GENERAL:

York Builds Days
 October 9&10
 Post Office Square,
 Ross Bldg.
 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

All members of the York community are invited to view displays on each of the building projects and learn more about York's Building Program.

Thanksgiving Holiday: University offices will be closed Monday, October 8.

York University Libraries will be open regular hours Saturday, October 6 and Sunday, October 7, but will be closed Monday, October 8.

The York Alumni Association presents the Homecoming '90 Dance, October 11 in the Founders Dining Hall, featuring "The Razorbacks." Tickets are $4.00. Doors open at 9:00 p.m. For further information about this or other Homecoming events, call the Department of Alumni Affairs at -55010.

The Office of Research Administration wishes to notify researchers that the NSERC Form 115 has been updated and NSERC will accept only the 1990 version.

Please ensure that the Form 115 has the 1990 date on the bottom left corner prior to submission. Copies of this form are available from ORA, Room S414, Ross.

York University will present the Harry Crowe Memorial Lecture Series, October 14 in the Moot Court, Osgoode Hall Law School. The topic will be "The October Crisis: Twenty Years Later." The one-day conference will examine Quebec nationalism as it evolved since the FLQ Crisis in 1970 and Canada-Quebec relations in the wake of the failure of Meech Lake. For further information call the Division of Social Science at -55054.

The Office of the President, the Office of the Dean of Arts, York International, and Founders College will host the Canadian Association for Latin American and Caribbean Studies (CALACS) Annual Meeting, October 14-14 in the Senior Common Room, Founders College. The 1990 Annual Conference on "Forging Identities and Patterns of Development in Latin America and the Caribbean" will examine processes of socio-economic development in the two regions and the way in which these processes relate to the formation of political and cultural identities. For further information contact Liddy Gomes or Bice Manguashca, CERLAC, Room 204, Founders (local-55237).

The Faculty of Pure and Applied Science will present the inauguration of the Harold I. Schiff Lectureship Series, October 19 in the Senate Chamber (S915), Ross. The topic this year will be "Frontiers in Atmospheric Chemistry." This lectureship series is in recognition of Harold Schiff's founding role in the Faculty, his many important contributions to atmospheric chemistry and his considerable and lasting impact in the field, both in Canada and internationally. For further information call Carol Francis at -55586.

The Director of Operations, Physical Plant, on behalf of the Vice-President (Finance and Administration), is forming a Waste Reduction Advisory Committee with a mandate to facilitate planning and advise on the operation of the university-wide waste reduction programs. Anyone interested in serving on this Committee is asked to write Mr. Khursh Iranl, Director of Operations, Department of Physical Plant, Room 108, Construction Headquarters Building, no later than October 5, indicating interest, background and the constituency they are prepared to represent and/or deal with.

A farewell reception will be held to honour Fern Reiners on the occasion of her retirement after 23 years with the Faculty of Fine Arts at York. The reception will take place October 16 from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the Fireside Lounge, Fine Arts Phase III.
