GENERAL:

The Senate Committee on Academic Computing, the Faculty of Graduate Studies, the York University Libraries and Computing and Communications Services are sponsoring an Open Forum on Graduate Computer Support, March 4 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. in Room 1152A, Vari Hall. All members of the York community are invited to participate.

The Centre for International and Strategic Studies is accepting applications for the position of Research Officer. Reporting to the Director, the Research Officer is responsible for providing primary administrative support for the research activities of the York Centre. Qualifications: University graduate degree in a related field; at least two years related experience (preferably in a university setting); excellent organizational skills; demonstrated ability to manage complex projects; excellent ability to work independently; excellent written, oral, and interpersonal skills; and good wordprocessing skills. French language an asset. This is a two-year contract position with possibilities of renewal. The deadline for applications is March 4. Salary commensurate with experience. For information call Kathy Byers at -55156.

Senate has recently approved the establishment of two annual University-wide teaching awards, one to a member of the full-time faculty, the other to a person teaching in any other capacity than full-time. To be eligible, instructors must have taught at York for a minimum of three years. The awards recognize such attributes as good organization, effective communication, positive attitudes towards students, fairness in examination and grading, flexible approaches, and appropriate student learning outcomes. Award winners will receive, among other forms of recognition, a $5,000 cash honorarium. Nomination forms and guidelines are available from the Centre for the Support of Teaching, Room S834, Ross. Submissions must be received at the Centre by March 2.
