GENERAL:

"A Message from the Fire Marshall: The Ontario Fire Code 730/81 specifically states that 'closures in fire separations (fire doors) shall not be blocked or wedged open.' A propped open fire door will allow fire and smoke to spread quickly, increasing fire damage and the potential for loss of life. All members of the York community must work together to see that this unsafe and illegal practice is discontinued."

The Centre for Continuing Education in cooperation with Comterm Inc. offers "hands-on" microcomputer courses and seminars. Foundation, introductory, advanced and professional levels from 3 to 20 hours in length are offered days, evenings and Saturdays. The courses/seminars are eligible for credits toward a Continuing Education Certificate in Microcomputer Business Software. For further information and a brochure, call local -2507 or drop by the second floor of the Administrative Studies Building.

The UNICOLL Credit Union will present free seminars throughout February on "Understanding R.R.S.P.'s." GENERAL:

HARRY ARTHURS
President, York University

invites all members of the York University community to an open forum to discuss his annual Presidential Report to the Board of Governors.*

President Arthurs will be prepared to discuss matters related to:

- * the University's operating budget
- * physical facilities at York
- * enrolment planning
- * academic programs
- * research
- * student support and services
- * faculty and staff resources

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1987 - GLENDON CAMPUS
Board/Senate Chamber - 12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11, 1987 - YORK CAMPUS
Senate Chamber, Ninth Floor, Ross Building - 12:00 noon to 2:00 p.m.

President Arthurs looks forward to hearing your questions and comments.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME

* Copies of the Report will be circulated widely throughout the York community. Additional copies will be available from the Department of Communications, Suite A, West Office Building.

The Senate Academic Policy and Planning Committee requests comments on the draft of the second University Academic Plan by March 6. Copies of the draft were circulated during the week of January 26 to Deans, the Director of Libraries, Chair of the Council of Masters, Faculty Council offices, Chairs of Senate committees, Advisor to the President on the Status of Women, the Chairs of CUEW, YUFA, and YUSA, heads of student governments, the President's Policy Committee, and the Strategic Planning Committee of the Board of Governors. Chairing APPC this year is Prof. Laverne Smith from the Faculty of Education. Other faculty representatives on the Committee are Profs. Vic Murray, Administrative Studies; Cynthia Dent, Arts; Ann B. Shteir, Atkinson; Reg Lang, Environmental Studies; Austin Clarkson, Fine Arts; John Crozier, Glendon; Bob Lundell, Graduate Studies; Fred Zemans, Osgoode Hall Law School; and Dave Logan, Science. Student representatives are Allan Armstrong (CYSF) and Chris Harris (GSA). Ex officio members include President Harry Arthurs; Ken Davey, Vice-President (Academic Affairs); Michael Creal, Chair of Senate; Gene Denzel, Academic Colleague; and M.W. Ransom, Secretary of the University. In addition, Prof. Richard Goranson serves as YUFA's observer on APPC. Comments and questions may be directed to any of the foregoing, or to the Secretary (Barbara Tryfos, Office of the Secretary of the University).

Essay-writing services carry out active advertising on campus, most often in the form of handbills. Staff members in various parts of the University are aware of this activity, and remove such advertising when they see it. York is a wide-open campus, however, and it is difficult to be 100% successful. Members of the York community are invited to lend their assistance by either removing this kind of advertising or reporting its presence to the Office of the Provost (-5275).

The School of Translation at Glendon will hold an entrance examination for the 1987-88 academic year on Saturday, March 14 at 1:00 p.m. in Room 129, York Hall. To qualify, interested persons should have completed or be in the process of completing four full credit courses at the university level, or two years of CEGEP (Quebec). To register, contact the School of Translation at -6742 before March 6.

The Career and Placement Centre will hold a one-hour information session for potential York employers regarding Challenge '87 Summer Employment/Experience Development (SEED), February 24 from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. in the Senate Chamber (Room S915, Ross). Applications and assistance will be available from a panel of experts including representatives from the federal government (CEIC Project Officer), Office of Research Administration and the Office of Student Affairs. For further information call -5167.
