Convocation Robes: Members of the York community who have not yet submitted their robe request forms are asked to send them immediately, or call the Convocation Office at -55325 to make their request.

The Toronto District of the National Congress of Italian Canadians invites members of the York community to a preview of "Italian Canadian Women: Struggles, Defeats, and Triumphs," a videotaped record of the first roundtable discussion in the Mirrors & Windows series. Mirrors & Windows is an on-going exploration of the Italian Canadian identity -- a community education project of the Mariano A. Elia Chair in Italian Canadian Studies at York in collaboration with The Vitanova Foundation. The preview takes place June 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the offices of The Vitanova Foundation, 90 Winges Road, Suite 203, Woodbridge. Interested persons are asked to RSVP by June 4 to Silvana Stifani at -55016. Co-convenors: Gabriella Colussi Arthur, Program Director, The Mariano A. Elia Chair in Italian Canadian Studies; and Tony Carella, Chairman of the Board of Directors of The Vitanova Foundation.

"Different Canadas, Diverse Sociologies" is the title of a conference celebrating 25 years of Graduate Sociology at York. The conference takes place June 2 and 3 in Vari Lecture Hall "A." The registration fee is $25; graduate students $10. For further information or to register, contact Reza Rahbari at -55015 (ext. 60314).

The York Youth Connection needs camp supplies for the summer and would appreciate receiving any spare "Canadian Tire Money." Please mail or drop-off contributions to the Community Relations Office, Suite A, WOB or to the Master's Office, Room 120, Atkinson.

The Office of Research Administration is organizing a SSHRC Information Session for those faculty members who are considering applying for a SSHRC Research Grant next fall (Deadline: October 15). The session will be held June 2 at 10:00 a.m. in the Senate Chamber (S915), Ross. It will be led by Prof. Reg Whitaker (Political Science/Arts). Please confirm attendance by contacting ORA at -55055 or by E-mail (RESEARCH@VM2.YORKU.CA).

The Faculty of Administrative Studies will host this year's "Back to the Campus" for Canadian CEOs, MBA students and business faculty on June 3, 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. For more information, call Peter Schneider, Special Projects Manager at -55844.

York Campus Bookstore and Micro York Hours (May 31 - June 12): Monday-Thursday, 8:30 a.m.-7:00 p.m.; Friday, 8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m.; Saturday, 10:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.; Sunday, closed.

Glendon Bookstore Hours (June 7 - July 4): Monday-Friday, 9:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday, closed. The Bookstore will be closed July 1 and 2 for the Canada Day holiday weekend.

Members of the York community are asked to note that the meeting of the Council of the Faculty of Graduate Studies scheduled for June 3 is cancelled.

GENERAL (cont'd.)

Recreation York "Take-a-Break" and Mass Participate: Elizabeth Hopkins (Vice-President, Campus Relations/Student Affairs) will display her support and commitment to healthy active living through a spirited campus community walk on Participation Day, Wednesday, June 2. Recreation York welcomes all faculty, staff and students to "Take-a-Break and Mass Participate." A 15-minute walk will begin at 12:15 p.m. from the front entrance of Tait McKenzie (east side). The walk is part of the Crownlife Participaction Challenge, a one-day, Canada-wide, mass participaction event in support of a healthy, active lifestyle. Members of the York community are also reminded of Canada's Fitweek Events that are taking place at York, May 28-June 6. Recreation York will offer Line Dancing lessons, free of charge, June 7, 9 and 11 from 1:10 to 1:50 p.m. in the Main Gym, Tait McKenzie.

The Department of Physical Plant (Grounds and Vehicles) and members of the Faculty of Environmental Studies and the Biology Department are working together on a naturalization experiment on the west edge of the Michael Boyer Woodlot. The experiment involves stopping the regular grass cutting in the designated area and encouraging the growth of indigenous meadow grasses and shrubs. The process is to be monitored by Physical Plant and the students and staff of the two concerned Faculties. Over time, it is expected that the meadow will attract an array of bird and insect species. For further information, please contact Chris Mark, Physical Plant (-22373); Rob Macdonald, Environmental Studies (-22626); or Joel Shore, Biology Department (-33492).

The York Astronomical Observatory is open to the general public for summer viewing every Wednesday evening until the end of September. Viewing hours are 9:00 p.m. until approximately 11:30 p.m. Along with telescope viewing, there will be slide presentations, a spectroscopy display, computer software demonstrations, and a variety of astronomically related documentary videos. NOTE: All ceremonies will take place at the York campus, east of the Centre for Film and Theatre.

Due to Convocation ceremonies, the Common Road will be closed to all vehicular traffic including TTC service as follows: June 9 (1:00-4:00 p.m.); June 10 (9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.); June 11 (9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.); June 12 (9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.); June 15 (9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.); and June 16 (9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.). TTC passenger pick-up and drop-off at the Common will be re-routed during this period to the northeast and southwest corners of York Blvd. and Fraser Dr. Signage will be posted indicating exact locations of temporary bus stops.

Members of the York community are asked to note that the back room of the Faculty Club will be closed June 9 to 16 for the Chancellor's luncheons.

The Search Committee is actively seeking nominations from the York community for potential candidates for the position of Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies. Candidates are to be internal to the University. In keeping with the University's commitment to affirmative action, the Committee will conduct a broad and proactive search, making special efforts to seek and attract women candidates and candidates from amongst all parts of York's diverse community. The candidate must possess excellent academic qualifications as well as administrative skills and experience, in order to provide outstanding leadership for the University's graduate teaching and research programs, and to be responsible for the Faculty's budget and administration. The candidate must also be capable of promoting the University's external image of research excellence through the Ontario Council of Graduate Studies. Because the Dean of a Faculty at York is one of the senior administrators of the University, a familiarity with the wider organization of the University is a desirable attribute. Nominations may be made by September 20, 1993, in strict confidence to the Secretary of the Search Committee for the Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, c/o the President's Office, S949, Ross. The Committee Chair will be Prof. Michael Stevenson, Vice-President (Academic Affairs).

The Search Committee is actively seeking nominations from the York community for potential candidates for the position of Dean of the Faculty of Pure and Applied Science. Candidates are to be internal to the University. In keeping with the University's commitment to affirmative action, the Committee will conduct a broad and proactive search, making special efforts to seek and attract women candidates and candidates from amongst all parts of York's diverse community. The candidate must possess excellent academic qualifications as well as administrative skills and experience, in order to provide outstanding leadership for the University's teaching and research programs in pure and applied science, and to be responsible for the Faculty's budget and administration. Because the Dean of a Faculty at York is one of the senior administrators of the University, a familiarity with the wider organization of the University is a desirable attribute. Nominations may be made by September 20, 1993, in strict confidence to the Secretary of the Search Committee for the Dean of the Faculty of Pure and Applied Science, c/o the President's Office, S949, Ross. The Committee Chair will be Prof. Joan Wick Pelletier, Associate Vice-President (Research).

Members of the York community are asked to note that there will be a total steam shutdown affecting all heating and domestic hot water in all buildings on the York campus. The shutdown will take place between 7:00 p.m. on June 4 and 7:00 a.m. on June 5.

Science faculty re-applying for NSERC research grants next fall, and those who are applying for the first time, should be advised that they must first submit "advance material" to NSERC by August 13. Details and information packages are available from the Office of Research Administration (S414, Ross), ext. 55055 (E-mail: RESEARCH@VM2.YORKU.CA).

In 1979, President Ian Macdonald established The Ronald Kent Medal, in memory of his driver, Ronald Kent and his many years of devoted service to York. The medal is awarded periodically to honour unusual service to the University by a member of the non-academic staff. Its recipients thus far have been Ron Kent (posthumously), Olga Cirak, Roy Whitty, Joan Young, Nancy Accinelli, Frank Jarvis and Janice Pearson. A selection committee chaired by Vice-President Sheldon Levy receives nominations and makes recommendations to the President as to suitable recipients of the Medal. It is intended to award the Medal this winter. Members of the York community are invited to submit nominations for the award to Billie Mullick, Office of the Vice-President (Institutional Affairs), Room S958A, Ross, by Monday, June 21.

Recreation York wishes to inform the York community that the individual category for the most decorative sneakers at the Sneaker Day Contest was won by Alison Balneaves of Atkinson College. The group category winner was the Faculty of Fine Arts. Recreation will offer Line Dancing classes (free of charge) June 7, 9 and 11 from 1:10 to 1:50 p.m. in the Main Gym, Tait McKenzie. Children's Red Cross Swimming Lessons will be offered by Recreation York this summer. Lessons will be a half-hour in length on Monday evenings between 7:00 and 9:00 p.m. The session will run from June 14 to August 9. The cost is $25 for members and $35 for non-members. Please register at the Recreation York Office (Room 211), Tait McKenzie.

The Master of Calumet College wishes to inform the York community that James Brown has been appointed Academic Advisor, effective July 1, 1993.

GENERAL:

Members of the York community are reminded that the next pick-up of confidential fine paper for disposal and recycling (computer print-out, letters, exams, and other fine paper) will take place sometime during the last week of June and the first week of July. The material will be collected by the Grounds Division and delivered to a paper recycling company, where the paper will be shredded and recycled in a safe and confidential manner. The community is also advised that in a continuing effort to reduce solid waste, the Grounds Division will no longer distribute corrugated cardboard boxes for storage of confidential paper. Please be advised that used corrugated cardboard boxes can be obtained from all building loading docks or service areas. Please note that departments must call the Grounds Division at -55502 by Friday, June 18 to request pick-up (stating location and exact number of cartons to be collected). Any questions regarding this program can be directed to Paul Mayol at the University's Recycling Help-Line (-40444).

ORA is organizing a workshop for those faculty members considering applying to one of the SSHRC Strategic Grants Programs in the fall (application date of October 15). The workshop will take place Wednesday, June 23 at 10:00 a.m. in Room 004, Atkinson (Harry Leith Room). It will be led by Profs. Paul Anisef and Anton Turriffin (Sociology/Arts) who recently received an award from this program. To confirm attendance, please contact ORA at -55055 (E-mail: RESEARCH@VM2.YORKU.CA).

Canada Day Weekend: All University libraries will be closed Thursday, July 1 through Sunday, July 4, 1993.
