DRAFT MASTER PLAN FOR YORK UNIVERSITY - YORK CAMPUS

Under the auspices of the York University Development Corporation (YUDC), acting on behalf of the University, and after wide consultation with the various bodies dealing with campus development, a Draft Master Plan for the development of the York campus has now been prepared by York's campus planners, the IBI Group. Included in the Master Plan are sections on: building development, landscaping, transportation and infrastructure. These plans are on display for review by interested members of the York community in the Periodicals Reading Room, Scott Library (top of the escalators to the right), the lobby area of the Office of Student Affairs, Central Square and in the Office of the Vice-President (Finance and Administration), Room S958A, Ross. Comments, questions and suggestions on any aspect of the Plan should be forwarded to Greg Spearn, Vice-President, YUDC, Room D104, WOB or any member of the Plan Implementation Sub-Committee of the YUDC Advisory Council. Members of this Sub-Committee are: Prof. Glen Frankfurter, Department of Social Science (Chair); Dean Tom Traves, Faculty of Arts; Dean Kim Innanen, Faculty of Science; Sheila Cann, Osgoode Hall Law School; Paul Hayden, Alumni Association; Margaret Evans, Student Representative on the Board of Governors - CYSF; Prof. Sally Zerker, Division of Social Science; Prof. Allan Stauffer, Department of Physics; and W.D. Farr, Vice-President, Finance & Administration.

The Grounds and Vehicle Section of the Department of Physical Plant informs members of the York community that arrangements have been made with Metro Waste Paper Recovery Inc. to initiate a trial pick-up of corrugated cardboard. Containers have been placed at the Ross, Winters, and Scott loading docks. Appropriate signs will be installed to indicate exact location on each loading dock. Carton boxes should be placed into these containers flat. If this trial proves to be successful, the number of pick-up locations will be expanded.

The Department of Human Resources announces the following appointments: Brian Samarasekera, Staff Auditor, Internal Audit, effective February 8, 1988; Aaron Rodriguez, Squash Club Manager, Racquets Professional, Physical Education, Glendon, effective February 15, 1988. The following promotions have recently or will shortly take place: Ellen Bowie, Manager, Housing Administration, Housing and Business Operations; Ron Mitchell, Data and Statistics Officer, Office of the Vice-President, Finance and Administration.

The Payroll Department advises the York community that TD1 forms for Tax Exemptions are available at the York Post Office. They should be completed and forwarded to the Payroll Department, EOB only if there are changes to exemption filing.

GENERAL:

STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT'S POLICY COMMITTEE REGARDING
ONTARIO FEDERATION OF STUDENTS' RALLY

Once again, university students are taking directly to government their concerns about the grave effects of the continued underfunding of higher education in the province of Ontario.

On Thursday, March 10, university students from across the province will assemble at Queen's Park for a rally organized by the Ontario Federation of Students. The rally and associated activities will take place from 12:00 noon to 2:00 p.m. The continued need for students to engage in such protest is a telling commentary on the government's failure to address adequately the needs of higher education.

To enable as large a participation from York University as possible, the President's Policy Committee urges all course directors and tutorial leaders to show as much support and understanding as they can in individual cases for students who opt not to attend classes from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 10, so as to attend the rally at Queen's Park. Given the lateness of this notice and the point we are at in the academic session for most courses, and the resultant inability to plan alternative arrangements and make-up activities, students should understand that their first obligation is to their course work and requirements and should not presume any exemption or exception.

ART GALLERIES/DISPLAYS: The Glendon Gallery presents "Papua New Guinea: Ritual and Relic," pieces from the York University permanent collection until March 27. Gallery hours are Monday-Friday, 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.; in addition, Thursday, 6:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m.; and Sunday, 1:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. For further information call 487-6721 - The Samuel J. Zacks Gallery presents a 4th Year Design Show. The exhibition opens March 11 at 4:00 p.m. and continues until March 18. Full-time members of faculty are invited to apply for Teaching-Learning Development Grants and Release Time Teaching Fellowships, established under Articles 19.28 and 19.29 of the YUFA Collective Agreement. The Teaching-Learning Development Grant Program (maximum awards: $2500; $5000 for joint project) will support projects which have the potential to make significant curricular or methodological contributions to teaching and learning at York, or to enable faculty to improve areas of perceived weakness in their own teaching skills when appropriate assistance is not available at York. Release Time Teaching Fellowships are intended to provide recipients with the opportunity to develop innovative teaching and learning projects or to enhance their own teaching skills, when such development or enhancement could not take place in the context of a full teaching load. Maximum grant: reduction of course load to one-half that normally assigned to the unit in an academic year. For further information, call Janette Baker at -3220, or Deirdre Maclean at -5396. Completed applications for the first competition are due April 15. Awards will be announced early in May.

The Retirement Consultation Centre will present a workshop on April 8 entitled "Planning Ahead: Financial Planning for Retirement." For further information or to register, call -6228.
