EMERGENCY SERVICES CENTRE -3333

GENERAL

- * The Calumet Off-Centre for Microcomputing is offering a non-credit course in programming personal computers. The course will be offered Wednesday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. commencing March 28 and ending May 30. The 30-hour hands-on course is designed for the beginner with little or no previous experience and is open to any one interested. Fee for the course is $100 and includes all materials. This course is not eligible for York's tuition waiver. Class size will be limited. The computers used in the course are Apple II+. To register and for further information contact Denise Timmons at -3489 or visit the Calumet General Office, Room 120, Atkinson College. For further information, other than registration, call Lew Lowther at -3764.
- * The Department of Ancillary Services has appointed Lionel M. Sampson as Supervisor of Residence Operations. Mr. Sampson will be responsible for supervising operations of all University student residence and apartment buildings on the York and Glendon campuses. During the academic term (September-April) he will report to John A. Taylor, Assistant Manager of Housing (Operations) and during the summer months (May-August), to J.W. Moore, Manager, Conference Centre.
- * In the interest of ensuring prompt arrival of required and recommended textbooks, members of the community are asked to: use only official Bookstore request forms when submitting textbook requisitions to the Bookstore (available by calling local -3811); ensure that all information on these forms is accurate, complete and legible (otherwise, they will be returned to the sender for clarification); and that they be forwarded to the Bookstore prior to the following deadlines -- (a) Summer course deadline was March 1; (b) for Fall courses, no later than April 16 (for French books and those in foreign languages) and May 7 for all other textbooks; (c) for Winter courses, no later than October 26.
- * With a view to providing full academic and an all-student community for those undergraduate students studying at York University during the summer of 1984, Housing and Food Services are establishing a centralized summer residence in Winters College for students. The College will act as host for those who wish to live in collegiate surroundings -- summer residence accommodation for those who prefer to live and study in an all-student community, separate from the many guests offered temporary housing at York between May and September. Reserving Winters Residence for York undergraduates from May to September is intended to establish a small but dynamic community of summer students. The same services will be offered as in the regular academic session: a Residence Tutor will be available to initiate activities and provide help when necessary; a full-time Porter to continue the linen and mail services, etc. The services of the Housing Department and the College will also be available to York Summer Residence students. Rooms are available for the whole (or part of) summer, as of May 15. The minimum length of stay is 30 days. Details and application forms may be obtained from the Residence Secretary, Valerie Bruce, Room 275, Winters College (telephone local -2203). Rooms will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.
- * Researchers applying to the Occupational Health and Safety Research Grants Program of the Ontario Ministry of Labour should note that new guidelines and application forms have recently been received in the Office of Research Administration. Older forms should not be used for application to the program.
- * All members of the community are cordially invited to attend a Retirement Dinner for Mr. Arvo Tiidus, Coordinator of Recreation York, in recognition of 18 years of dedicated service to the University. This special event will take place on Thursday, April 12 at 6:30 p.m. Costs are $10/person for the dinner, $5 for the gift, and there will be a cash bar. To reserve, please call Lois O'Grady or Meg Innes at local -2351 by Monday, April 9, 1984. Cheques may be forwarded to Room 301 of the Tait McKenzie Building.
- * Stationery Stores advises the community that "Property of York University" labels are once again available. When ordering, please quote catalogue number L8.
- * The York University Cooperative Daycare Centre is in need of a 2-drawer, legal-size filing cabinet. Any department wishing to donate same, is asked to call the Centre at local -3273.
- * The Stores Section of the Department of Physical Plant will supply available materials, Stationery supplies and/or furnishing items charged in the 1983-84 fiscal year until the close of business on April 13, 1984. During the remainder of April, emergency requirements only will be processed, any of which will be charged as a 1984-85 expense.
- * Members of the community are asked to note that Pick-Up Hockey on Wednesday, April 4 will be from 12:00 noon-12:45 p.m. only. The Ice Arena will close as of Sunday, April 8, 1984, at midnight.
