Volume 10, Number 19

GENERAL:

The York Central Mailroom facility has completed its relocation from Room N125, Ross to the Curtis Lecture Hall basement, one level below the Credit Union. The office of the Manager of Postal Services has also moved to the new location from Room S107 Ross. Signs to help direct users to the new facility should be in place over the next couple of weeks. Barricades for the New Academic Building and Entry Pavilion construction site are almost complete. Directional and safety signs will be posted throughout the area as soon as all barricades are up and painted. Members are reminded that access can no longer be gained in and out of Ross via the central doors near the Post Office, as they will remain out of service for the duration of the construction project.

York full-time faculty members are reminded that the next application deadline is March 15 for SSHRC Small Research Grants (adjudicated by a York committee) for projects up to $3,500. For further information call Janet Thompson or Judith Hawley at the Office of Research Administration, Room S414, Ross (-55055).

Faculty of Arts students can pick-up Information for Fall-Winter 1990-91 enrolment in the West Bear Pit, Central Square, between March 19 and 23. Please refer to posters or notice in Excalibur (March 8, 1990) to determine which day the study lists will be available for pick-up.

Atkinson College announces that the Atkinson Information Service is now in operation. Requests for Atkinson calendars, admissions applications or general questions should be referred to 736-5222 (formerly Atkinson Enquiries). Office hours are Monday-Thursday, 8:30 a.m.-8:00 p.m.; Friday, 8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m.; and Saturday, 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. Telephone hours are Monday-Thursday, 8:45 a.m.-7:45 p.m.; Friday, 8:45 a.m.-4:45 p.m.; and Saturday, 10:15 a.m.-1:45 p.m. For further information about the service, call Suzin Ferris, Coordinator, Atkinson Information Project at -66370.

Applications are invited for the position of Academic Advisor of McLaughlin College for a three-year term, commencing July 1, 1990. Full and part-time faculty with a PhD or equivalent and first year teaching and advising experience are invited to apply. Principal responsibilities are for the McLaughlin College course program, including critical skills development and for the academic advising system. McLaughlin's primary focus is on public policy. Applications should be sent to Victoria Rambert-Perot, Room 229, McLaughlin (-33824), by March 26.

The York University English Language Institute requires families to be weekend hosts to students from Meiji University, Tokyo from August 17-19. This homestay program is intended to provide first-hand experience of Canadian family living. For information and an application form call -55353.

In order to improve service to the York community, the Caretaking section will be distributing tags that are to be used to identify large items that cannot be placed in regular waste baskets for disposal during the night shift. Articles or bags to be removed, should be placed near waste baskets or doors of offices with a tag on each item. Plastics garbage bags and tags may be obtained by calling Caretaking at -77606. Bags should not be overloaded. To dispose of heavy or bulky items as well as sizable quantities of cardboard, call Grounds at -55502.

Monday, March 19 (12:00 noon) - Thursday, March 22 (12:00 noon), 1990
Volume 10, Number 21

GENERAL:

Teaching Development Fellowships are available to the part-time faculty of York under the terms of the Unit 2 Collective Agreement between CUEW and the University. Applicants must be or recently have been members of Unit 2 of CUEW. One competition is held in each contract year (September 1-August 31) and two awards, each in the amount of a Course Directory salary ($9,141 for 1989-90) may be made each year subject to the scope and substance of the proposals received. These awards are for the purpose of assisting employees to develop a new program of study, new courses and teaching materials, and/or their teaching skills. Awards are made through competition based on the merit of a proposal as assessed by a selection committee. More detailed guidelines are available from the Academic Staff Relations Office, Room S958A, Ross. The deadline for application proposals has been extended to March 30.

An Andre Malraux Conference will take place March 23 and 24 at the Atkinson College Fellows' Lounge. For further information call Sergio Villani at -55283.

In order to improve service to the York community, the Caretaking section will be distributing tags that are to be used to identify large items that cannot be placed in regular waste baskets for disposal during the night shift. Articles or bags to be removed, should be placed near waste baskets or doors of offices with a tag on each item. Plastics garbage bags and tags may be obtained by calling Caretaking at -77606. Bags should not be overloaded. To dispose of heavy or bulky items as well as sizable quantities of cardboard, call Grounds at -55502.

The Graduate Program in Theatre and Equity Showcase Theatre present the Royal Shakespeare Company version of "The Greeks." The play, co-directed by David Rotenberg and Tom Diamond with original music composed and performed by Phyllis Cohen, is a compendium of ten classical Greek dramas. The cycle will be presented in two parts, opening March 22 and 23, and running through to April 1. Part I, "The Cursed," and Part II, "The Blessed," are given on alternate weekday evenings at 8:00 p.m. The full cycle will be performed on weekends, Part I at 3:00 p.m. and Part II at 8:00 p.m. at the Upstairs Stage, 26 Berkeley Street. Admission is $5.00. Call the Box Office at 963-9226 for further information.

Applications are invited for the position of Academic Advisor of McLaughlin College for a three-year term, commencing July 1, 1990. Full and part-time faculty with a PhD or equivalent and first year teaching and advising experience are invited to apply. Principal responsibilities are for the McLaughlin College course program, including critical skills development and for the academic advising system. McLaughlin's primary focus is on public policy. Applications should be sent to Victoria Rambert-Perot, Room 229, McLaughlin (-33824), by March 26.

President Arthurs' Open Forum for the York Community

March 28, 1990

Senate Chamber

(9th floor, Ross Building)

12:00 noon to 2:00 p.m.

12:15 p.m. Looking Backward/Looking Forward:
A Report to the York Community

1:00 p.m. Open Forum: Ask your questions;
discuss your concerns

All members of the York Community are encouraged to attend

Supervisors are requested to organize work schedules to allow a two-hour lunch break for all staff who wish to attend

University offices will operate on summer hours from the beginning of Daylight Saving Time until the Labour Day weekend. Effective date: Monday, April 2, 1990 to Friday, August 31, 1990. Hours: 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The Printing Services Department will be closed for inventory March 28. All printing requests submitted by 4:30 p.m. on April 13 will be completed and charged against the 1989/90 budget. Requests received after April 13 will be processed as soon as possible. However, orders not completed by 4:30 p.m., April 23 will be charged against the 1990-91 budget, unless otherwise notified when the order is received.

In the interest of ensuring prompt arrival of required and recommended textbooks, members of the community are asked to: use only official bookstore request forms (available by calling -55024); ensure that all information on these forms is accurate, complete and legible (otherwise, they will be returned to the originator for clarification); and forward these to the Bookstore on or before the following deadlines: a) for Fall courses, no later than April 16 (for French books and those in foreign languages) and May 15 (all other textbooks); and b) for Winter courses, no later than October 15. The Bookstores apologize for any inconvenience their last suggested "deadlines" announcement may have caused faculty members.

Applications for the position of Residence Tutor at Calumet College are being received. Applicants are normally associated with York as graduate students. The appointment runs for nine months beginning October 1, 1990 through June 30, 1991. Residential accommodation will not be available until January 1, 1991. This is normally a three-year appointment. A letter of application with curriculum vitae should be sent to Peggy Keall, Master, Room 118, Atkinson. Three letters of reference are required. The deadline for receipt of applications is April 20. The job description for the position is available from Gabriele Hardt at -33487 or Peggy Keall at -33489.

GENERAL:

Good Friday: University offices will be closed Friday, April 13.

University offices will operate on summer hours from the beginning of Daylight Saving Time until the Labour Day weekend. Effective date: Monday, April 2, 1990 to Friday, August 31, 1990. Hours: 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Applications are being accepted for the Lucille Herbert Memorial Scholarship, a $1,000 award to assist any good undergraduate student in English (Faculty of Arts), proposing to travel in Europe, especially France, and who has taken at least four courses in English (including current enrollment). Interested persons should write to Prof. Frank Davey, Chair, Department of English, Room 334, Stong, giving present level of study, English courses taken and grades obtained, present academic plans, and object of travel (no referees). The deadline for applications is April 20.

York full-time faculty members are reminded that the next application deadline for SSHRC Small Research Grants (adjudicated by a York committee) for projects up to $3,500 is March 31, not March 15 as previously stated. For further information call the Office of Research Administration at -55055.

Teaching Development Fellowships are available to the part-time faculty of York under the terms of the Unit 2 Collective Agreement between CUEW and the University. Applicants must be or recently have been members of Unit 2 of CUEW. One competition is held in each contract year (September 1-August 31) and two awards, each in the amount of a Course Directory salary ($9,141 for 1989-90) may be made each year subject to the scope and substance of the proposals received. These awards are for the purpose of assisting employees to develop a new program of study, new courses and teaching materials, and/or their teaching skills. Awards are made through competition based on the merit of a proposal as assessed by a selection committee. More detailed guidelines are available from the Academic Staff Relations Office, Room S958A, Ross. The deadline for application proposals has been extended to March 30.

The York Bookstores request that faculty wishing to place orders for Fall 1990/91 do so as soon as possible, and in any case, no later than April 15. Please note that orders for foreign language texts are urgent.
