Volume 7, Number 76

GENERAL:

Members of the York community are reminded that the Summer Hours Work Schedule will end as of the Labor Day weekend. Regular hours for the fall/winter months (9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.) will resume on Tuesday, September 8. University offices will close at 3:30 p.m. on Friday, September 4.

Members of the York community are asked to note that the publication dates for the York Bulletin will change as of Thursday, September 10. There will be two Bulletins per week, one that covers Monday through Wednesday events and the other for Thursday through Sunday events. The deadline for the Monday-Wednesday Bulletin will be the preceding Thursday, and for the Thursday-Sunday Bulletin, the preceding Tuesday. The York Activities Bulletin will no longer be published. For further information call Debbie Jamieson in Communications at -5010.

The Telecommunications Office advises the York community that effective August 27, callers making long distance directly dialed calls will hear a "beep" tone after the number is dialed. This change is being implemented simply to remind callers they are making chargeable long distance calls. Members of the York community are reminded of the Automatic Attendant Answering Service. Through the use of a touch-tone telephone, it is possible to override the recording callers hear when dialing the main switchboard at 736-2100. To override the message and dial through to individual extension numbers: Press 1, the four digit number and then the number symbol (#) to the right of the zero twice. Please give callers these instructions, to allow them quicker access to university offices. For further information call Telecommunications at -2667.

The Telecommunications Office requests that whenever a special event or conference is to be held at York, or when departments are hosting visiting faculty, the pertinent information (i.e. names, times, locations, contact telephone numbers, etc.) should be forwarded to Ronnie Fleming, Supervisor, Switchboard, Room 016, Steacie (-2777). This request is in the interest of providing prompt and accurate information to callers to the University Switchboard (736-2100).

Stationery Stores is compiling a list of York community requirements for 1988 calendar items. Referring to the stationery catalogue for selection, members of the community are asked to complete a stationery requisition and forward to Stores, no later than September 21. Note: Separate requisitions are required for subject items, do not integrate with other supply needs; fill out forms carefully as exchanges, alterations or cancellations cannot be accommodated.

All students enrolled in a language course requiring laboratory sessions must register in the Language Laboratory (Room S117, Ross), Tuesday, September 8 - Tuesday, September 15, 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. (unless otherwise informed). The Language Laboratory is also hiring monitors for the 1987-88 academic year. Interested persons who are fluent in Chinese (Mandarin), French, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish or Ukrainian are asked to apply before Friday, September 11 in Room S117, Ross.

The African Studies Program is interested in drawing together those members of the York community who have an active involvement in any aspect of African Studies. Anyone who has conducted research in Africa, or who has taught a significant amount of African material in their courses during the past three years, as well as any graduate students doing work on Africa are asked to contact the Program in Room 356/365, Norman Bethune College (-2037/2050).

GENERAL

To commemorate the sixth International Day of Peace, proclaimed by the United Nations, the York community is invited to join thousands of people worldwide in one minute of silence and one minute of sound starting at 12:00 noon on Tuesday, September 15. This event has been endorsed by York President Harry Arthurs. CJRT-FM radio, 91.1, will have Governor-General Jeanne Sauvé broadcast an invitation to the one minute of silence at 11:59 a.m. followed by one minute of silence and then one minute of bell ringing. For further information about International Peace Day, contact the Communications Department at -5010.

On Tuesday, September 15, York President Harry Arthurs will present to Soviet dissident Anatoly Shcharansky the honorary Doctor of Laws degree which the University conferred on him in absentia in 1982. The presentation will be part of a Community Solidarity Rally taking place at 8:00 p.m. at Massey Hall, sponsored by the Coalition for Soviet Jewry. The rally is open to the public. The original degree was presented to McGill University Prof. Irwin Cotler who acted as Mr. Shcharansky's legal counsel in efforts to have him released from the Soviet Union. Mr. Shcharansky, a computer scientist by training, found that as a Jew he had no future in the Soviet Union. As soon as he attempted to immigrate to Israel, police harassment began. He became the leading spokesman for the dissident movement in the Soviet Union. He was sentenced to 13 years in a Soviet prison for his activities. He was released last year and allowed to emigrate.

OBITUARY: Mary Stevens, Assistant Director for Library Systems, died September 5. Mary joined the York Libraries in 1973 and was appointed Assistant Director in 1981. A Fellow of Calumet College, she received an MBA from York in 1983.

The Office of Research Administration announces a new program entitled "Research Grant in Lieu of Salary Program" which provides faculty members and professional librarians who wish to conduct research during any academic year with the opportunity to apply for a research grant in lieu of salary. Faculty members and professional librarians, both full and part-time, may be eligible. Note: The first deadline for this competition has been extended to September 28. Applications should reach the Office of Research Administration, Room S414A, Ross by this date.

The York University Alumni Association is accepting applications for the second annual Alumni Silver Jubilee Scholarship. Created in 1985 to commemorate the 25th anniversary of York, the scholarship's 1987-88 value is $1,000, payable as a tuition credit. The scholarship is granted each year to a student enrolled in an undergraduate program, based on academic excellence and extracurricular involvement. Potential recipients must have completed at least 10 full courses or equivalent while maintaining a "B" average, and must have a record of community leadership, volunteer service, achievement in athletics or the arts or any other significant endeavour, either at York or in the outside community. Faculty and staff are asked to publicize this scholarship to potential applicants. For details and an application form, students should contact the Financial Aid Office, Suite D, EOB (-5006). Completed application forms, including a transcript and letters of reference, must be received by September 30.

Effective October 1, Central Duplicating Department will change its name to the Printing Services Department. In order to improve service to the community, the Copy Centre Office will extend its hours of operation from 8:45 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.

The Telecommunications Office advises the York community that callers making long distance directly dialed calls will now hear a "beep" tone after the number is dialed. This change has been implemented simply to remind callers they are making chargeable long distance calls. Members of the York community are reminded of the Automatic Attendant Answering Service. The York University Alumni Association is accepting applications for the second annual Alumni Silver Jubilee Scholarship. Created in 1985 to commemorate the 25th anniversary of York, the scholarship's 1987-88 value is $1,000, payable as a tuition credit. The scholarship is granted each year to a student enrolled in an undergraduate program, based on academic excellence and extracurricular involvement. Potential recipients must have completed at least 10 full courses or equivalent while maintaining a "B" average, and must have a record of community leadership, volunteer service, achievement in athletics or the arts or any other significant endeavour, either at York or in the outside community. Faculty and staff are asked to publicize this scholarship to potential applicants. For details and an application form, students should contact the Financial Aid Office, Suite D, EOB (-5006). Completed application forms, including a transcript and letters of reference, must be received by September 30.

Effective October 1, Central Duplicating Department will change its name to the Printing Services Department. In order to improve service to the community, the Copy Centre Office will extend its hours of operation from 8:45 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.

UNIVERSITY STATEMENT ON STRIKE BY YUSA

The York University Staff Association (YUSA), representing secretarial, clerical, and technical employees of York University, commenced a legal strike at noon on September 30, 1987, following a breakoff of its negotiations with the University.

The University intends to maintain operations during the strike yet recognizes that the strike will necessarily result in a reduction of some normal service levels. Faculty members are not on strike and are expected to maintain established teaching schedules. Scott Library Reserve Room services will operate Monday - Thursday, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday. Other Library services and Bookstores services will be unavailable until further notice. Normal residence and food services will be maintained. Persons seeking information about particular events should call the organizer of the event to determine whether or not there has been any change in schedule. Traffic flow in the vicinity of the York and Glendon campuses will in all likelihood be slowed by picket line activity; motorists are urged to be patient and to respect the rights and safety of picketers.

The University regrets both the decision of YUSA not to continue mediation discussions and the inconvenience which this strike will cause. The University believes that it has made a fair and responsible offer to YUSA and hopes that the union will return to the bargaining table shortly.

GENERAL:

To permit maintenance work to be carried out on certain electrical transformer stations in buildings throughout the campus, a momentary power interruption will take place Friday, October 2 between 6:30 a.m. and 7:30 a.m. in the following buildings: McLaughlin College and Residence; Founders College and Residence; Winters College and Residence; Vanier College and Residence; Stong Residence and Kitchen; Lumbers; and G.R. Allen Rocher (Kinsmen). Power will be shut off Sunday, October 4 at 11:30 p.m. and turned back on at 6:00 a.m., Monday, October 5. The buildings affected are: Founders College and Residence; Winters College and Residence; Vanier College and Residence; and McLaughlin College and Residence.

The Department of Personnel Services announces the following appointments: Polly McFarlane, Counsellor, Counselling & Development, Student Affairs, effective September 1; Graham Wise, Seminar Administrator/Men's Hockey Coach, Physical Education, effective September 1; Paul Hayden, Development Officer, Development, External Relations, effective September 8; Elizabeth Dolan, Assistant Manager (Classrooms), Room Allocation Centre, Office of the Registrar, effective September 9; Susan Hope, Crime Prevention Officer, Physical Resources, Security & Parking, effective September 28. The following promotions/transfers within the York Community have also recently or are about to take place: Elaine Andrew, Administrative Officer, Osgoode Hall Law School; Nancy Hall, Assistant to the Head, Acquisitions, Scott Library; Catherine Shook, Administrative Officer, Executive Development, Administrative Studies.

The Office of the Chief Accountant requests the cooperation of the York community in adhering to the practice of allowing five working days from receipt of the request in Accounting for the preparation of cheques, including travel advances, petty cash reimbursements, etc. Special pick-up should not be requested. While one of the main functions of the Accounting Department is to service the needs of the University community, and it is prepared to accommodate urgent requests on an exception basis, this can only be achieved with a loss in productive time, and additional costs and workload to its staff.

The Counselling and Development Centre and Recreation York will offer a Fitness with a Friend Program. Participants will be matched with a fitness partner according to schedule and interests. Possible activities include aerobics, jogging, squash, and swimming. Instruction for beginners in some activities will be available. Registration will take place on Thursday, October 1 from 12:30 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. in Room 102, Behavioural Sciences. For further information call Shirley Hamm at -7193.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S CURRENT POSITION REGARDING NEGOTIATIONS WITH YUSA

As a settlement had not been reached during mediation sessions last week, the University contacted Mr. Murray Lapp of the Ministry of Labour and requested a further meeting with YUSA. That meeting took place yesterday.

The University took this initiative in order to respond to those issues identified by YUSA in recent communications as being of major concern to them. The University's response took the form of improvements in its proposals in the following areas:

JOB EVALUATION

- University to set aside an amount equal to 1% of YUSA current payroll (September 1/87) to be allocated towards salary increases which may result from upgradings as a result of implementation of revised system;
- Commitment to having revised system in place no later than August 31, 1989;
- Confirm no salary loss to incumbent if job downgraded;
- Increase in paid release time to Union for preparation.

ERGONOMICS

- Offered to set time limits for:
 - forming committee - 45 days after ratification
 - establishing and making available minimum standards - September 1/88
 - completion of upgrade of first area - August 31/89
 - completion of all upgrading - August 31/94

Funds allocated each fiscal year 1988 - 1994 towards ergonomic upgrading;

- All furnishings/equipment purchased after September 1/88 to meet standards;
- $40,000 - allocated for upgrade in critical area, identified by Committee, prior to September 1/88;
- Mutually agreed Committee Chair;
- Ergonomic consultant on Committee, fees paid equally Union/University.

TRAINING CENTRE

- Increase usage by YUSA
Jan. 4 - Apr. 30/88:
First priority for unbooked hours up to 8 hours/week - 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Mon.- Thurs.

May 1/88 - Aug. 31/89:
Minimum 8 hours/week - 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Mon.-Thurs.
- Time off with pay for YUSA Training Co-ordinator, 8 hours/week to coincide with times facility available to YUSA
- University agrees training centre for staff mutually beneficial - will endeavour to create when feasible.
- Joint Training Programmes - Allocation of up to $40,000 during September 1, 1988 - August 31, 1989.
$30,000 during September 1, 1987 - August 31, 1988.

LONG SERVICE

- 20th - 24th Anniversary Year 1 Service Day/Anniversary Year
- 25th and subsequent Anniversary Years 2 Service Days/Anniversary Year

It was hoped that these improvements tabled yesterday by the University would have been such that the parties could have agreed on a position to put in front of the YUSA membership at its meeting today. Unfortunately this was not the case and there exists the distinct possibility that YUSA will elect to have its membership set up picket lines following this meeting.

It should be noted that during legal strike action, picketers are permitted by law to do certain things. They may carry signs stating the nature of the dispute. They may ask persons entering the campus to honour their picket lines but they have no right to threaten either verbally or physically to enforce that request. They are supposed to keep moving and the Union is not allowed to place so many strikers in front of any entrance to the University that free passage in and out by non-striking persons is prevented.

Persons not covered by the Collective Agreement with YUSA who have their own duties to perform within the University are expected to be able to cross these lines without interference. In the same manner any members of the YUSA bargaining unit who elect to report for their normal duties will have their benefit coverage and salary payments maintained.
