EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE -3333

GENERAL

- * Stong College is planning a Bronte Sisters-Elizabeth Gaskell Symposium for the Spring of 1983 (probably March). Faculty and graduate students are invited to submit papers on any of these writers to be considered for this event. Please send submissions by January 7, 1983, to Dr. Elizabeth Sabiston, Academic Advisor, Room 314C, Stong College. For further information telephone either local -3063 or -3061.

October and November are United Way months in Toronto. More than 1.2 million persons were served by the United Way and its 100 agencies last year. Demands for services are growing drastically at a time when the dollars needed to fund these services are limited. Giving generously makes Toronto a better place for everyone.

- * President Macdonald invites members of the York community to submit black and white line drawings, suitable for reproduction as a Christmas card, on the theme "The York Scene". Fifty dollars will be paid for the sketch chosen and offers may be made for others suitable for the University's archives. Work submitted should include the artist's name and return address and may be sent to the Office of the President, Room S949 of the Ross Building, before November 5, 1982.
- * York University is holding three Fall Convocation ceremonies on Saturday, November 6, in the Main Gymnasium of the Tait McKenzie Centre. The three events will take place as follows:
  - 10:30 a.m. - Atkinson College
  - 3:00 p.m. - Faculty of Arts (all Colleges)
  - 8:00 p.m. - Faculties of Graduate Studies, Administrative Studies, Environmental Studies, Science, Fine Arts, Education, Glendon College and Osgoode Hall Law School
 Robe reservation forms for faculty and staff have been distributed and were to be returned to the Convocation Office by November 1.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that the regular monthly meeting of the Council of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, scheduled for Thursday, November 4, will not be held.
- * The York University Biological Society and the York Arboretum will be planting trees on Sunday, November 7. All members of the community are invited to participate; meet at the Farquharson Loading Docks at 10:30 a.m. that day.
- * The Recreational Swim will be cancelled on Thursday, November 4 between 12:00 noon and 12:45 p.m.
- * The York Bookstores request that faculty about to place textbook orders for Drop-In Courses (Winter-Summer), do so no later than November 15, 1982.
- * The Telecommunications Office has arranged for 17 of the 28 additional pay telephones now being installed around campus, to be fitted with the new Impaired Hearing Handsets. User comments, requests for exact locations and suggestions for new locations will be welcomed at the Office, Room C5 of the Temporary Office Building; telephone local -2337.

GENERAL

- * Vanier and Winters Colleges, with the Faculty of Science, are presenting the 5th annual symposium on the Origins of Earth and Life, November 9 and 10. The theme for this year's symposium is "The Brain: How it Evolved and How it Works". Guest speakers will include: Dr. William G. Tatton, Director, Playfair Neuro-Science Unit, Toronto Western Hospital (he will give the keynote address); Dr. W.E. Swinton, Paleo-Anatomist, Emeritus Professor at the University of Toronto; Dr. Bertha K. Madras, Psychopharmacology Department at the Clarke Institute of Psychiatry; and York Professors Maurice Elliott, Stuart Anstis and G. Fraser Cowley. The Keynote Address -- "The Brain as an Evolving Machine: Jellyfish, Mann and R-2 D-2" -- will be given at 7:30 p.m. on November 9 in the Vanier College Dining Hall. The symposium will continue on November 10 from 9:15 a.m.-3:00 p.m. in Room 1 of the Curtis Lecture Halls.
- * The Faculty of Fine Arts will be hosting Faculty Drop-In Days on November 9, 10 and 11. This is a chance for the public to sit in on classes, information sessions and tour the Fine Arts facilities. Information sessions and tours will take place at 10:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. on these three days in the Faculty Lounge (2nd floor) of the Fine Arts Building. For further information contact Aviva Cipin at local -3237.
- * York takes an historical and contemporary look at Anti-Semitism during a two-day conference, November 13 and 14 at the Osgoode Hall Law School. The conference will feature 12 lectures by experts in the fields of Jewish studies and anti-Semitism. The conference is named the Harry Crowe Lecture in honour of the late Dean of Atkinson College. For further information call local -2540.
- * The Federal Minister of Finance recently announced that premiums paid by an employer on behalf of an employee for dental and private health plans would not be considered as a taxable income. Consequently, income tax deducted from York's employees covering the employer contribution toward these plans will be returned in the November pays - November 25 for salaried and November 18 for hourly-rated employees. The amount to be returned will approximate the additional tax deducted in October.
- * Two electrical power interruptions of approximately one minute's duration will take place on Monday, November 8 between 6:30 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. and on Wednesday, November 10, between 6:30 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. The purpose of the above is to permit North York Hydro to carry out work on their 27.6 K.V. Keele Street Feeder. The following buildings will be affected:
Founders, Vanier, Winters Colleges and Residences; Steacie Science Library; Stong College and Residence; K.N.I.M.R.; Ross; Central Square; Osgoode Hall Law School; Scott Library; Curtis Lecture Halls; Graduate Student Apartments #2 and #8 Assiniboine Road; Fine Arts; Atkinson Residence.
- * CYSF and Canadian Woman Studies are sponsoring a literary contest with the theme being any issue relating to women. Manuscripts must be no longer than 2000 words (typed and double-spaced). Deadline is November 30. First prize is $200; second prize is $100. The winning entry will be published in Canadian Studies Magazine. Submissions may be sent to either the CYSF Office, 105 Central Square, or Canadian Woman Studies Office, 204 Founders College.
- * Information on and application for the Fall Competition to the President's NSERC Fund (deadline date - November 15, 1982) are now available from the Office of Research Administration, N718 Ross Building; telephone local -3777.
- * Members of the community are asked to note the following cancellation:
Recreational Swim - cancelled from 12:00 noon - 12:45 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 4
Pleasure Skating will be held as follows:
Saturday, Nov. 6 - from 10:00 p.m.-10:45 p.m. only
Sunday, Nov. 7 - from 3:00 p.m.- 3:45 p.m. only
- * The regular monthly meeting of the Council of the Faculty of Arts scheduled for today has been cancelled.

The Health, Rehabilitation and Social Service Agencies funded by the United Way of greater Toronto comprise more than 100 reasons to increase contributions to the United Way in 1982. Demands for services are growing drastically at a time when the dollars needed to fund these services are limited. Give generously and make Toronto a better place for everyone.

GENERAL

- * Stong College is planning a Bronte Sisters-Elizabeth Gaskell Symposium for the Spring of 1983 (probably March), and invites faculty and graduate students to submit papers on any of these writers to be considered. Submissions should be sent by January 7, 1983, to Dr. Elizabeth Sabiston, Academic Advisor, Room 314C, Stong College. For further information telephone either local-3063 or -3061.
- * The Faculty of Graduate Studies will be attending a staff meeting on November 18 from 1:00 p.m. -3:00 p.m. and the offices will be closed.
- * The Federal Minister of Finance recently announced that premiums paid by an employer on behalf of an employee for dental and private health plans would not be considered as a taxable income. Consequently, income tax deducted from York's employees covering the employer contribution toward these plans will be returned in the November pays - November 25 for salaried and November 18 for hourly-rated employees. The amount to be returned will approximate the additional tax deducted in October.

More than 100 human service agencies are looking to the United Way for increased funding. By giving more to the United Way, the United Way will be able to give more to its agencies.

- * The York Bookstores request that faculty placing textbook orders for Drop-In courses (Winter-Summer) do so no later than November 15, 1982.

Several raffle prizes which were drawn for in the Bear Pit, Central Square, following the Casino York event on October 28, have not been claimed. The holders of the following winning tickets are asked to call 667-3557 to arrange for prize pick-up. Deadline for claiming a prize is 5:00 p.m., November 19, 1982.
