Gerald Hushlak's lecture is jointly sponsored by the Art Gallery of York University and the Faculty of Fine Arts. His exhibition, entitled "Computer Works" is currently on display at the A.G.Y.U.
- * The York University Documentation Project will present REFUGEE WEEK and REFUGEE FILM FESTIVAL to be held February 4-8 at both the York and Glendon campus. The Film Festival features a number of documentaries which explore the socio-political problems of various refugee groups. The screenings will be followed by panel discussions in which both cinematographic and social issues will be discussed by filmmakers, critics, journalists, government officials and specialists in the field. The Refugee Documentation Project was set up at York in 1982 to facilitate research on refugees and to provide a library of specialized materials for the use of undergraduate and graduate students as well as faculty members and visiting scholars. The Film Festival schedule will appear in future editions of the York Bulletin.
- * Members of the community are asked to note the following change to the York Telephone Directory:
 Mrs. Barbara Rowe, Administrative Assistant
 Business Operations, Room 64, East Office Building local -2330
- * Academic Computing Services is evolving a series of MICRO-RELATED SEMINARS. The sessions will begin in January and include demonstrations, discussions, and documentation. ACS will offer the seminar "Microcomputers: An Overview" free of charge, and levy a $10.00 fee for "Introduction to the DOS Operating System". This payment will cover the cost of course material and contribute towards the purchase of software for the Micro Demonstration Centre. As enrollment is limited, interested academic and administrative users should register early. For further information contact Lillian Nasello at local -6308 before January 18, 1985.
Microcomputers: An Overview - Room 110P, Steacie Science Library
 January 21 9:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m.
 January 24 2:00 p.m.- 4:00 p.m.
 This introductory course will familiarize the novice user with commonly used computer terminology and the basic concepts of microcomputer hardware and software. It will examine the capabilities and limitations of a microcomputer, and the criteria a user should consider when purchasing a micro.
Introduction to the DOS Operating System - Room 110P, Steacie Science Library
 January 28 9:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m.
 January 31 2:00 p.m.- 4:00 p.m.
 The seminar will explain the purpose and function of an operating system. It will review the basics of the MS DOS operating system, and demonstrate some of the commonly used DOS commands. The instructor will discuss the features and facilities available on a typical microcomputer using this operating system and its derivatives (PCDOS - IBM PC, ZDOS - ZENITH).
- * The Centre for Continuing Education offers:
 - an 8-course "DATA PROCESSING AND COMPUTER CERTIFICATE PROGRAM" starting the week of January 21. For a detailed brochure on this and other non-degree programs, call the Centre at local -2524 or drop by the 2nd floor of the Administrative Studies Building;

GENERAL

- * York University employees are reminded that the 1985 TD1 INCOME TAX EXEMPTION FORMS have been distributed to all departments. Those who claimed a basic personal exemption in 1984 and their claim has not changed, need not to file in 1985. Completed TD1's should be returned to the Payroll Office, Room B42, East Office Building. The Family Allowance amount for 1985 is $375.24 per annum per child.
- * Due to many unavoidable problems which delayed publication, the proceedings of the April 8, 1983 Urban Studies Symposium "WORDS INTO ACTION: RACE-ETHNIC RELATIONS POLICIES IN LARGE URBAN SCHOOL BOARDS" are now available. Copies may be purchased from the Urban Studies Program Office, Room S757, Ross Building at the cost of $10 per copy.
- * York will host the C.I.A.U. MEN'S & WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS to be held March 7-9. Sixteen of Canada's best teams from coast to coast will be featured in 24 exciting matches. For ticket, schedule and tournament information call local -3817.
- * The York University Daycare Centre will hold a CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL on Sunday, January 27 from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the Fine Arts Building. Arcade games, outdoor events, music and dancing are among the many activities being planned for this fund-raising event. Admission is $1.00 for adults and 50¢ for children. For further information call the Daycare Centre at local -3273.
- * A MEMORIAL CONCERT will be held Tuesday, February 5 at York to honour Jon B. Higgins, former York Music Professor and internationally acclaimed singer of South Indian music who died December 7, 1984. Higgins will be remembered by a group of his friends who will play selections of both Indian and Western music at the concert which begins at 8:00 p.m. in the McLaughlin College Hall. Higgins was a faculty member with York's Music Department from 1971 to 1978 and Associate Dean of the Faculty of Fine Arts from 1976 to 1978. Until his death, he was Professor of Music and Director of the Center for the Arts at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut. Donations received at the concert will be used to establish the Jon B. Higgins Memorial Fund to bring visiting Indian musicians and artists to York University. For further information on the concert or to contribute to the memorial fund, call the Music Department at local -3246.
- * Applications are invited from members of the academic community for the position of ACADEMIC ADVISOR OF CALUMET COLLEGE. The appointment is normally for a three-year term and carries a one-third release from teaching, or an equivalent remuneration. Candidates from any faculty should have a broad general interest in undergraduate education and experience with computers would be a particular asset. Applications should be sent to Ms. D. Timmons, Room 120, Atkinson College before January 31. The Chair of the Search Committee is Associate Dean R. Sheese.
- * The Jewish Student Federation is sponsoring an "ALMOST FREE JEWISH UNIVERSITY" as follows: Hebrew Language Class (Wednesdays from 4:00-5:00 p.m.); Thrilling Weekly Ta'umid Class (Wednesdays from 4:00-5:00 p.m.) in Room 135, Winters College; Philosophy of the Jewish Laws (Tuesdays from 4:00-5:00 p.m.) in the J.S.F.
