

Friday, July 2 - Monday, July 5, 1982

EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE -3333

GENERAL

- * Glendon Gallery is presenting New Faces: Artists' Choice, a two-part exhibition devoted to the work of emerging Canadian artists. Part I runs until July 16 and introduces the works of Brian Brown, Peter Dykhuis and Janis Hoogstraten. Part II, which will be held from July 22-August 13, presents the works of Michael Boulter, Catherine Carmichael and David Cheung. The Gallery is open from 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. weekdays.
- * The Ministry of Education has established a program geared for Ontario students at all levels who are learning either French or English as a second language - the Learning Materials Development Plan - to promote the production and development of learning materials of Canadian content. There are three categories of application: publishers and producers; non-profit organizations; and individuals. The deadline for submissions is September 14, 1982. For more information contact the Office of Research Administration, Room N718A, Ross Building, local -3777.
- * Five Departments of the Faculty of Fine Arts have new chairmen as of July 1, 1982. Lionel H. Lawrence, Dean of the Faculty, announced the three-year appointments as follows: Department of Film - Kenneth Dancyger, Associate Professor of Film (replaces Evan Cameron); Music Department - James McKay, Associate Professor of Music (replaces Alan Lessem); Fine Arts Studies - Richard Perry, Associate Professor of Visual Arts; Department of Theatre - Ross Stuart, Associate Professor of Theatre (replaces Don Rubin); and Department of Dance - Dianne Woodruff, Associate Professor of Dance (replaces Yves Cousineau). Andrew Tomcik remains as Chairman of the Visual Arts Department until June 1984.
- * Discovery Summer '82 (Mini University) will be running at York University from July 5 to August 20. There will be three two-week sessions with 80 children ages 10-15 years in each session. The sessions will be held weekdays from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
- * There will be a Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic on Wednesday, July 7 from 12:00 noon-4:00 p.m. in the Bear Pit, Central Square (across from the Bookstore).
- * Textbooks: Ordering Policy Since 1978, it has been the policy of the University Bookstores to order course books in quantities as close to 100% of faculty requests as possible. Effectively, this has meant that in courses where a rational number of titles (ten or less) is required, faculty enrolment estimates have been accepted by the Bookstores without question. The results of this policy have been:
 - a) better service to the academic community
 - b) increased customer satisfaction
 - c) higher costs due to ever-increasing inventories and excessively-high interest rates
 - d) unreturnable book overstocks for which there is no real market.
 Seeking to enhance the present level of service, the staff of the Bookstores would like to bring to the community's attention the fact that inventory-financing costs reached $91,394 in 1980/81, were in excess of $130,000 in 1981/82, and are expected to exceed $165,000 in 1982/83. In view of this, and to ensure the Bookstores come within reach of our breakeven mandate, we would encourage faculty in their efforts to provide us with accurate course enrolment estimates in the coming year. We are certain faculty share our desire to see unproductive, inventory-financing costs are kept to an absolute minimum. There is no doubt that, with the co-operation of all concerned, this goal can be obtained.
- * Members of the community are asked to note the following change to the York Directory:

Mrs. A. Callighen, Assistant Manager/Administration, Housing Services, Room 104A, Temporary Office Building	-3076
Mr. J.A. Taylor, Assistant Manager/Operations, Housing Services, Room 37, Temporary Office Building	-3728

GENERAL

- * OBITUARY: Denys Brown, who had served York University for 16 years until her retirement in August, 1981, died last Monday evening at the York-Finch hospital. She was 67. Denys first came to York to work with Dean John T. Saywell, later was a member of the Communications Department and then the Student Services Department. She is survived by Beverley Brown, her daughter, and son Thomas Brown. Private funeral services are being held this week. A Memorial Service will be scheduled for this fall in the Scott Chapel on the York Campus.
- * CJRT-FM Radio (91.1 on the dial) is airing all nine of the talks on Economics, Inflation and Employment presented at the Faculty of Science's 8th Annual Prospects for Man Symposium series at York, June 7 and 8, 1982. The first talk was aired last evening ('Analysis of Stagflation and U.S. Policy Alternatives' with Dr. Michele Fratianni, Council of Economic Advisers, Washington, D.C.) and the second lecture is scheduled for Wednesday, July 28 at 9:30 p.m. when The Honourable Paul Hellyer will speak on 'A Specific Cure for Inflation and Unemployment'.
- * On Friday, July 23, a momentary power interruption of approximately one minute's duration will take place between the hours of 6:30 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. The purpose of the interruption is to permit Physical Plant to balance load on the electrical feeder system. The following buildings will be affected:
McLaughlin College and Residence; Farquharson Life Sciences; Petrie Science; Tait McKenzie; Stong College; Bethune College and Residence; Behavioural Science; Ross; Scott Library; Atkinson College; Administrative Studies; Student Apartments #4 and #6 Assiniboine Road.
- * The York Women's Centre requires two members of staff or faculty to serve on the Women's Centre Steering Committee. Interested persons are asked to call Franka at 231-0104.
