholarships is designed primarily to help faculty members to cover some of the out-of-pocket expenses connected with research projects. The Committee sits three times a year and will consider completed applications submitted by April 1, 1980. For guidelines and application forms, please contact Jean Levy, Room S927 of the Ross Building, telephone local -3191.
- * In an effort to return to publishers all returnable, unsold 1979/80 textbooks in time to meet publishers' deadlines, the Bookstores request that faculty members let them know as soon as possible, and no later than March 7, which titles in the present curriculum are to be used for the first time in courses during March and April. These titles are to be held in stock while other unsold textbooks will be returned to publishers, where possible, for credit.
- * Application forms are available for summer employment at the Conference Centre. Applications are being accepted for positions in housekeeping and front desk departments. Interested persons are asked to pick-up application forms at the Conference Centre, Room 139, Winters College or call local -3098.
