Monday, February 10 - Monday, February 17, 1992
Volume 12, Number 5

GENERAL:

All undergraduate Colleges are currently accepting applications for 1992/93 Residence Donships. These positions are open to York graduate and senior undergraduate students in good standing. International students are welcome to apply. For further information and application forms please contact the following offices: Calumet - Room 325, Lynn Hamilton (-20201); Founders - Room 221, Bev Richards (-66919); McLaughlin - Room 222, Pam Montoute (-77084); Norman Bethune - Room 205D, Janet Walsglass (-33958); Stong - Room 315, Master's Office (-55132); Vanier - Room 254, Pam Persaud (-77399); and Winters - Room 275, Valerie Bruce (-77446).

Health and Wellness York will present a Health Fair, February 12 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the East Bear Pit, Central Square. Activities, demonstrations and videos will provide information on alcohol and drugs, birth control, STDs & AIDS, Sexual Harassment, and Stress Management.

The Faculty of Environmental Studies will offer Facilitative Leadership Workshops, beginning February 29 at the York campus. Fees are as follows: $395 - full course, or $250 - refresher (only available to those who have already taken the workshop). The registration deadline is February 17. For further information or to register, call Mary Bernard or Dianne Zecchino at -55285.

Members of the York community are asked to note that effective February 18, the University Secretariat will be located in Suite S883 of the Ross Building. Their telephone number (-55012) will remain unchanged.

The Centre for International and Strategic Studies is accepting applications for the position of Administrative Officer. Reporting to the Director, the officer is responsible for the provision of effective non-academic support services. Responsibilities include research contract administration and budgeting; supervision of the secretarial and clerical staff of the Centre; personnel administration for researchers and support staff; and management of the Centre's facilities including equipment, space, and supplies. Qualifications: University graduation or equivalent; at least three year's related administrative and budgetary experience in a university setting; demonstrated budgeting and bookkeeping skills; demonstrated ability to supervise, direct and coordinate activities of secretarial and clerical staff; excellent organizational skills; excellent written, oral, interpersonal and public relations skills; experience in computerized worksheet applications and wordprocessing (preferably Lotus and Wordperfect 5.1). This is a two-year contract position with possibilities of renewal. The deadline for applications is February 17. Salary commensurate with experience. For information call Kathy Byers at -55156.

Security Services reminds the York community that in the event of an emergency they should telephone the Security Control Centre (-33333 or 736-5333) and not "911" directly. Security will assess the situation and if any other emergency services are required, they will be contacted.

Employment Services, Department of Human Resources, offers support staff a one-hour, informal workshop on: Strategies for the Job Applicant: Part I - Preparing an Effective Resume (February 28 at 12 noon); and Part II - Making the Most of an Interview (March 6 at 12 noon). Both sessions will take place in Room 201, Stong. As space is limited, please call Elizabeth Alexander at -66159 to register.

The deadline date for applications to the Sabbatical Leave Fellowship Fund (administered by the Office of Research Administration) has been moved further beyond the already extended date of February 15. ORA will inform the York community of the new deadline as soon as possible.

The York University Bookstore will host its first "Book Lover's Sale," starting February 14. Thousands of titles from a variety of subject areas will be sold at bargain prices. The sale is being conducted in the Convenience Store, located on the main level of the Bookstore. For further information call Karin Kennel at -55024.

The Department of Physical Education, Recreation and Athletics will again offer the "Recession Buster Sale" on Recreation/Athletic memberships until April 30. Current and new members may qualify for a 50-100% rebate on their membership fees. Conditions apply. For information call -55182 or -22346.

The Office of Employment Equity has started an informal task force to examine and make recommendations about employment equity issues at York for lesbians and gay men. YUSA and CEYU lesbians that would like to participate in this task force, or have any suggestions, are asked to contact Christine Donald through the Employment Equity Office (-55706). The office would also be pleased to hear from any other members of the York community.

GENERAL:

The Purchasing Department advises the York community that their transition from a manual to a computerized purchasing system has been achieved. Implemented on December 9, the system has operated very successfully. On November 13, 1991, a document covering new purchasing procedures and guidelines was distributed to all Directors, Deans and executive officers to assist divisions/departments with the new process. Copies of the form can be obtained by calling Jane Martin at -22248. Two new forms have also been introduced - the Payment Requisition Form (Catalogue #F74) and the Purchasing Change Notice (Catalogue #F75). They are now available through the York Bookstore. Other features of the Purchasing system, such as electronic requisitioning and receiving will be introduced as soon as it is feasible. In the meantime, inquiry is available to all current FRS users, should assistance be required. Please call -22000.

The Admissions/Liaison Office will host March Break '92, March 16-20, for Ontario secondary school applicants. The program will commence each day at 9:00 a.m. in the Norman Bethune Dining Hall. Visitors will have the opportunity to meet with faculty, staff, and students, as well as attend program sessions, lectures, special demonstrations, or tours. March 16 is also Environmental Action Day. This year's theme is "Beauty and Destruction: Sharing the Earth With Older Animals." Environmental groups will set up displays in the Student Centre commencing at 12:30 p.m. and a panel discussion on the theme will take place in Room 306, Lumbers at 4:00 p.m. In addition, program sessions about the Bachelor of Environmental Studies will be available each day. For information about March Break '92, call Sharon Harrison at -55100.

Members of the York community are asked to note that effective February 21, the Centre for the Support of Teaching will be located in Room S834 of the Ross Building. The CST Resource Centre will be unavailable from February 17-26.

The deadline for applications to the Sabbatical Leave Fellowship Fund (administered by the Office of Research Administration) has been confirmed for March 15. The deadline has been extended from the usual January 15 deadline for this year only. For information and applications, call ORA at -55055.

York faculty members are advised of a newly created award, the Marvin B. Gelber Awards for International Academic Exchange. The faculty awards have been established with a generous gift from the estate of Marvin B. Gelber through the Gelber Foundation to promote closer ties between Canada and York University, on the one hand, and Europe and European academic institutions, on the other. Three awards of $2,000 are available to York faculty members in the Humanities and Social Sciences to support travel to Europe in connection with a formal program of study or research which involves residence in a European country for at least one academic term. For further information call ORA at -55055.

The entrance examination for admission to the School of Translation at Glendon College, in September 1992, will be held on Saturday, March 7 in Room 143, York Hall. To register, call 487-6742.

Female volunteers between the ages of 30-45 are invited to participate in a short and interesting psychology study to be conducted at Norman Bethune College. The time required is approximately 30-45 minutes, for which a cash payment is awarded. For information call -55728.

Host families are needed to house French-speaking postsecondary students during a six-week English immersion program (July 6-August 14). Funding of $750 per student is available to homes in the Downsview, Willowdale and Thornhill areas, to cover room and board. Interested persons are asked to call Sean at the Centre for Continuing Education (-55025).

The York University Cooperative Daycare Centre is co-hosting with the Student Childcare Centre, its first Leap Year Dance on February 29 at the Student Centre Underground Restaurant. Tickets are available at the Coop Daycare Office, Room 128, 22 Moon Rd. Tickets are $8 in advance or $10 at the door. The Daycare Centre is also holding a Valentine Raffle, to be drawn March 27. Prizes include an Algonquin Weekend Getaway for 2, or round-trip for 1 to London, England, original art by Andy Knight, as well as many other great prizes. Tickets are $2 or 3 for $5 and are available from 22 Moon Road.
