GENERAL

- * Art Galleries and Displays:
  - A Tibetan Refugee Painting Exhibition will be on view at the Samuel Zacks Gallery (Stong) from January 8-16 with a special opening on January 8 from 6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m. Regular gallery hours will be from 9:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. weekdays.
  - From January 8-30, the A.G.Y.U. (Room N145, Ross) is presenting the Drawings of Christiane Pflug, an exhibition arranged and circulated by the Winnipeg Art Gallery. The Gallery's regular hours are from 10:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m. weekdays.
  - The IDA Gallery (Fine Arts Phase 11) is featuring an Undergraduate Painting Show until January 10. The Gallery is open from 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. weekdays.

- * As provided for under the Occupational Health and Safety Act, 1978, during the month of January, a Ministry of Labour, Health and safety Inspector, Mr. Joseph Zaher, accompanied by the Loss Control Coordinator, Norm Noddle and the Assistant Safety Officer Graeme Gelday will be inspecting all building, facilities and offices on both the York and Glendon campuses. The cooperation of members of faculty and staff during this inspection will be appreciated. Questions with regard to this inspection should be directed to the Loss Control Section (local -3904) or the Safety Section (local -3351).

- * "A Fine Line", a documentary feature film about Norm Kunc (a York student) and John Kellerman, will be shown on Channel 19 on Tuesday, January 13 at 9:00 p.m. Scenes of York, its students and faculty will be recognized. The film depicts how two men with cerebral palsy live in Canada in 1981 -- the Year of the Disabled.

- * McLaughlin College is presenting a one-day conference on "The University: Society and the 1980's" which will take place on Saturday, January 17 from 9:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. The conference program will look at "The Concept of the University" in the morning and "York: Past, Present and Future" in the afternoon. The conference is open to the public and there is no admission charge; it will be held in McLaughlin College Hall.

- * The York Enterprise Development Centre (YEDC) is presenting a non-accredited lecture series entitled "Starting Your Own Business", the objective of which is to provide practical information by means of guest speakers, each knowledgeable in a particular area. The course commences on January 14 with Farley Cohen, M.B.A., speaking about "Development of a Business Plan". To register for this course and for further information, interested persons may contact Dawn Morrissette, YEDC, Room B05, Administrative Studies Building. There is a non-refundable fee of $100.00 required for the course.

- * Stong College, in cooperation with the Co-curricular Committee and the Dance Department, is presenting a dance drama by Menaka Thakkar entitled "Geetgovinda" on Thursday, January 15 at 8:00 p.m. in Burton Auditorium. The dance drama is based upon the theme and original script of the celebrated 12th century Sanskrit poem in the Odissi style of Indian Classical Dance, integrated with projected images of the Kangra paintings on the theme of the poem. No admission will be charged for this performance.

- * Indoor Tennis will be available to Athletic Membership cardholders in the Main Gymnasium of the Tait McKenzie Building from 1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m. on January 11, 18, 25, 31 and February 8 and 15.

- * Stong College is planning a George Eliot Symposium in the second term (February or March) in honour of the centenary of the novelist's death. Faculty and graduate students are invited to submit papers on her work to be considered for this event. Submissions should be sent (by early January) to Dr. Elizabeth Sabiston, Academic Advisor, Room 314C, Stong College. For further information telephone local -3063 or -3061.

- * York employees are reminded that copies of the 1981 TDI Personal Income Tax Exemption forms have been submitted to their respective departments for completion. However, TDI forms need not be completed by employees who filed a 1980 TDI form unless there has been a change in circumstances affecting the Net Claim for Exemptions. If this is the case a revised form must be completed and returned to the Payroll Department, Room B38 of the Temporary Office Building, no later than Friday, January 9, 1981, to effect processing.

- * The Faculty of Education invites applications for five contractually limited positions (one to three year terms) to teach in one or more of the following areas: elementary language arts education, elementary mathematics education, elementary science education, pedagogical theory and research (including models of teaching and curriculum design), and communications and group processes (including counselling and adult education skills). These positions are subject to budget approval. For further information telephone Dean Andrew Effrat or Mrs. Phyl Meredith at local -6301.

- * Glendon Gallery will present "Displacements", an exhibition of site-specific installations by Toronto artists David Clarkson and Brian Groombridge, January 7 to February 1. The Gallery is open from 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, from 6:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m. on Thursdays and from 12:00 noon-5:00 p.m. on Sundays.
